THIS COUNTRY "GOLDEN HILL"

Looked Upon as Land of Promise to the Chinese, No Matter What His Status at Home.

When a young man of China looks around him to decide just where he will go to school to finish the lessons the neighborhood schoolmaster has taught him, the chances are—if he is the son of well-to-do parents—that he will choose the United States.

So bright are these tales of returned travelers that this country doesn't go by its proper name in China. It bears a typical Chinese name—"Golden Hill."

This view of our country seems to the Chinese to be borne out by the exclusion laws. No Chinese workman, of course, is permitted to land in this country, but those earnest Chinese who wish to attend our schools and take back to their own country the knowledge they gain are eagerly welcomed.

Moving Sidewalk for Paris. Emile Desvoux, the engineer who constructed the moving sidewalk at Paris, has been commissioned by that city to draft and submit plans for a moving sidewalk to be built below the street level alongside a new subway system.

Ancient Almanacs. The clog almanac, once in common use in parts of England, is a square stick, on the four edges of which are cut notches to represent the days of the week and various symbols to indicate different festivals and holidays.

Chinese Eat Lots of Dogs. The number of edible dogs eaten annually in China is estimated at five millions. The dogs are of a special race, raised wholly for food purposes.

To Be, There Is No Question. When an eligible man proposes to a maid of thirty summers, there isn't apt to be any Hamlet's soliloquy business.

England's "Potato Queen." England has a female Luther Burbank in the person of Miss Brezee, who is called the potato queen because of her success in producing new varieties of potatoes.

Alexandra Likes Pearls Best. Pearls are the favorite ornament of Queen Alexandra. Her fondness for them is well known, and she has seldom been photographed or painted without rows and ropes of them.

FRECKLES

Now Is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots

Do you know how easy it is to remove those ugly spots so that no one will call you freckle-faced? Simply get an ounce of Othine, double strength, from your druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of freckles and get a beautiful complexion.
