THEATERS

"THE KAISER"—LAST TIME

Packed to overflowing, packed as early as 7 o'clock last evening, packed again when the second run was started and packed throughout the entire showings of that amazing spectacle, "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin," the Rex theater was taxed to its utmost to take care of the crowds. "The Kaiser" will be shown again tonight at the Rex and all who will attend are advised to be in their seats early. The film is a remarkable and wonderful picture. It conveys a powerful message for every true American and works the audience into a tremendous pitch of enthusiasm. Not one pre-German took advantage of the offer of free admission. Here's a picture you must see.

Another Stupendous Film.

Another stupendous film is coming to the Rex tomorrow entitled "Cheating the Public," produced by William Fox. In this daring picture, food profiteers are exposed, child labor infamies are disclosed with superhuman characterization. The biggest problem of American housewives is the food problem. See the food riots, the waiting electric chair, the factory girl fight for life and the night race. Is the strike a fair weapon? See for yourself at the Rex tomorrow.

The first of the big series of "The Eagle's Eye" will also be shown. It is the work of William J. Flynn, recently retired chief of the United States Secret Service. The entry of America into the war has led Chief Flynn to make the disclosures of German spy plotting and intrigue. It was done to mould public opinion and the first showing is called "The Hidden Death."

ELKO TONIGHT

Dainty Marguerite Clark appears in Paramount picture, "The Seven Swans," at the Elko theater tonight and Thursday. An added attraction will be a new Paramount-Mack Sennett two-part comedy. A special matinee for children will be held Thursday afternoon beginning at 4:20 o'clock.

Coming to Elko.

Another Paralta Play is to be seen here on Friday and Saturday, when the Elko will screen "An Alien Enemy," the very latest Paralta release. Louise Glaum is starred in this play which is the only one in which she has appeared in a role really to her liking—she is not a vampire this time.

GRAND TONIGHT

A strikingly unusual film is "The Spurs of Sybil," the new World Picture Brady-Made which will be shown at the Grand theater tonight. Alice Brady is the star of this production.

Grand Thursday.

William S. Hart is the character of "Wolf Lowry," a western play strongly in contrast with others he has appeared in, will be seen at the Grand theater tomorrow.

Today—Telephone the Pioneer office, 922, about that news item you have in mind. Your guests and friends will appreciate the courtesy.

RED CROSS NOTES

Save Your Salvage.

Mrs. F. T. Beaver, in charge of the salvage drive for the Red Cross, announces that it is to start April 29 and will last during the week. Some of the assistants have been appointed, comprising Mrs. E. H. Deane, Mrs. C. E. Battles, Mrs. D. S. Mitchell, Mrs. O. H. Manough, Mrs. Ray Olson, Mrs. W. N. Bowser, Mrs. Ned Given and Mrs. A. A. Warfield. There will also be several others engaged in the drive.

A vacant store next to Baker's jewelry has been secured for housing the salvage collected and will be headquarters during the week. The city will be divided into districts and a house-to-house canvass will be made and also in the business district. The salvage will be collected by those in charge. No waste paper can be used and no food tin cans can be used as there is no market for these except in the larger cities and the expense of handling at this distance is too great for profit. Magazines, however, can be used.

It is also desired to notify the farmers that they are included in helping. If any farmer who has anything that can be sold for junk will bring it to Bemidji the week of the drive, it will be appreciated. Country schools should also take an active part in this big drive.

CIRCLE ELECTS OFFICERS

The Pennington Red Cross circle met at Mrs. Thurlaut's April 4 and the following officers were elected: President—Mrs. J. McDonald. Vice president—Mrs. Thurlaut. Secretary—Miss Mabel Dugan. Treasurer—Mrs. Gamache. The following committees were appointed:

Work committee—Mrs. J. McDonald, Mrs. Grier, Mrs. Saunders. Entertainment committee—Mrs. Thurlaut, Mrs. Gamache, Mrs. Strong.

LETTER FROM FRANCE SAYS

Y. M. C. A. IS GREAT FACTOR

George Nelson, formerly scaler at the Crookston lumber mills and who is now in France, writes George Pelton in a letter dated March 10, that the Y. M. C. A. is a most needed institution and soldiers would not know what to do without the "Y." "Camp life would be very dull without the Y. M. C. A.," writes Mr. Nelson, and infers that the people at home ought to support it to the limit.

CHURCH BUYS PARSONAGE

Martin Johnson has sold his home to the Swedish Lutheran church and Rev. O. P. Grambo and family will take possession as soon as Mr. Johnson can find a new home.
