"THE HOTTENTOT" AT GRAND THEATRE, SUNDAY, MONDAY
None of the humor and action of the original stage play of "The Hottentot" in which William Collier kept Broadway laughing for over a year has been lost in the film version of the story, which is coming to the Grand theatre on Sunday.

The cleverest wit in the stage play has been reproduced on the screen in the titles. Additional funny situations have been worked in, while the steeplechase, which could only be talked about in the play, is a thrilling piece of realism in the picture. It is the exciting climax of the fun and thrills that arise from the embarrassing situations in which a yachtsman who is afraid of horses and who is mistaken for a rider of the same name gets himself.

Douglas MacLean as Sam Harrington wins the race and the love of a girl who is portrayed by pretty Madge Bellamy. Raymond Hattoin takes the part of Swift, the eccentric butler, who is an ex-hostler and is good for a laugh every time he appears on the screen.

"SATURDAY NIGHT" COMING TO ELKO THEATRE SOON

Lingerie plays such an important part in Cecil B. DeMille's latest Paramount production "Saturday Night" which is to be shown at the Elko theatre very soon, that Clare West, fashion designer for Mr. De Mille was forced to devote the entire attention of her force of seamstresses to the making of these articles of millady's wardrobe for several days prior to the production work.

Leatrice Joy, Edith Roberts, Conrad Nagel, Jack Mower, Julia Faye, Edyth Chapman Sylvia Ashton, Theodore Roberts, James Neill, John Davidson and others appear in the all-star cast of "Saturday Night". Not all of them are intimately associated with the lingerie but most of the feminine players find pictorial use for it at one point or another in the story.

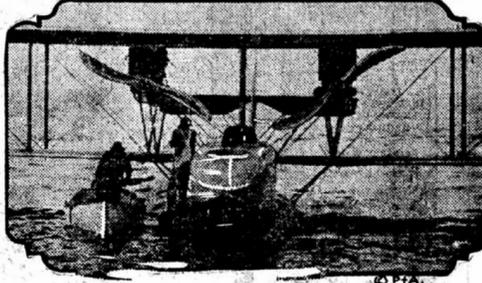

"ON THE HIGH SEAS" AT ELKO THEATRE TONIGHT

Appearing in one of the strongest sea pictures ever filmed, Dorothy Dalton and Jack Holt, featured players will be seen in Paramount's "On The High Seas" at the Elko theatre tonight and Saturday. The action opens on an ocean liner which is wrecked and the principal players are saved in a leaky boat when almost dead from thirst and exhaustion, run upon a derelict which is deserted save

How Holiday Booze Irrigates American Desert

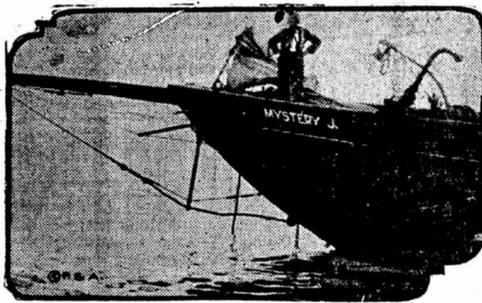

These exclusive pictures of rum-running off Long Island, N. Y., show how the wireless and seaplane are used to elude enforcement agents. Above is shown a boat putting off from the Bahama schooner, Mystery J., to take cases of booze to a seaplane (shown in the background) which has come out in answer to a wireless call.

The plane which came out to meet the Mystery J. outside the three-mile limit off Long Island, N. Y., is shown here being loaded with liquor from the small boat which put off from the booze carrier.

Rum Ship Poses for Picture

The aptly named rum smuggler Mystery J. is shown here as she arrived from the Bahamas with her cargo of booze for thirsty New York. The Mystery J. is one of the best known craft in "the trade" and up to the present time has been a phantom ship as far as prohibition aganest are concerned.

for a black kitten, all on board having died from a plague. On this ship many incidents ensue as the storm arises and beastly passion becomes up permost in the mind of Pollack, the burly stoker, who attacks the girl a woman of high station and is worsted in a fight by Jim, the other stoker, who at the finish of the story, proves to be a wealthy man who had worked his way back on the line in search of adventure. Jim and the girl are finally rescued from the derelict as it is about to sink and taken back to port where they again resume their social positions of lady and stoker, until in the surprise finish Jim kidnaps the girl and then reveals his real identity.

"THE VALLEY OF SILENT MEN" AT ELKO THEATRE SUNDAY

A picture which combines magnificent scenic beauty with a thrilling story is "The Valley of Silent Men" adapted from James Oliver Curwood's famous novel of the same name as a Cosmopolitan production and released by Paramount. The picture was directed by Frank Borzage, and which features Alma Rubens at the head of a small but powerful cast, is coming to the Elko theatre next Sunday for two days. It is well worth seeing.

PLEASANT VALLEY
Mrs. Pearl Cook, wife of Ira Cook passed away at her home here Sunday morning. While Mrs. Cook had been in ill health for more than a year, her sudden death was an unexpected shock to her family and to the community. For more than nine years the Ira Cook family have lived in Pleasant Valley and the community sadly mourns the loss of Mrs. Cook and wish that we could do or say something that would ease the deep grief of the husband and children.

TENSTRIKE

Beginning Monday January 1, and continuing throughout the week, a show troupe will play in the C. C. C. hall. This play will not interfere with the dance Monday night, however.

Harry D. Sorenson was a business caller in Bemidji last Tuesday. Mrs. E. A. Grier was a visitor in Bemidji last Friday. Kenneth Medley and his mother are spending the holidays here. Mr. C. C. Spencer returned last Saturday from Feigus Falls. Mrs. Wm. Travis and daughter Mildred were business visitors in Bemidji last Friday. Carl Nelson left last Thursday for North Dakota where he expects to remain for some time. Ed O'Connell returned two weeks ago from an all-summer's visit in Iowa. Charles Cook spent the holidays with friends here.
