

McADOO CANDIDACY CONTINUES TO BOB UP

(By United Press.)

San Francisco, June 23 (Harold Jacobs).—The McAdoo candidacy, bearing marks of rough treatment and with the irrevocable brick still tied about its neck, was back from its premature watery grave today and meowing as loudly as ever about the democratic back door.

Every time its tormentors consign it to death, and this includes William G. McAdoo himself, the candidacy just naturally turns up again and its friends and protectors unpack the pullmotor, shoot a little oxygen into it, and it is as good as new.

Mr. Harris brings a message of community cooperation and development which should be heard by every business and professional man in the city.

PORCUPINE CAME HERE FOR ELECTION RETURNS

In the wee hours Tuesday morning when telephone lines were being kept busy in an attempt to secure the early returns from the primary election, a porcupine, evidently curious as to how the vote was going, came into the city and passed through several of the main streets and along in front of the Pioneer office. It is not known from which direction it entered the city, but it was driven from the main streets into the alley between Belmont avenue and Minnesota avenue connecting Fourth and Fifth streets. It did not appear to be frightened in the least by pedestrians or passing cars.

AFFILIATION OF CANADIANS AND YANKS PLANNED

"Canuck" Vets Would Check- mate Efforts of Person Try- ing to Stir Up Strife

Winnipeg, Canada.—To further promote a spirit of good feeling between Canada and the United States, the executive council of the Great War Veterans' association here has adopted a resolution recommending that negotiations be opened with the American Legion and the G. A. R. with the object of offering a close affiliation, if not physical union, of the American with the Canadian veterans' organization.

It is believed such an affiliation will do more to checkmate the Americans and British who are attempting to raise a barrier of hatred between the two nations than anything else.

The resolution adopted by the executive council here will be submitted to the national organization of the Great War Veterans' association and, according to local veterans' officials, its adoption by that body is a foregone conclusion. The announced purpose of the movement is to keep alive and develop the friendship between the "doughboy" and "Canuck" that grew out of their association in the trenches.

No Hostility Between Vets.
"There are people and newspapers who are trying to foment strife between Britain and the United States," said Leo Ward, president of the veterans' council in urging the adoption of the resolution by that body. "But they are reckoning without the men of this country and the men of the United States who fought side by side against the common enemy overseas. There is no hostility between us, and it would be well that we let the world know there is none by joining together in one great Anglo Saxon War Veterans' association."

BIRCHMONT OPENING WAS WELL ENJOYED

One of the most enjoyable social affairs of the summer season in the northwest was held last evening at the Birchmont Beach Summer hotel, when the formal opening of the resort took place with an excellent dinner served between 6 and 8 o'clock, followed by an informal dancing party from 9 until 12 o'clock.

The dancing was well attended and all report a most enjoyable evening. Mrs. Charles Van's orchestra of three pieces furnished excellent music for the occasion.

With the formal opening of the most popular resort in the entire northwest, the summer season for Birchmont Beach is well under way. Prospects are that there will be a record number of summer patrons there this year.

MANKATO MAN LOOKING

FOR HOMESTEAD LANDS

H. A. Rudberg of Mankato was in the city this morning looking for a suitable homestead location or suitable school land for a party of four men who plan to specialize in the raising of livestock. From here Mr. Rudberg went to Cass Lake this noon to call at the U. S. Land office there to secure further information regarding such lands in this section of the state.

He expects to return to Bemidji and accompanied by County Agent Dvorack will go to Blackduck and Kelliher on Friday and Saturday to look over land in that vicinity.

AFTERNOON AND EVENING DANCE ON JULY FIFTH

Under the auspices of the Ralph Grace post of the American Legion a dance will be held at the Armory in connection with the Independence Day program on July 5, during the entire afternoon and evening.

Concessions have been secured by the local post for soft drinks and candies to be sold at the Armory. Good music will be provided for the occasion and it is expected that this feature will be one of the most enjoyable events for the younger people.

LURE THAT TEMPTED MANY

Adventurers as Well as Dreamers Sought Vainly for the Fabled Fountain of Youth.

In that far-off, never-to-be-discovered country in that region which has shifted and changed just as men's minds alter and expand, in that mystic Bimini was thought to be the spring which, if tasted by mortals, would assure them immortal youth. On that island bubbled a fountain whose waters healed all manner of sickness.

The lure of the Fountain of Youth seized upon not only the dreamer, but caught the fancy of the bold adventurer, Ponce de Leon, and the redoubtable De Soto sought to taste of its life-giving fluid, and it is perhaps the mystery and wonder, coupled with desire, that brought about the discovery, not of the fountain, but of that part of our country known as Florida.

It was on the 27th day of March, 1513, that Ponce de Leon sighted land which he thought was an island. On April 8, which was Easter Sunday, he took possession of the country in the name of the king of Spain and called it Pascua Florida in honor of the day. He explored the country and was obliged to battle with the Indians, and after many adventures, which included another voyage in 1521 to found a colony, this intrepid navigator succumbed to a wound inflicted by a savage, and died while his vessel was making for the island of Porto Rico.

OUR COUNTRY.

Our country, generous Fatherland, Within whose far-extended boundaries

Our native gifts of talent, our hopes,
our inspirations,
Have full play, to these we owe a debt of gratitude
So great, that we can never repay.
For stately forests,
Fertile plains, rugged mountains,
"Sky-blue lakes
And rushing streams; for priceless hours Spent in thy great, friendly out of doom Receiving with thy citizens of fur and wing thy Bounteous gifts of nature and thy
"pure, free air;
For close communion at the dusk of day
With kindred spirits round the glowing coals
Of dying fires, with heaven's fathom-less viol Above us and the Great Truth of the ages Stirring deep within our souls; for our rich Heritage of inspiration from the lives of thy Great sons who loved and served thee
With a passion pure, for Washington of noble Character and dauntless soul, for Lincoln
Who, in his compassionate heart, bore all the Anguish of thy people, scourged with civil war;
For the patient, brilliant intellects of Fulton,
Morre, McCormick, Edison and Field, who set Themselves with singleness of purpose to achieve Mastery of problems of great import and through Such mastery to add new richness to the lives of Men; for all the opportunities which thou so Freely givest us to share the privileges of learning, To train our minds to think and hands to do,
For this great fact, that he who fails has none Beside himself to blame, for thy great state is So arranged that high and low and rich and poor Have equal opportunities to reach positions yielding Power and strength of character and praise of men For worthy deeds, developing their talents with no Limit or restriction save only merit;
for food,
And clothing, shelter, home and friends; for the invaluable Boon of work, with that rich satisfaction
Which can only come from doing each his part In all the varied tasks that each day brings;
All these and countless other blessings from thy Boundless store, we humbly do acknowledge, thanking thee!
But let our thanks be more than empty words,
For blessings such as these deserve rich recompense.
Let us express our gratitude in worthy, useful lives, Remembering that they who richest live most freely serve Their fellow-men. And he who lives with service To mankind his guiding star, should know that he Is also serving thee, our Fatherland.

July.

LEGAL RIGHT TO REMAIN IGNORANT

The legal right to remain ignorant is annually granted to thousands of children in states where child labor and education laws are backward. According to an account of the administration of the Federal Child Labor law, soon to be published by the Children's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor, only 783 children out of 19,696 to whom certificates were issued on less than four per cent, had attended or completed the eighth grade, though completion of the eighth grade is generally regarded as necessary to secure even the rudiments of an education.

Only one of these five states has a compulsory school law for children up to 16 years, even when unemployed, and that law permits many exemptions. Both parents and children, through ignorance of the value of schooling, are apt to take advantage of the legal right to dodge an education.

In a recent study of school attendance in Cleveland it was found that 2,550 children were so irregular in their attendance at school as to interfere with their studies, and that the reasons for staying out of school were in many cases trivial. Among foreign groups, children were kept at home on bargain or market days to act as interpreters for their mothers.

In addition to lax school attendance laws, three of the five states permit children 16 years old and younger to go to work even if they can not read or write or have never been to school. Two require only that the child applying for work shall have gone to school for a brief period during the preceding year. Among the other states in the United States 23 require the completion of a specified grade, and 12 more and the District of Columbia require the ability to read and write.
