"THE COAST OF OPPORTUNITY"

AT THE ELKO SATURDAY
To lovers of excitement and adventure, "The Coast of Opportunity" starring J. Warren Kerrigan showing at the Elko theater Saturday will offer entertainment of a very satisfying quality.

The story centers around Dick Bristow, a young mining engineer who has been left a copper claim in Mexico. The mine surrounding his claim is controlled by Julian Marr, a big railway magnate, who suspects the value of the property and hires a band of Mexicans to kidnap the engineer and hold him prisoner until the option expires. Bristow eludes his captors on the last day of the option, rides to town and with the aid of a resourceful young girl, forces Marr to complete his bargain. "Handsome Jack" Kerrigan is showing to advantage as the lovable Dick Bristow; Fritz Brunette, is charming as the girl who wins his heart; and the rest of the cast maintains a high standard.

"STRANGE IDOLS" AT REX TONIGHT AND FRIDAY

"Strange Idols" is the interesting title of a Fox picture in which capable actor, Dustin Farnum appears as the star which comes to the Rex theater this evening. The story is of a love match between two temperaments diametrically opposed—a rich lumberman from the forests and a beautiful cabaret dancer of gayest New York; a man in whom the call of the wild finds a ready response and a girl to whom the white lights of Broadway are as the breath of life. The subject is one in which the possibilities for intense dramatic action are obvious—and it is equally obvious that Dustin Farnum should handle the role with great skill and good taste.

In "Strange Idols" the Rex theater apparently has a genuine treat for discriminating theater-goers—especially since the leading woman is Doris Pawn, favorably known through the country.

"MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME"

AT REX THEATER SUNDAY
"Weep no more my Honey."
Coming along at a break-neck speed in a field surrounded with class is "My Old Kentucky Home," one of the season's greatest human dramas of mother love named after the famous ballad which is due to arrive at the Rex theater Sunday.

"My Old Kentucky Home" will make your blood tingle with excitement, will arouse your sympathy and give you an insight into a real southern romance, such as you only read about. It's a story of the south told in all the homely spirit that only Southern stories can reveal and is enacted by an all star cast headed by Monte Blue, one of the country's favorite screen actors.

The racing scenes are tremendous and thrilling and were taken at the Lexington race track. Human interest is revealed at its best and this big melodrama is said to be the biggest picture of its kind of the season.

"WHEN ROMANCE RIDES" AT GRAND THEATER SATURDAY

A new Zane Grey picture, produced by Benjamin B. Hampton and released by Goldwyn, "When Romance Rides," founded upon Grey's most popular novel, "Wildfire," is coming to the Grand theater for two days beginning next Saturday. The picture is a thriller interspersed with lively comedy. The great horse race alone will give spectators their money's worth, but not satisfied with that, Producer Hampton staged for the film one of the most desperate struggles between a girl and a man ever filmed.

"UP AND AT 'EM" AT THE GRAND THEATER TONIGHT

Motion picture devotees who prefer to laugh when they go to their favorite theater will find plenty of opportunity to indulge themselves if they see "Up and At 'Em" Doris May's swift moving comedy which will be at the Grand theater today and Friday.

"Up and At 'Em" like all Miss May's vehicles, was fashioned chiefly for the purpose of laughing. It has its touches of drama, to be sure but the comedy elements sparkle and glow and make the picture a sheer delight.

The story has to do with the adventures of a blithe little girl who takes life as one long good time. Doris May is seldom serious. And in "Up and At 'Em" she keeps the fun bubbling from start to finish. In the cast are such well known artists as Hallam Cooley, Otis Harlan, Clarissa Selwynne, J. Herbert Frank, John Gough and H. Carter.

KITICHI

Rev. Rippen of Baudette visited friends in Kitichi Saturday and Sunday. We all got after him and asked him to preach for us Sunday. He gave a fine sermon.

Mr. Shores was here last week selling his remedies. They are fine for all we have used them.

Mrs. P. Mills entertained the Kitichi Union Sewing Circle Thursday afternoon. A good crowd was present, and much sewing was done.

C. C. Smith and family attended Sunday school at Goodland last Sunday. It was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark.

A large crowd came on their way to attend the Johnson sale today. Although the weather has been very unfavorable the past two weeks, we hope they will have a good day for the sale and won't all have to come home in the rain.

Mr. Searles went to Hines the first of the week and brought home a very fine work team, two big blacks, one of the finest teams in the country.

About a dozen families from Cass Lake, Bemidji and surrounding country visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mahoney Sunday, and all bought some of Mr. Mahoney's watermelons and muskmelons. All had a fine time, and ate melons as never before.

A big bouillon stew was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Searles at midnight in honor of Rev. Rippen. They are old friends and acquaintances for years.

M. E. Johnson and wife of St. Paul are building a very fine summer cottage on Kitichi lake near the Mahoney home. This is their third year to camp and hunt at this place. Rev. Coats bought land and has a cottage near J. F. Mahoney's on the west.
