

A MARIANI EMBRACE

DR. GODDARD LOVED HIS VICTIM'S WIFE.

EYE-WITNESSES ON THE STAND

EVIDENCE TENDS TO SHOW THAT AN INTIMACY EXISTED.

Startling Testimony Elicited at the Second Trial of the Kansas City Physician for the Murder of Laundryman Fred Jackson.

JEFFERSON CITY, June 10.—(Special.) Albert Reichel, Mrs. Reichel, Mrs. March, E. F. Dancy and C. J. Swift testified in the Goddard case during the forenoon. During the afternoon the state completed its case and at 3:20 rested. Prosecuting Attorney Reed and his assistants had made a strong case. They had proved a motive for the crime in the relation of Goddard with Mrs. Jackson; had proved that Goddard had threatened to kill Jackson, and that Mrs. Jackson had said, "Papa was shot," as soon as she heard of the shooting, and that Jackson was sitting when shot.

The most important witness in the afternoon was Frank Seymour, who said he was in a room with Marie Jackson in the room above the room in which the shooting occurred, and that when the shots were fired she exclaimed, "Papa is shot; Dr. Goddard has shot him."

W. I. Gates testified to seeing Goddard and Mrs. Jackson living under shade trees near Burge park, May 28, last.

Watson outlined the defense to the jury, claiming the shooting was in self-defense, and that they were in a room with three boys and with Marie Jackson at the time of the shooting, and that there was no hole in the door through which Mrs. Reichel claimed to have seen the shooting.

Depositions of Mrs. Stewart were not admitted in evidence because it had been taken under a former indictment.

George Miller claimed there was no hole in the door of the room through which Mrs. Reichel claimed to have looked, and Dr. Jones claimed that a couch shut off the view from the hole in the door.

Dr. Goddard's Attorney, J. C. Decker, testified that Goddard charged Goddard with throwing pepper in his eyes. He proved a good witness for the state, because he admitted that he had come to testify for Goddard at the request of Dr. Jackson.

George Wright claimed to have heard Goddard and Jackson quarreling, and that Jackson would not agree to anything Goddard suggested to him.

At 5:20 Judge Johnson adjourned court to 8:30 a. m. Monday. He instructed the foreman to give the jury daily papers tomorrow, but he made no reference to the trial. The defense claims it can get in all its testimony.

James Fleming, the private watchman summoned by Seymour, proved an excellent witness for the prosecution. He told how Seymour had told him Goddard had killed Jackson, and how he went to the hotel and arrested Goddard.

James Fleming, who was sitting on Goddard's knee trying to console him, saying: "Doctor, you're all right, you're all right, you and your papa pulled his gun first."

Bedroom Incident Related. T. W. Harrod, formerly a collector for Jackson, testified that Mrs. Jackson was frequently in Goddard's bedroom when the latter was confined there for an hour at a time. He had also seen the doctor in Mrs. Jackson's bedroom when she was in the laundry. He used to call there to turn over for her money, he had collected and had the laundry done for her.

George J. Lee testified that when going home about 9 o'clock one night he had occasion to pass the room in which Goddard and Jackson were confined, and he was enjoying a warm embrace. He had also frequently seen the doctor in the room when the prosecution had to offer was submitted this morning. Not only did Young Seymour testify as was outlined above, but he also testified that his testimony was corroborated by James Gump, a flagman in the employ of the Metropolitan street railway, who saw the doctor who saw the girl Marie, in her agitation, unconsciously revealed in her exclamation, "Dr. Goddard has shot papa, a time when 'mess possessed' of information of what was to take place she could have known nothing about it."

Judge Rebukes an Attorney. Attorney Pope, who is for the defense, has so far confined his efforts to an attempt to break down the testimony of witnesses for the prosecution, resulting in his being rebuked by the court. The judge admonished him not to go any further when he was making a vicious attack on H. Vinton.

Landlord Wolf, of the Woodland hotel, was also on the stand in the morning, and after telling the jury that he had fired and locked the doors he gave the defense a police report on the shooting of girl Marie, who after sitting in Dr. Goddard's lap, after the latter had shot her father, had been shot by the doctor's mind, doctor, we will say papa shot first."

H. D. Vinton testified that he was in H. Johnson's room when they heard the shots and when he went up to the room where Goddard and Jackson were confined, Mrs. Jackson, who was crying, said to the doctor say: "If you stick to me it will be all right, I'll implore you."

He also told of letting young

Remarkable Success of a New Pile Cure.

People who have suffered for months or years from the pain and inconvenience of that common disorder, piles, will look with skepticism upon the claims of the makers of the new discovery for the cure of all forms of piles, known as the Pyramid Pile Cure, nevertheless the extraordinary cures performed by this remedy are such as to warrant the investigation of any sufferer, now a case in point, the following letter speaks for itself:

Mr. Henry Thomas, of Substation No. 2, 21600 avenue, Columbus, O., writes as follows: "I want you to use my name if it will be of any use to you. I was so bad with the piles that I lost work on that account, and then I went to a doctor in Cincinnati of the many cures of piles by the Pyramid Pile Cure, and I went to a drug store and asked for it. The doctor told me that he had something else that he thought was better, but I told him that I wanted to try the Pyramid first."

The first box helped me so much that I tried another, and then to complete the cure used two more boxes, making four in all. I am now completely cured. Have not a trace of piles, and I have not had a case with the worst form of protruding piles, and I suffered death the doctor told me the Pyramid Pile Cure to be just as represented. I have recommended it to several of my friends, and am thankful to be able to write and tell you what good the remedy has done for me."

Physicians recommend the Pyramid Pile Cure because it contains no opium, cocaine, or mineral poison of any kind, and because it is so safe and pleasant to use, being painless and applied at night. The patient is cured in a surprisingly short time with no inconvenience whatever.

Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists at 50 cents per package, and if there is any constipation it is well to use the Pyramid Pile Cure as constipation is very often the cause of piles and the pills effectually remove the obnoxious matter. Price of pills is 25 cents per package.

Write to Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., for little book on cause and cure of piles; sent by mail free.

BOLD ROBBERY AT CLINTON.

Eight Masked Men Enter the Frisco Depot Office and Loot the Place.

CLINTON, MO., June 10.—(Special.) This morning at 12:15 several masked men entered the Frisco depot and one of them pointed his revolver at Night Operator James Ramsey and commanded him to hold up his hands. Ramsey complied quickly. The highwaymen then blindfolded him and two started with Ramsey for an empty box car. A colored man, John Davis, who arrived at the depot as Ramsey was being taken to the box car, was commanded to halt, and he was taken to the car and blindfolded. The burglars secured something between $20 and $40 from the safe, which was blown open.

The quietude of his desk making up his reports, after the departure of Frisco No. 56 when the robbers entered the depot, Ramsey was not unusual. Ramsey was liberated from the box car shortly after the burglars had made the haul and returned to his post. The box drawer was opened, but very little money was obtained from it.

Ramsey is unable to give the number of men present. He thinks there were eight. However, accounts differ; some claim there were only three. The first man who entered came to Clinton from Kansas City, where they had been attending the Modern Woodmen convention.

The robbers left absolutely no clue and Sheriff Operator Ramsey is unable to give any description, other than that of the men was a tall, slender fellow.

William M. Cozard, who was in Clinton, Mo., yesterday was arrested here last night and charged with being a participant in the Frisco depot robbery at Clinton. Deputy Sheriff William Jones noticed Cozard in the crowd of men who were blowing the safe, shadowed him to this city. Detectives Hallemann and Jarrett, who were on duty at the depot, saw and Lydia. He is being held for investigation, which will be held Monday.

"HONEST DICK" TATE.

Kansas Land Belonging to Kentucky's Defaulting Treasurer Sold to Satisfy a Judgment.

OLATHIE, KAS., June 10.—(Special.) Sheriff Jones sold today an undivided one-sixteenth interest in 160 acres of land in the eastern part of this county, belonging to James W. (Honest Dick) Tate, ex-treasurer of Kentucky. The land was sold under judgment obtained in Kentucky by A. W. Macklin and S. Black, who were sureties on Tate's bond when he defaulted. The judgment was for $21,000, and the land sold for $200.

The petition in the suit recites "that defendant, Tate, at the regular election of 1886 elected treasurer of the state of Kentucky, and again elected at the regular election in 1887, and that plaintiffs, together with George W. Chalmers, W. C. Chalmers, J. Megibben, Scott Brown, I. Wingate, George W. Robb, W. H. Barber and W. L. Collins, became sureties on his bond, and that in March, 1888, he absconded and became a defaulter in the sum of several hundred thousand dollars, and that plaintiffs paid the sum of $21,000 to certain creditors."

At a late hour never heard of since he absconded, the land here was attached and sold to satisfy a judgment rendered by publication. Tate was one of a syndicate from Frankfort, Ky., which bought this land just before he absconded, paying $90 per acre for it.

Tate for twenty-one years was treasurer of Kentucky, and was familiarly known as Honest Dick.

Governor Bradley, in the campaign of 1887, openly charged that Tate was a defaulter, which led up to the exposure and Tate's flight, and later to the overthrow of Democracy in Kentucky and the election of Bradley for governor.

NEW JURY FOR KENNEDY.

The Expression of an Opinion Causes the Court to Order Another Venue Issued.

HARTVILLE, MO., June 10.—(Special.) Jack Kennedy's attorneys have at last succeeded in having him tried by another jury than the one that was selected yesterday and the trial of the quail hunter will not be begun before Tuesday.

Judge Neville, of Springfield, arrived this morning and convened court at 9:30. Counsel for defense immediately filed a motion for a new jury, and Judge Neville granted it. They also alleged that this jury was not impartial, and that Kennedy was guilty and should be hanged.

Judge Neville said that although the law is on the side of the state, he would rather qualify the jurors himself when they are so divided. The jury was summoned, he would do so, as he would rather qualify the jurors himself when they are so divided. The jury was summoned, he would do so, as he would rather qualify the jurors himself when they are so divided.

The defense then filed a motion to swear out Sheriff Cantrell and again have the case tried by a new jury. The motion was overruled and the sheriff was ordered to have a panel by Monday morning at 10 o'clock, and at 11 o'clock court adjourned till that time.

The witnesses were dismissed until Tuesday. Most all of the Kansas City and Springfield railroad officials and detectives who were in the city on Monday, leaving Hartsville practically deserted.

END RACE RIOT SEQUEL.

Tom Marshall, a Policeman, and a Councilman Are Indicted by the Grand Jury.

GUTHRIE, O. T., June 10.—(Special.) Judge John L. McAtee this week adjourned the Garfield county grand jury, called to investigate the recent race riot, until after the completion of the June term of the district court. Judge McAtee was away from Guthrie when the riot occurred, but when he returned he found an opera house with a mob of whites and negroes, and a crowd of indignant citizens who demanded justice.

In the few days that the grand jury was in session three indictments were returned, information being found against the town of Guthrie, the county of Garfield, and the men. The marshal was held in $1,000 bond and the others in $2,000 each.

He recognized his persecutors, three negroes and the next day J. D. Chatterton, a policeman, arrested the three men, but before the case came up in Judge Ziegler's court Wilbur received a letter which he would be given twenty-four hours to leave town and adding further that he would never be allowed to testify against the men under arrest. Wilbur has mysteriously disappeared.
