FOUR WERE KILLED OUTRIGHT AND ONE OTHER WILL DIE.

Were Confined in a Cotton Warehouse, Where They Were Slain in Cold Blood—Governor Orders Militia Out and Offers Reward.

PALMETTO, GA., March 16.—Four dead negroes lay dead this morning in Johnson's warehouse, which is used as a jail. Beside them, groaning in agony, were five others of their race, all victims of an assault made by white men of this neighborhood at an early hour this morning. The dead are Bud Cotton, Henry Bingham, Tip Hutson and Ed Brown.

The wounded are: John Bixby, dying; George Taylor, wounded in thigh; James Brown, shot in body; John Jamison, arm fractured.

The citizens are patrolling the main street of the town and dispersing an occasional group of muttering negroes who seem annoyed and spiteful some form of revenge for the slaughter of four of their race.

The scene at Johnson's warehouse, where the nine negroes were confined and which is now filled with the dead and dying, is a revolting and miserable one. Blood covers the floor and blackened walls are indented with rifle shots. Wives and children of negroes are kneeling by their sides in the dimly lighted room, wailing the air with cries and moans of anguish.

The bodies of the dead negroes have not been removed. The coroner has been notified of the shooting and will impound a body about noon. Several negroes who were present at the shooting are being held by the police and are being taken to the work house for a trial.

The Palmetto cotton mills shut down for the day on account of the excitement. The mob was composed of 10 men. Where they came from is a mystery, so far as the people of the town know. That some of the people of Palmetto, but not the better class, were in the mob goes without saying.

Every face was masked, and when the warehouse was reached, the special guard of five mounted without a word. In a minute the mob was in the big warehouse and the fusillade opened. The frightened negroes went up yell after yell, begging for mercy, but it had no effect on the mob. The work was finished, the masks were thrown away and the mob disappeared as it had come—on horseback.

Two fires of incendiary origin have occurred here this year, one on February 27 and the other five days later. Fourteen negroes in all were destroyed. Nine negroes were arrested on suspicion and taken to Johnson's warehouse to await preliminary trial, which was to have taken place this morning. The citizens are apprehensive of an uprising of negroes to avenge the deaths of the nine negroes. The friends of the wounded are at the warehouse, and are being given food and medicine. The morning morning was carefully carried to a wagon and taken home. Upon full recovery it was found that he did not bear a scratch.

ATLANTA, GA., March 16.—Governor Nathan today proclaimed a reward of $500 for the apprehension and delivery of the first member of the mob who threatened the lives of the four negroes at Palmetto this morning. The governor said that the reward was simply inexcusable. These men have been arrested, as I am informed, and the law will be applied to them. The law was amply able to punish them.

State Introduces Much Evidence in the Pitts Murder Trial at Garden City.

GARDEN CITY, KAS., March 16.—(Special.)—In the Pitts murder trial to-day the state examined twelve witnesses. From the evidence it seems that Pitts loaded shells with buckshot the evening before the crime was committed, and the morning of the 18th of November, 1915, he placed the shells in a box at the corner of the division fence between the two farms and concealed a load of shells in a hole in the fence.

About 10 o'clock the Nabors came there, remaining on their own land, and ordered Pitts to get on the hip with a hay fork, but no gun was to be used. Pitts refused to do so, and the Nabors started to run from him and he shot them in the back.
