HIS SWELLED HEAD REDUCED

Why Recruit at Camp Upton No Longer Brags of His Prowess With the "Padded Mitts."

A certain husky, raw-boned recruit from an interior town reached Camp Upton recently and brought forth two sets of boxing gloves. He confided to his comrades that he was a mighty fine boxer, and "back home" he had thrashed everybody who had tried conclusions with him. This declaration naturally was an invitation, and all promptly professed to know nothing of the manly art and asked if he would give them a little instruction.

Flattered, the youth stated his willingness to oblige, and the following day was set for the lesson. The pupils promptly hunted up Benny Leonard, the lightweight champion, who was and is the boxing instructor at Upton, and arranged for him to meet the recruit. The latter was informed that he was to give the first lesson to a very "fresh" youngster, and he agreed to put the unknown in his place. When Leonard was brought before him he wanted to back out, stating that he couldn't think of boxing with a man so much smaller than himself.

Leonard, however, insisted that the lesson go on, and each put on his gloves. During the "lesson" Benny never struck a blow, but contented himself with feinting, ducking, dodging and blocking until the volunteer teacher was so exhausted with his own efforts that he could scarcely stand. He stopped finally, congratulated the champion on his showing, said that he did very well "for an amateur," and then made his way to the barracks to bed. When, later, he was informed of the identity of his antagonist, he said several things more or less complimentary to those who had put up the job on him and sent the gloves to his home. -Leslie's Weekly.

PRISONER SENDS BROKEN LEG OUT FOR REPAIRS

East Liverpool, O.—Charged with dallying too long with the "cup that queers," John H. Mercer was arrested.

During the process of arrest his leg was broken. As a consequence he paced his narrow cell at the city prison with difficulty.

An acquaintance visited him. "Here," said John, "I've broken my leg. Take it down to the blacksmith shop and have a piece welded on it, so I can walk smooth." The friend carried out instructions. The leg was wooden.

TRAIN CATS FOR HUNTING

Not Even Burbank Has One Thing on This Officer From the State of California.

Oakland, Cal.—Robert Tyson, assistant probation officer, is the owner of two felines, Clinkers and Cinders. They accompany him on his pre-dawn light trip through his orchard. At the report of a gun they dash off to get their prey, seldom failing to return with a bird.

To such a remarkable degree has Tyson trained the hunting instinct in the felines that it is necessary to warn guests not to slam the doors in the house.

He explains that on one occasion the noise of a door slamming was mistaken for the report of a gun and the cats started out in search of prey.

This mistake cost him two pet goslings.

Sleeps While Standing. Marysville, Cal.—Dan Kelly, arrested on a misdemeanor charge, went to sleep standing up in the court room. Called upon for an explanation, Kelly, who has only one natural leg to stand upon and one wooden one, declared that he had suffered with asthma for the past ten years and had to sleep standing up. He said he was so accustomed to dozing in this position that he forgot he was in court.

SAVE YOUR PEACH STONES

The United States has started a drive for peach stones. The stones are reduced to a charcoal powder and this filters the poison out of the gas and saves the lives of our soldiers. Here are shown a couple of pretty misses throwing peach stones into the barrel set aside for that purpose.

PUT IT UP TO THE STATE

Parents Unable to Agree on Name for Child Ask State to Decide.

Toledo, O.—There's trouble in a household in the village of Sylvania, not far from here.

A child was born to this family recently. The husband was alone in the home when the state enumerator called.

The mother wanted the child to have one name while the husband desired it to carry another through life. The father won.

Now the mother has appealed to the state department of vital statistics, asking that the child's name be changed so as to conform to her wishes. State officials have failed to unearth any law authorizing such action.

DOUBLE-BARRELED STORY OF MOTHER-IN-LAW WOE

Oakland, Cal.—Emma Claypool has been granted a divorce from Thomas B. Claypool on testimony that his mother as well as hers lived in the same house with them and that his mother held views that were contrary to her own mother's. So far as the court records show, the only trouble seems to have been between the two mothers-in-law.

Thief Steals Tombstone.

Oshkosh, Wis.—How a thief could steal a 500-pound tombstone and get away with it is something that is puzzling county officials. Relatives who erected a granite tombstone to the memory of Christian Kleinschmidt, pioneer farmer of Black Wolf, reported the theft.

YANKS ENJOY "CHOW TIME" MOST OF ALL

(By United Press.)

With the American army in France, Sept. 14. (By Mail.)—"Chow time" means one of the most picturesque sights along the front, especially with the Americans. It seems to mean more to the Americans than to any other army, perhaps because American "grub" is better.

Happen along through a ruined village or a woods in an American sector 15 minutes before "chow time" and you would think their place deserted. Probably there wouldn't be more than one or two stray doughboys in sight.

Come along 15 minutes later and you wonder "where in thunder they all came from."

They'll be lined up, in front of each line there'll be a field kitchen steaming away, with a perspiring army cook dishing out grub that makes you want to "grab some tools and get in line" too.

There's lots of animation at "chow time" among the Americans. A crowd of Frenchmen is quiet while eating, the only time French soldiers are quiet. They munch their bread and meat vegetables and drink their wine in silence.

Not so with the Americans. It's a big time. First of all, there's speculation on "what's to chow for today." There's variety in Uncle Sam's army menus.

Then as they sit around on the ground, or ruins, or under trees, and that satisfied feeling of having eaten a good meal grown upon them, there's lots of life and joking among the doughboys.

"Doughboys chow" is good. Usually there is soup. Then there are meat and vegetables, usually two kinds. There are always big slices of white bread and coffee. Nine times out of 10 there's dessert, probably pudding or fruit.

Each man has a pan with a handle that folds into it, and a cup. Someway they get some of everything in a four-course meal into these 2 instruments and never mix foods. Only one of these "war experts" could do that.

A TWICE TOLD TALE

One of Interest to Our Readers.

Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitated to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of a Bemidji woman is confirmed after three years.

Mrs. Joe Blondo, 202 Minnesota avenue, says: "My back ached so I couldn't rest at night. It was hard for me to turn over or shift my position when lying down. My kidneys were disordered. Knowing the good results one of my people had obtained from Doan's Kidney Pills, I tried them. They soon removed the aching and strengthened my kidneys. I was all right and have felt well ever since." (Statement given January 27, 1914.)

On November 1, 1917 Mrs. Blondo said: "I am glad to say no disorder of the kidneys has troubled me since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me in 1914. Today I cheerfully repeat my former words of praise."

Get the Habit of Drinking Hot Water Before Breakfast

Says we can't look or feel right with the system full of poisons.

Millions of folks bathe internally now instead of loading their system with drugs. "What's an inside bath?" you say. Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles if you could believe these hot water enthusiasts.

There are vast numbers of men and women who, immediately upon arising in the morning, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and the thirty feet of intestines of the previous day's waste, sour bile and indigestible material left over in the body which if not eliminated every day, become food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels, the quick result is poisons and toxins which are then absorbed into the blood causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste, colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sorts of ailments.

People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply can not get feeling right are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so limestone phosphate and hot water act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It is vastly more important to bathe on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
