

BLUES LOST ON ERRORS

CLUNSY WORK GAVE THE GAME TO DETROIT.

Thomas and Gear Had a Great Pitchers' Battle—Blues Could Not Hit When Hits Were Needed and Made Many Errors.

It was a pitcher's battle yesterday afternoon and Thomas and Gear combined to give as pretty an exhibition of the art of twirling as any fan could ask for. If either pitcher did better work than the other, Thomas had a very slight shade the better of the battle. Still, Gear pitched a game that would have won nine times out of ten, and the statement that the Blues lost is more truthful than to say that the Tigers won.

The snap and ginger which has characterized the work of Manning's men in most of the games of late was lacking yesterday. O'Hagan tried for a fly in second base territory and lost it. Jimmie Williams gave too wide a swing to his arm and threw to the clubhouse. Rooney Viox spoiled the chance for an easy double by dropping the ball which Connaughton tossed him. Conroy allowed the leather to pass through his hands and the runner to reach the first bag. Mattie McVicker refused to swing above his 255 batting average and tipped a light bunt in center. This is all that saved Kansas City from a shut-out in a game which first division playing would have won.

At the very start of the game Jimmie Williams made a misplay which, aided by a generous check of hand luck, gave the Tigers their first score. Williams handled Davis' bunt in good shape, but threw the ball over the grab which allowed the runner to reach first base. The gate, very unfortunately, was locked, and by the time the ball was returned to the diamond "Lety" Davis was on the visitors' bench cooling off after his trot around the course.

There was good hitting and some error-making in the succeeding innings, but the Tigers did not gain life again until the eighth. Dungan hit for a single and then swung his way to first and both scored on Sharp's single, after Viox had dropped a ball and allowed the runner to reach second. In the ninth Connaughton and O'Hagan made mistakes, and singles by Pecunney and Thomas tied the innings in scoring another run.

When the Blues came to bat in the first inning Slagle bunted his way to first in beautiful fashion. Connaughton pitched and McVicker fielded the bunt by allowing the ball to strike his glove. Slagle hit home after Wilson had hit to Dillard, and Frisbee and O'Hagan also contributed to the run scored for the Blues. In the second and third, but in the fourth Wilson singled and Williams walked in the fifth. Gear pitched a hitless game by driving into center for three runs, and scored on Slagle's fly in the same inning. This was a 2-0 lead for the Blues, the beginning and the ending of the Blues' runnings.

McVicker, it looked like another score for Kansas City in the eighth. Slagle hit for two and Frisbee bunted and both were sacrificed a cushion by Conroy. With but one out McVicker placed a "biggy" in the eighth. Wilson played the Casey act. The score:

Either Holmes or Turner Will Come to Kansas City From St. Louis in Exchange for Smith.

President Manning has traded "Germany" Smith to St. Louis, and either Outfielder Turner or Holmes will come to Kansas City in exchange. The deal was made with Manager Hurst and President Muckenfuss yesterday. It was presented by Smith to Manning. "Germany" Smith is already playing shortstop for the Browns.

ordered off the grounds. Tony waited a while, but finally crawled into the hole beneath the grandstand.

Frank Richter, pitcher of the Hiawatha (K.A.) World, watched yesterday's game from the press box.

But sixteen runs have been made off Pitcher Hawley of Cincinnati, in nine games in which he has pitched.

Pitcher Hawley, of Indianapolis, last season won 20 games and pitched 100 innings. Wednesday, allowing but four hits.

"Dummy" Hoy is hitting the ball better than any pitcher in the league. He has batted safely in thirteen games running.

The Detroit players are a jolly lot of fellows. They do a good deal of talking on the bench, but are not so noisy.

Manager Joyce, of the New York club, announced yesterday that Walter Wilmont has been released from the team. Creery would regularly occupy right field.

Frank Richter says: For a left-hander, platt has remarkable control and splendid nerve. The most southerly pitcher he is always cool, and therefore hard to rattle.

When Joyce struck Beckler in the head with the ball at New York, Beckler's appeal to Umpire Andrews to take some action, but he refused to do anything. Umpire Andrews said he didn't have to depend on the crowd to win our games, and the visiting teams got "very" chance in the world to beat us.

Ewing, of the Cincinnati club, says the behavior of New York patrons has never been so disorderly or unfair to visiting teams. "When I was captain of the New York club," he said, "I didn't have to depend on the crowd to win our games, and the visiting teams got 'very' chance in the world to beat us."

"St. Seymour is losing much of his natural 'motion' in delivering the ball, and isn't an improvement. His effort at the spectacular do not add to the effectiveness of his hypnotic influence.

Though the Troy Dodgers have batted their way into the first division, they are leader of foot and stand in danger of losing many a game to the other teams. "The Dodgers are beef to the hoof, like Rory O'More's Mulligan heater," said one of the players. "They will be crowded out on double plays," says Earl Wagner.

The Shelby Parks have an open date for Sunday and would like either a morning or afternoon game with one of the following teams: Kansas City, Kansas, St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Paul, Travelers, M. E. Mills, or the Schlegels, the game to be played at the corner of Independence avenue and Locust street. Answer through The Journal.

Says John Foster, of Brooklyn, in the Sporting Life: I have watched two umpires render base decisions within the past week in a way that would bring tears to the eyes of a blind man. It is a pity that Cleveland unmercifully on the bases without cause. Even the New York critics had to admit that the umpires were not some more base decisions that were so often made. What is the use of having two umpires a man standing over the base cannot give the decision correctly? Of course, we are all liable to mistakes. But when the staff doubled to double the mistakes?"

HAMBURG WAS AN EASY FIRST IN THE RACE FOR 2-YEAR-OLDS AT GRAVESEND.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Hamburg made his second appearance as a 2-year-old in the special to-day at Gravesend and showed a lot more speed than he did when he was beaten in the Belmont stakes at the same track last week. He was ridden by three starters, with Hamburg first favorite. Sly Fox a strong second choice, and Handball the rank outsider. At the fall of the flag Hamburg went out to make the race, but the starter's error was in carrying the others off their feet as he did many times as a 2-year-old.
