

Odd and Interesting
The camel was one of the earliest animals to be domesticated, a statistician declares. Then a fellow wonders why he can't go seven days without a drink. He hasn't been domesticated.

—Whatever That Is—

The Trio
Dear Twentieth Century
Old Bill overtook them, hand in hand.
Meandering towards the promised land;

Just around the corner where there is plenty of booze,
Just past the corner where the policemen snooze.

"He, wait!" say Hi, "let me explain. Let's wait till the corner comes round again."

—No. Tell Us—

A Remarkable Year
The year 1923 will mark the centenary of the invention of roller skates. And we suppose that it will be celebrated by quite a few having a skate on as usual. But that's about zero in centenaries.

—Aint It A Fact?—

Warm Canine
Nearly 2,000 varieties of sausage are produced in Germany, it is stated on reliable authority. Even the dogs are probably aware of the fact.

—A Dog's Life—

Didn't Add Them All
No fewer than 10,000 words were added to the English language by the World War. At that, it's a cinch they didn't add all the new words that the service men found occasion to use even though the English language before the war was fourteenth century. A service man started voicing his troubles to his buddies.

—Can You Beat It?—

GENERAL POLICY COMMITTEE TO STUDY MINE SITUATION
Washington, March 20. Policies to be followed by the miners, in event of a coal tie-up April 1, will be framed by a general policy committee of 100 members at Cleveland March 24. A call for the meeting was issued today by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers.

Wouldn't Exchange With Millionaire

"After five years of suffering with stomach trouble I think I know all about it. But thanks to May's Wonderful Remedy, I am enjoying good health again. I know of a millionaire who is very bad with stomach trouble, but he won't take any patent medicine. In his present condition, I wouldn't exchange with him."
It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists.—Adv.

SENDS 'NOTES' FROM ALASKA

Historian of Ketchikan Legion Post
Writes in Answer to Letters of Sympathy.

"Please note following," the long-suffering historian of the Ketchikan post of the American Legion in Alaska has written in answer to many letters of sympathy from buddies back in the States:

1. There isn't a gold miner in the post.
  2. The thermometer has never dropped lower than five below.
  3. The deepest snow in recent years was three inches.
  4. Some winters pass with practically no snow.
  5. Overcoats are often a nuisance in January and February.
  6. Raincoats and umbrellas are commonly worn.
  7. No one has even worn furs or snowshoes to a post meeting.
  8. "Gold-fishing" is the principal industry.
  9. No one reads by the northern lights or the midnight sun.
- The fact that people in Ketchikan ride in automobiles, and that the only dog sleds there are hot-dog sleds is hard to get across, according to the historian.

FREAK POTATOES IN ENGLAND

Season Has Been Prolific of Remarkable Formations Which Are Credited to Peculiar Weather.

A potato freak, quite new to botanists, has been dug up in Winghamstead, Hertfordshire. The tuber proper, formed early in the season, has developed five matricidal offspring. They have grown inside the skin of the old tuber, completely eating out its contents. They have broken a slit in the skin, but only one of the five is at all inside. The appearance is of five eggs inside an oval basket or nest. It has been a year of freak potatoes, because in the forcing weather the tubers sprouted early and formed a new generation. These button potatoes often stuck out from the older potatoes in all sorts of queer shapes. A two-pound potato was dug up at Sutton Bridge, in Lincolnshire, which had a close resemblance to a rather crude doll, with arms, legs, head and eyes complete. But it is no new thing for the new potatoes to grow inside the parent.

EXPENSIVE PRESCRIPTION
"Do you know anything that's good for the stomach?"
"I am no authority, but I understand that food is highly recommended."
