Sherman Was Right!

It is estimated that 62.7 per cent of the world's shipping is being done in British shipyards.

Whatever That Is—

The World All Around It

It happened here in Bemidji, so it's all right. The little fellow had been looking over the various store locations on the map in the J. C. Penney Co. window.

Papa wondered what made the little fellow think that, and of course he asked him why.

"Well, the rest of the world is all around Bemidji, isn't it?"

Papa Tells the Story—

Bear and Bees

Fable: Once upon a night there were a dozen people in a theater who gladly stood up while the feature movie was being screened to let a late-comer get to the seat in the middle of the row.

Curiosity Killed a Cat

A policeman recently found $115, located the owner and returned the money. What worries most people is how did this man ever get on the police force.

An Arizona man has gone broke trying to raise cactus for candy. It is rumored that his cactus stock fell off quite a few points.

SECOND SUMMER TERM AT MINNESOTA "U" CLOSES

Minneapolis, Sept. 2.—The second term of the University of Minnesota summer school ended today, bringing to a close the most successful session since the summer courses were established.

More than 1,000 students were enrolled in the school which offered 150 courses. The second term was held for the first time this year.

BABSON NOT DISTURBED THROUGH RADICAL TALK

(Continued from Page 1) out in the women's garment industry. It has been fought out wherever it is necessary and the conservatives will win.

"There remains the farmer group—the farm bloc, as it is called. This fall will probably show more of the results of the revolt of the farmer states against conservatism of the present Administration. This revolt was inevitable. Our last election was a post war reaction and the tremendous Republican majorities had to come. The net results of the farmer revolt, however, probably will not justify the enthusiasm which it has called forth. After senators and congressmen have been elected to represent the farmers, most of them will continue to act about as senators and congressmen always act, after they get to be senators and congressmen. The farmers will be disappointed. They will turn away from their radicalism to other quarters.

"We have reached the extreme both of radicalism and conservatism. We are headed for the middle of the road course. Now we must get busy and saw wood! The man who is busy laying brick is not going to listen to the call of the man who wants to interest him in 'isms' of any kind. The man on the wall is going to say to the agitator: 'I am doing real work and I cannot come down to you.'

"Nevertheless, we are probably going to have more of some things that a good many of us do not like. We are probably going to have more of Government interference in the railroads, instead of less; and more of Government interference in the mines, instead of less. The drift seems to be in that direction. But we are not drifting that way because of the theories of agitators. We are drifting that way because of the necessities of the present conditions. President Harding will see to it that the railroads run and that coal is mined, not because he is socialistic, but because the country must have trains and coal. That is all there is to it.

"That is to say, I believe that the lease of life of the soap box orator and all the rest of the frenzied exhorters of our day, may be, for the present, cut short. What we do in the next few years we are going to do because we want to. We are going to be governed by conditions and not by theories. The main tend-

BEMIDJI BOYS BAND SERENADING CITIES

(Continued from Page 1) huge banner, telling that the Bemidji boys band would play at Minnehaha park Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. Indications are that this concert will be exceptionally well attended.

It develops that Anoka had arranged for a public concert and reception there last evening, but due to the fact that the instruments were packed away, no concert was given but the boys received a hearty welcome there.

Motion pictures of the band and parade were taken in front of the Minneapolis newspaper offices this forenoon. The band and those accompanying it arrived at the state fair grounds at 9 o'clock last night, an hour and a half behind schedule, due to car trouble. All of the party are reported to have been in the best of spirits and to have enjoyed the trip thoroughly.

An excellent dinner at St. Albans on Mille Lac lake yesterday is reported by Miss Stanton. The boys are encamped at the fair grounds in three large tents, Mr. Riggs and family having a smaller tent in addition. It is also reported that Mrs. C. W. Vanderluis has a tent near the boys' camp.

LEGION MEN TO MARRY AT NATIONAL MEETING

New Orleans, Sept. 2.—Prospective benedicts of the American Legion, who plan to marry during the national convention of the ex-service men's organization in New Orleans, October 16-20, will have the way paved for them by a member of the convention committee.

Announcement has been made that Theodore A. Silvera, chairman of the convention historical records committee, will marry Miss Helen Hauley Smith, also of New Orleans, in the presence of his Legion buddies assembled in convention hall.

A chaplain from one of the United States warships which are to be sent to New Orleans for the convention will be asked to perform the ceremony. Eighteen flower girls are being trained and a detachment of Boy Scouts will act as ushers.

Convention headquarters has received a number of inquiries in regard to the holding of marriages during the Legion gathering which have been answered with the statement that all facilities will be provided to assist the lovers. Twenty Legionnaires were married at the Legion convention in Kansas City last year.

TO URGE RETURN OF CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

(By United Press) Minneapolis, Sept. 2.—The Minnesota State Bar association today expects to advocate the return of capital punishment. Twenty-five Minnesota district judges discussed the death penalty for major crimes and were expected to urge similar action by the Bar association this afternoon.

Incorporation of the State Bar, abolition of the State Board of Parole and the abolishment of grand juries in ordinary criminal cases are expected to be recommended.

"THE BARRICADE"

Prejudices of race and creed were the bricks and mortar that formed a wall between them.

It shut out affection, human sympathy and tenderness.

There came an awakening and they learned that Love is the biggest thing in the world.

The wall crumbled and they lived again in the sunshine of tolerance and happiness.

"THE FIRE EATER" AT THE ELKO THEATRE TONIGHT

When Tom Lingham, Fred Lancaster and Bradley Ward get together, you can be sure there's villainy afoot. These three players have been known to commit many crimes—on the screen, of course—and they're up to their worst in "The Fire Eater" at the Elko theatre tonight, which is a thrilling for whose deeds posterity will be immeasurably grateful.

Universal special attraction directed by Reeves Eason, with Hoot Gibson in the stellar role.

Tom Lineham is an old timer of the stage and screen. In "The Fire Eater" he is king of a valley in California, where the few remaining stands of California Redwood are being cut lawlessly and without thought for the future.

Fred Lancaster appears as a Gypsy with crooked instincts and occasional homicidal impulses. Bradley Ward enacts the part of a young lover of the Gypsy girl of the story—Carmen Phillips—with a mania for hatred of men who look twice at her.

Hoot Gibson will be seen in this as a new member of the forest ranger service—an army of men for whose work there is but little praise.

"HURRICANE'S GAL" AT REX THEATRE SUNDAY

Patrons of the motion picture theater whose preference runs to stories of the great outdoors—stories of fast action and a liberal supply of real thrills will have their appetites satiated in thorough fashion at the Rex theater Sunday where Allen Holubar's "Hurricane's Gal" a First National attraction starring Dorothy Phillips will be shown.
