PLEASANT VALLEY

A. A. Randall has been very ill at his home here the past week. Dr. Fortin of Lake Julia has been attending Mr. Randall. We hope for him a speedy recovery.
Edmond Foster came home from St. Paul to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents here.
Norman Gardner arrived home St. Paul last Thursday evening and attended the school entertainment that evening.
Clarence McClellan took charge of the engineer work at the Lake Julia Sanatorium while his father Wm. McClellan came home for Xmas with the folks.
Mrs. McClellan has two of the small Cook children with her since the death of their mother. She expects to keep the children there for awhile until things are adjusted at home.
Mr. and Mrs. George Hedglen and children who have made their home at the Leese farm near Bemidji came up Friday and are spending the Christmas holidays at the Levi Foster home.
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fellows were dinner guests for Christmas day at the Levi Fosters.
E. R. Lee made a business trip to Bemidji Tuesday.
Carl Kluck walked home from Spur '8 Christmas day, rather he walked as far as C. E. Coffin place and was met by his two boys with the sleigh there.
The week just past we had thawing weather most of the time, a fine time for the Christmas holidays, for which we are very grateful. The pleasant weather was about the nicest Christmas present we could have had.
George Stensuid came home for the Christmas holidays with his family.
The Pleasant Valley Farmers' Club will meet at the E. R. Lee home on the second Wednesday in January, the meeting being postponed one week.
The Helping Hand Society will meet with Mrs. Tom Anderson on the first Wednesday instead of the second, the usual time.
Grandpa and Grandma Gardner, whose home is at Olewein, Iowa, are here for a visit to their son F. V. Gardner and family.
Grandpa and Grandma Gardner visited relatives and friends at St. Paul for a time before coming here. They have been spending a few weeks here each fall and are well known, being members of our Farmer's club and attending the meeting when here. As they expect to stay most of the winter this time the community extends to them a hearty welcome.
J. C. Volger was transacting business in Bemidji Thursday of last week.
Levi Foster has been a frequent caller on Mr. Randall since he has been confined to his bed with illness.
The school house was well filled at the Christmas entertainment and tree last Thursday evening and a treat for everyone. The evening was a very enjoyable time for the large audience present and a vote of appreciation is due the school force and others assisting.
Julia Satterlee spent her Christmas holidays with her brother Carl Satterlee and family.
Miss Satterlee is principal of the graded school at Gonvick, Minn.
Mrs. J. C. Volger is spending the holidays with her sister, Mrs. Burns in Minneapolis. She is also visiting
