

POWERS DENY FIRE.

BONARD THE INSURGENT CAMP OUTSIDE OF CANEA. GREEK COMMANDER WARNED.

MUST NOT ATTEMPT TO ADVANCE TO THE INTERIOR.

British Torpedo Boats Have Captured a Greek Supply Steamer—Blank Shots Fired at a Greek Gunboat, Which Retreats Promptly.

Canes, Island of Crete, Feb. 21, 7 p. m.—A fusillade having continued since morning, despite the warnings of foreign admirals, the united squadrons bombarded the insurgent camp outside of Canea.

The foreign admirals have warned Colonel Vassos, commander of the Greek forces on the island of Crete, of their intention to attack his troops with four men-of-war anchored off his camp, Aglioli Theodorou, should he attempt to advance to the interior of the island.

British torpedo boats have captured and brought to this port the small Greek steamer Laurium, which was carrying victuals and tents for the insurgents.

The forts fired two rounds of blank cartridges yesterday at the Greek gunboat Penos. A Turkish frigate also discharged blank shots at the Greeks.

The Greek gunboat Penos quickly replied to the blank shots fired by the Turkish frigate. The frigate then withdrew from the scene of operations.

The German flag was hoisted on the ramparts here on the arrival of the cruiser Kaiserin Augusta.

At Athens, Feb. 21.—It is stated that the warning of the foreign admirals given to Colonel Vassos only referred to a Greek attack on Canea. Colonel Vassos will continue to occupy strategic points in the interior of the island of Crete.

Over 40,000 persons participated in a demonstration this afternoon in University square, in favor of the union of Crete with Greece. The great majority of the demonstrators were women.

An address was adopted, declaring that the king and people were ready for any sacrifice of blood and treasure to bring the present Cretan policy to a successful issue.

The crowd marched to the palace and the deposition paid the address to the king. Tremendous cheering followed. His majesty, King George, Crown Prince Constantine, Duke of Sparta, and other members of the royal family were on the balcony.

You are executing the true mandate of the Hellenic people. I thank you for this and for all that you have done for Greece. God protect our beloved country and strengthen our common efforts. Long live the Hellenic nation!

The address of King George was followed by a series of speeches. The first was by Prince Nicholas who arrived at Larissa, a town of Thessaly, on the Turkish frontier, recently from the island of Crete.

Seven hundred Greek soldiers, with artillery, have landed near Lassos. A Turkish torpedo boat, engaged in conveying supplies to the island of Crete, was captured by the Greeks.

At Larissa, Feb. 21.—A dispatch from Larissa says that the authorities are arming and disciplining the Greek frontier near Art.

At Larissa, Feb. 21.—None of the powers of the world has ever seen a monarch of Emperor William to blockade France.

At Larissa, Feb. 21.—The Times from Canea says: King George ordered Colonel Vassos to offer safe conduct to the Greek forces.

For the large supplies of provisions which the powers allowed to be landed for the Greek forces at Canea, Larissa and Akrotiri, their position would have been desperate.

THIRTY-FIVE MEN LOST.

German Tank Steamer Diamant Probably Sunk February 17, With All Hands.

Boston, Feb. 21.—The German tank steamer Diamant, Captain Wischusen, and thirty-five men, was probably lost, with all hands, in the southeast of England on February 17, or else she has been drifting at the mercy of the elements ever since. Such is the opinion of Captain Wischusen, who reached this port today from London.

Captain Fort says he sighted the tank steamer Diamant on the night of February 17, or else she has been drifting at the mercy of the elements ever since. Such is the opinion of Captain Wischusen, who reached this port today from London.

Galilee had towed the Diamant 600 miles. Captain Fort cruised nearly all day, but saw no trace of the steamer, and so resumed his course. While he believed the Diamant had foundered, Captain Fort thinks that the empty tanks may have kept her afloat and that she may be somewhere in the track of the European steamers.

SNOWSLIDE DISASTERS.

Colorado Having a More Serious Experience of the Kind Than Before Since 1884.

Denver, Col., Feb. 21.—The week just past has been the most disastrous in the history of the state and the greatest number of snowslides in the mountainous portion of Colorado, since 1884, according to records from many points. There have been many fatalities, numbers of persons killed and property destroyed.

A dispatch from Breckenridge, says: Mr. Collier, the Breckenridge train, for Collier mountain last Friday. To-day news was received that he had been overwhelmed by a snowslide and had been killed. A party left here to attempt his rescue. Little hope is felt that he will be found alive.

Two slides came down to-day into Imogene, Colorado, and the buildings of the Imogene mine, including the Camp Bird mine, fatally injuring one man, Peter Eicheberg, and burying two others, who narrowly escaped death. The other slide carried away the ore house of the U. S. mine.

The railroad blockades, some of which lasted forty-eight hours, have all been raised and trains are all running with reasonable regularity. The roads on the wagon roads in most of the higher portions are impassable and many small towns are accessible only by means of snowshoes.

BUT TEN DAYS MORE.

Congress is Near the Limit of Its Existence.

RUSH OF WORK FROM NOW ON.

MEMBERS WITH PET BILLS WILL CLAMOR FOR RECOGNITION.

Appropriation Bills and Conference Reports to Have a Clear Track—Speaker Fighting to Keep Down Appropriations—The Senate.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Congress adjourns sine die a week from Thursday and the rush and jostling which marks the closing days of a session will begin to-morrow.

Washington's business will be celebrated by hard work. Members with pet measures, the passage of which have more or less bearing upon their political fortunes, will begin their clamor for recognition, but they will appeal in vain as long as appropriation bills and conference reports are before the house for action, as these, by the rules, have the right of way.

The house managers are anxious to get through with the least possible delay. The speaker is fighting to keep down the appropriations to the lowest limit, as they already promise to exceed those of the Fifty-first congress, and the speaker is anxious to get through with the least possible delay.

Speaker Reed and the house managers are using every expedient to keep down the appropriations to the lowest limit, as they already promise to exceed those of the Fifty-first congress, and the speaker is anxious to get through with the least possible delay.

The general deficiency bill, which has been under consideration two days in the house, will probably be completed to-morrow. An effort will be made to strike out the appropriation of $1,300,000 for the Southern Pacific, being the amount withheld by the general deficiency bill.

THE ORIGIN OF THE CASE.

Pressure Will Be Brought to Bear to Limit His Term to the Period for Which the Late General Jo O. Shelby Was Appointed.

Washington, Feb. 21.—(Special.) A good deal of interest is manifested by Missouri at the capital in the question whether the appointment of Mr. Crenshaw to fill the vacancy caused by the death of United States Marshal Shelby is for the unexpired term of the late marshal, or for four years. Shelby was appointed in January, 1914, and his term, if he had lived, would not have expired until January, 1918.
