

Welch & Titsworth

NEW SCHOOL BOOKS

As per List adopted by the Territorial Board of Education.

Barbed Wire.

Sash Doors, Glass, Paints and Oils.

WINDOW GLASS. STOVES.

Agents for Cooper's Sheep Dip.

McCall's Patterns

Seed Oats, Seed Barley, Seed Millet,
Cane Seed, Milo Maize, Kaffir Corn.

Prices subject to change without notice.

WELCH & TITSWORTH.

CAPITAN.

STETSON HATS—BOOTS & SHOES—HOG FENCE

WAGONS—IRON ROOFING—CHICKEN NETTING

John Ramsey made a flying trip to El Paso this week.

Miss Mary Meek is now sales-ady at the Peoples Bros. store.

The wife of Dr. Walker is reported on the sick list this week.

Sam Barber, returned to his home near Fort Worth, Texas, Monday.

Morgan Reily, accompanied his father this week on a trip to Louisiana.

Geo. E. Holland, the restauran-ur, made a business trip to El Paso this week.

Ira. O. Wetmore returned Mon-ay evening from a business trip to Three Rivers.

W. C. Miller, who has been on he sick list for several weeks, is eported much better.

The ice plant started up this week—an indicator that sum-ner will soon be here.

S. C. Wiener was over from White Oaks a couple of times this week in his racing machine.

A baby belonging to J. F. Mathews of the east side died of scarlet fever Wednesday.

J. F. Pendleton, secretary of the California Industrial Company of Los Angeles, was here a few days this week on business connected with that institution.

Ex-Sheriff Owen, after a three weeks visit at his Corona ranch, returned to Lincoln Thursday.

Drifting sand was the cause of wrecking a train last week on the Dawson line west of Tucumcari.

The railroad boys are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the pay car, which is due here this evening.

Frank Grundish, one of the tonsorial artists at the post office barber shop, left Saturday for Wichita, Kansas.

Miss Mattie Thomas, niece of S. J. Potts, who lives a few miles west of here, left Tuesday evening for El Paso on a visit.

Mrs. W. M. Reily, and child-ron went to Capitan Thursday on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Gray.

Rev. J. A. Trickey, left Tues-day for Alpine Texas, to attend a district conference of the M. E. church south to be held there the end of this week.

H. K. Rountree, of Corona, stayed over a day at this place this week, while on his way to El Paso to visit his children who have been attending school there. He returned returned a few days later accompanied by his children, who will take a vacation.

Fred Bennion representing the Occidental Life Insurance Co. of Albuquerque, was here this week. Frank E. Theurer is the local agent.

A number of Masons of the Sacramento lodge of Alamogordo are expected here Saturday evening to take part in a commun-ication of the local lodge of A. F. & A. M.

J. F. Kimble, general foreman at the shops, who has been on the sick list for several weeks, has recovered sufficiently to re-sume his duties.

A Captain J. B. Snodgrass, a prospector from the Indian Ter-ritory, and another whose name we failed to learn, stated off a couple of homesteads east of town this week.

T. J. West, of Cloudercroft, is here this week, looking after the affairs of the estate of Chas. Fite who was accidently killed in the railroad yards here about two mounths ago.

H. E. Pine, a medical doctor, who lately came here from Ros-well, was joined by his wife and family the first of the week. The doctor, we understand, in-tends to make this place his home, and practice his profession here.

The wife of D. del Curto, at White Oaks, is suffering from an attack of erysipelas, and requires the watchful care of a physician.

A young lady put in an ap-pearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Lane, White Oaks, Monday, which demands and re-ceives the attention of the entire household.

Chief Clerk Cofer, who was called to Amarillo, Texas, last week on account of the serious illness of his sister, returned the first part of this week. He found his sister much better.

Miss Bettie Bythewaite and her brother Russell, of the Burrel Hotel, left Tuesday morning for El Paso, from whence they will accompany their aunt, Mrs. Lillie B. Moore, on a visit to California.

Pat Stuart and S. A. Simmons, of Fort Stanton, passed through this morning enroute to Palomas hot springs. They expect to spend about three weeks at the springs, in the hope of disposing of a rheumatic attack.

The three prisoners who broke jail at Lincoln last week were last heard of at Roswell. It is believed that they are far from the territory by this time, and that the county of Lincoln is rid of with them.