

Palmsistry Department

EDITED BY

DR. CARL LOUIS PERIN.

PERIN'S LAST WEEK

EMINENT PALMIST WILL SOON SEEK ANOTHER FIELD.

HIS LETTER TO THE PUBLIC

JOURNAL'S PALMISTRY DEPARTMENT WILL CLOSE NEXT SUNDAY.

Its Success Has Been Phenomenal—Thousands of Inquiries Have Been Received and Satisfactorily Answered—Other Palms.

Professor Carl Louis Perin will bid farewell to Kansas City next Sunday. His success has been almost phenomenal. He has read the palms of thousands of representative people of this section and has yet to bear a note of dissatisfaction. In his characteristic way he has written farwell to the public. It reads:

"To the People—Next Sunday I take my departure for other fields of usefulness, and I desire in this manner to bid you farewell. My experience in Kansas City has been most pleasant. I have found the city progressive and enterprising. It is truly a good place to live in. For it is going to be the metropolis of this great Western empire. Her people deserve all the success they are attaining, for they are hospitable, true and loyal, generous and enterprising. To the many who have honored me with their friendship I wish to say that their feeling towards me is reciprocated; to the ladies who have shown my wife so many delightful social attentions I return my thanks, in which expression she sincerely joins.

"The palmistry department in The Journal will be continued for one week. All inquiries received during the week up to Saturday morning will be answered next Sunday.

"Again thanking you for your cordial appreciation of the science of palmistry and for the indorsements bestowed upon me personally, I beg to subscribe myself, Faithfully yours,

"CARL LOUIS PERIN," "Scientist and Palmist."

Last Friday Dr. Perin spent a pleasant hour in looking over a portfolio in which is kept the impressions of palms of great men. During the doctor's sojourn in Washington, General Sherman, General Grant, and General Meade were in contact with national characters and in almost every instance he retained a souvenir of the meeting in the form of a palm impression. In all he has over 1,900 prints thus obtained and in his eyes they are more precious than rubies.

The palm impressions of Grover Cleveland and Benjamin Harrison were obtained when those distinguished gentlemen occupied the White House and they expressed themselves as being delighted with their palmistry experience. The palms are reproduced in this issue, as are those obtained from Senator Platt, David B. Hill, Chauncey F. Depew, Tom Reed, General Smith, General Wheeler, General Merritt, Ella Wheeler Wilcox and Susan B. Anthony. The palm of Marie Correll, the famous duce, Dr. Perin met her in London at the time she was having a fierce literary fight with the gentlemen of the press, whom she termed her "malevolent critics." She investigated the science thoroughly, so the doctor says, and a work in which palmistry will figure may soon be expected from her facile pen.
