LUMBER IS NOT PASSE

Tallow dips are still manufactured in large quantities, and the American Snuff Co. continues to earn generous dividends; sabers have not been banished by the blunder-buss nor the Lewis gun; the submarine has not put ships-of-the-line out of commission; and neither suburban trolley lines nor motor trucks have ruined the railroads. And says Willard C. Howe, editor of "Lumber" in Forbes Magazine, "nothing could be further from the truth than the assumption that substitutes are forcing lumber into the discard."

"Consideration of the new industries of recent years," continues Mr. Howe, "shows that most of them have developed as heavy consumers of lumber. Automobiles, talking machines, airplanes, radio—these and innumerable others have created new demands for forest products. From the time one sits down to breakfast at a table made of wood and picks up the morning paper, printed on wood, through the day and night, wood is a constant necessary servant, performing in a thousand ways. Because of the almost infinite variety of the demands for its products, the lumber industry is not, as some suppose a declining industry. Rather, it is an industry on the threshold of greater things."

EVERYBODY VOTE

To vote is the most important duty of the citizen. It is the only effective act by which the citizen exercises his power as an integral part of a self-governing people. So far as national affairs are concerned, the issue is fairly clear—whether the people of the country prefer to continue Republican control of congress or wish to return to Democratic policies. The issues have been very thoroughly discussed on the stump and in the press. The Democrat regime is not so far away but that its record can be fairly well remembered. The Republicans have had only 20 months of full control of the affairs of the government and have not yet had time to complete their program, but the record is extensive enough to enable the average voter to compare it with the record of the previous Democratic administration. The question is whether the country wants to go back to the Democratic rule. "Be careful how you vote."

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 29

MESSIAH'S MINISTRY (WORLD'S TEMPERANCE SUNDAY)

LESSON TEXT—Isa. 61:2.

GOLDEN TEXT—Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people.—Prov. 14:34.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Matt. 7:15-20; Rom. 14:17-19.

PRIMARY TOPIC—How Four Boys Became Healthy and Happy.—Dan. 1:3-20.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Destroying the World's Enemy.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Next Step in the Prohibition Campaign.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Progress of Prohibition Throughout the World.

The lesson committee has gratefully named this lesson "World-wide Prohibition." Neither the text nor the context, directly or implied, says anything about prohibition as we understand the use of the word. However, when Messiah shall reign upon the earth the rum traffic will be abolished. Iniquitous practices will be abolished.

1. Messiah's Commission (v. 1).

He was appointed by the Lord, God's plan for the world is a time of peace and blessing.

II. Messiah's Program (vv. 1, 2).

Messiah's program is twofold: to "proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God."

The careful reading of Luke 4:18-21 will show that Jesus announced reading of this passage at

HARDING AND 1924

All other efforts to create Republican dissension having failed the Democrats finally started the story that Harding will not run for the presidency again, the hope of the Democrats being thus to arouse rivalries. It don't work. Mr. Harding will not have much to say about running for a second term, provided his health keeps fairly good. If he keeps on with the splendid record he has made thus far, he will undoubtedly be renominated in spite of anything he could do. A man once honored by nomination and election could not refuse renomination unless failing health demanded, and Mr. Harding seems to be enjoying health and strength. If Mr. Harding continues to make good, his reelection is inevitable.

WHERE NEXT

The cemetery board reports that every lot in the present cemetery is sold and that the board can purchase ten acres east of the present cemetery for about $300 an acre.

What the board wants to know is, whether the people want to annex the ten acre tract or buy property further out for cemetery purposes. If you have a suggestion or a solution to offer, it will be welcome.

Some people are tearing their shirts about the proposed trade of the school farm for the eleven acre tract near the high school building. What's the difference. The school farm is under the control of the school board, and the eleven acre tract is under the control of the county, but who owns it? Why the same people will own it, whether it changes hands or not, in this case.

GET YOURS YET

That Travel Accident Insurance Policy is here for you. Some people go without their meals, but never without an insurance policy. Play safe, read the Pioneer and spend seventy five cents for a policy.

Another chance to exercise your suffrage right tonight at the Central school building. They bar criminals, idiots, and fools from voting. Men and women, good citizens have the voting right. Which class are you in, when it comes to voting?

Cass County wants to divide. That is, some of the people in some parts of the county want to, but other people in other parts don't want to, so there you are. Where'll you be on election day.

A football fan suggests that we begin our games early enough so that it will not be necessary to bring our lanterns.

Perspiration, perspiration, perspiration, are big words, but they can bring still bigger results.—Forbes Magazine (N. Y.)

What's the matter with the world? Just the faults of you and me.—Forbes Magazine (N. Y.)

Everybody knows where I stand on County Division, where do you stand?

The height of folly is a short skirt, when you are talking to "ultra slims."

Be aggressive, but with it be agreeable.—Forbes Magazine (N. Y.)
