

WITH THE FUNNY MEN

Simple Logic.

An Irishman was brought before a magistrate on a charge of vagrancy, and questioned. "What trade are you in?"

"Your honor, a sailor."

"You in the seafaring line? I question whether you have ever been to sea in your life."

"Shure, now, and does your honor think I came over from Ireland in a waggin'?"—Blighty (London).

She Didn't Find All.

"I found a letter in your coat pocket that you had not mailed."

"Is that all you found in my pocket?"

"That is all there was in it."

"Oh, no, it's not."

"What else, I'd like to know?"

"A rip under the sleeve, but, of course, you were not looking for anything like that."

Couldn't Expect More.

"That fortune teller told me I was to come into a fortune of $5,000."

"Is that all?"

"Well, I only gave her a quarter."—Boston Evening Transcript.

The Place to Do It.

He—I am going to put my foot down on the next purchase made for this house.

She—All right, you can put it down on a new carpet.

Looks It.

Beas—Has she been the making of him?

Belle—I guess so; he looks like a cross between a soft cushion and a dolly.

An American $2 Bill Did This

BEFORE.

Motherless, fatherless, homeless, nameless, hungry and clad only in rags, the pathetic little three-year-old shown at the left wandered into a Near East Relief orphanage in Armenia. Another photograph of the same child, shown at the right, was taken a week later, this time showing him, happy, well clothed and well fed.

Somewhere in America is the happy man or woman who contributed the $2 bill which wrought this miracle. More than a quarter million other helpless little victims of Turkish cruelty and oppression are knocking at the doors of the Near East Relief orphanages in Western Asia. Many more American $2 bills are needed now to let them in and to care for them until they can care for themselves.

AFTER.

Tribute to Shakespeare.

Only Shakespeare was endowed with that healthy equilibrium of nature whose range was elliptical, dominating all zones of human thought and action—that power of verisimilar conception which could take away Richard III from history, and Ulysses from Homer—and that creative faculty whose equal touch is alike vivifying in Shallow and Lear.—Lowell.

Scored a Success.

My four-year-old nephew was perfectly delighted with his grandfather's car and always cranked all his toys, and even himself, when sent on errands. He is particularly interested in anything mechanical and never misses any such conversation. One day he cranked the cat's tail, and was delighted when it turned and spat at him, for, he said, "There, I got an explosion that time."—Chicago American.

Depends on the Result.

"Don't you admire determination in a man's character?"

"That depends. If it brings success I praise it as splendid perseverance, if failure, I denounce it as confounded obstinacy."—Boston Transcript.

Well-Preserved Water Pipes.

Wooden water pipes that were used from the time of the Revolution until the fire of 1872 to carry water into Boston have lately been unearthed and are found to be in a good state of preservation. A coin of the date 1808 in an almost perfect condition was found near one of the pipes, establishing, it would seem, the date at which the pipe was laid.

One Car to 24 Persons.

There is a motor vehicle in the United States for every 24 persons; in Canada the proportion is probably one to each 50; in England, one to 200; in Denmark, one to 300, and in France, Belgium, Holland, Switzerland and Germany about one to every 400, says the Compressed Air Magazine, New York. In 1917 it was estimated that Italy had one car to each 1,000 of population; Portugal to each 1,600, Spain to each 1,900, Austria-Hungary, to each 2,650, and Russia to each 5,000. In Australia there was one for each 140 of population, and in South America, as a whole, one for each 1,430.

Many a minor city in the United States has more cars than the whole of China or Japan.
