TOPEKA, Nov. 8.—(Special.) The insurance rate war, which has been in progress here for the past two weeks, was ended to-day, when an agreement was reached between the companies to restore the old rates. The Continental Insurance Company started the war because the other companies tried to shut it out of business here. Rates were cut down 75 per cent by it. Other companies met the cut and for awhile people got their fire insurance almost for nothing.

MAKING SUCCESSFUL SORTIES AND MAY SOON HAVE HELP.

Boers Have Withdrawn From Colenso, and 3,500 British Troops Are Ready to Occupy It and to Advance Toward Ladysmith.

LONDON, Nov. 8 .- To the eyes of military experts, the darkest page of the war is now being written. But even that is fliuminated with bright passages, such as General White's victorious sorties. If he can keep the British flag flying over Ladymith until he is relieved, the campaign will turn a fresh page, and, with the ad-vance of Sir Redvers Buller's force, the mittee composed of Colonel R. T. Van Horn, R. W. Hilliker and J. V. C. Karnes was appointed to make a report upon this matter at the December meeting of the society, to be held the evening of the first Thursday in the month, at the rooms in the Library building. An announcement was made by Mr. Hilliker that he would present an amendment to the constitution at the December meeting reducing the executive committee to nine members.

A committee was appointed for the legal incorporation of the society. It was stated last night that Judge James H. Birch, of Plattsburg, Mo., would prepare a paper to be read at the next meeting upon the subject of the "Platte Purchase." At the state convention, which it is expected will be held in Kansas City early next year, there will be addresses and papers by some of the best known and oldest citizens of Missouri and the convention is expected to create a widespread interest in every locality in the state. Every department of industry will be represented at this convention, showing the vast agricultural and mineral as well as the wealth of the manufactories of the state.

None of the troop ships has arrived The one which it was predicted might reach Cape Town at the earliest on Mon day is as yet unannounced, and even when It does arrive there it will have three days steaming to reach Durban. As many as six transports, with 4,500 troops, were expected to be in Cape Town harbor by this time, but the war office last evening issued a statement to the effect that the only arrivals at Cape Town were the Sumatra from Durban, with wounded, the Southern Cross, from Gibraltar, with mules, and the collier Wenvoe.

Of course, it is possible that dispatch boats have been sent to meet the troop ships with instructions to proceed direct to Durban, and in that event the war office statement that not one had arrived at Cape Town would be literally accurate, even though several should he half way between Cape Town and Durban.

Reports of a treacherous use of the white flag by the Boers, coming from native sources, are not received with complete credulity, but, at the same time, their reiteration is making an unfavorable impression. "OUR DUTY TO THE FILIPINOS." AA A V Senator Hoar Says They Should Have

to Cubans. NEW YORK, Nov. 8 .- Senator George F. Hoar, of Massachusetts, has contributed an article on "Our Duty to the Filipinos" to the Independent, which will appear to morrow. He begins with a review of the ircumstances leading up to the war with Spain, of which he says: "I think it might have been averted, and that Cuba could have been liberated by peaceable means if the counsel of Grant and Fish had been followed and if our public men in the senate had remembered that they were a part of the diplomatic power of this country, and it was unbecoming in them to indulge in bitter and stinging invectives against Spain whether such invectives were Just or unjust. But I do not feel inclined to judge these utterances severely. Something, as Burke said, must be pardoned to the spirit of liberty, and those utterances, though, Continuing, the senator said that, down to January 1, 1839, the American people and the Republican party were committed to the doctrine that just governments rest the doctrine that just governments rest upon the consent of the governed, and that every people had a right to dissolve at will the political connection that binds it to another people. In dealing with Cuba, says the writer, "we acted upon those principles, but the treaty of peace disclosed a different purpose as to the Philippines, the inhabitants of which were much nearer independence when the treaty of peace was signed than ever had been the people of Cuba.

will turn a fresh page, and, with the advance of Sir Redvers Buller's force, the British public is promised more cheerful reading.

This feeling of relief, inspired by recent good tidings, is nevertheless tinged by a certain anxiety lest General White should again make some fatal miscalculation involving a repetition of the Nicholson's Nek disaster. Her majesty does not share this anxiety and apparent is sanguline of his ability to pull through successfully. It is asserted that she has written to Lady White expressing sympathy with her husband in the trials and difficulties he is now experiencing, and assuring Lady White of her own undiminished confidence in his generalship. The purports of this letter has been cabled to General White by the Marquis of Lansdowne.

The most interesting news to-night is a dispatch from Estcourt announcing the departure of a strong force of mounted troops and artillery for a destination not given in the advices. Another message announces the arrival at Estcourt and ment according to their own desire?"

ment according to their own desire The senator refers to the epithet "trait-tor," and other harsh words applied to hose who voted against the peace treat; and asks:

"When the president saids that forcible annexation, according to our American code of morals, would be criminal aggression, was he a copperhead? Was he disloyal to the flag? Was not he a Republican? Was there even an utterance so calculated to give courses to Agginglide and ulated to give courage to Aguinaldo and ple as that? As to our future attitude toward the

As to our future attitude toward the Filipinos, Senator Hoar writes:

"The time has come to make up your minds. If you are to declare that you do not mean to subjugate them or to enslave them, that you will act toward them on the principles and spirit of your own declaration of independence, the war can be ended in an hour. The refusal to make this ended in an hour. The refusal to make this declaration in the beginning brought on this war, and your refusal now to declare courselves is what is alone responsible for

"Now we have to settle the question, which the president has repeatedly declared is for congress or for the people, whether we will complete the subjection of the Filipinos; whether we will undertake to govern them as subjects or ser(s; or whether we will add them to become a whether we will aid them to become a self-governing nation, either as a republic, as they seem to desire, or as a limited monarchy. Senator Hoar then writes that this great question has been discussed with a levity, with an intolerance and with an appeal to low motives and to cheap passions thether we will aid them to become a to low motives and to cheap passions rarely paralleled in political history. A notable exception, he says, is Governor

In conclusion the senator says:

"The American people, the brave and just people, who made the immortal declaration and who maintained with life and fortune this sacred honor, who established our wonderful constitution, to whose Monroe doctrine is due the freedom of the American continent from the Rio Grande to Cane Horn, have not changed their char-American continent from the Rio Grande to Cape Horn, have not changed their character or their principles in the twinkling of an eye under the temptation of any base motive or personal advantage, or under the excitement of war. They are subject, doubtless, as all masses of men are subject, however intelligent or however upright, to great waves of passion. But their sober second thought is to be trusted. Their deliberate action will be wise and just. The great passions by vise and just. The great passions by which they are stirred and by which their judgment is now clouded are generous, noble and humane. Reason will resume its rightful sway and the great republic will remain a republic still."

DEMOCRATS REFUSE TO CONCEDE KENTUCKY.

TAYLOR WON BY 6,000 TO 8,000

RETURNS CONTINUE TO SHOW RE-PUBLICAN GAINS.

joebel Says He Has Been Elected and Will Be Seated, "in Spite of Bradley Bayonets"-Contest Likely to Be Made.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Nov. 8 .- No matter what result the face of the returns of yesterday's election show, a contest is very likely to occur. Additional returns received to-day and to-night continue to show Republican gains, and, basing an estimate upon the normal complexion of the precincts still unreported, indicate a plurality of 6,000 or 8,000 for W. S. Taylor for governor. The belated returns are mostly from mountain counties, which are strongly Re-

The Eleventh district, which in 1896 gave McKinley a plurality of 19,000, is only about half reported. Eleven out of nineteen countles in this district give Taylor pluralities aggregating 12,062, indicating that the Republicans have carried the district by about the same figures as in 1896. The Goebel people cling to their claim of a plurality of 5,000 in the state, these figures being the estimate made by the nomi-

ee himself to-night. At Republican headquarters in this city. Taylor's plurality is placed at 8,000. In neither case is it possible to get the figares upon which the claim is based, each side evidently fearing that giving publicity to the reports of its agents throughout the state might work to the advantage of its opponent in the event of a contest.

Almost complete returns from Louisville and Jefferson county do not change last night's estimate of a Republican plurality f a little over 3,000. Governor Bradley is still in the city and announces that he will remain here for several days. In view of the probability of a contest over the vote for governor, this statement, made by Chairman Long, of the Republican state campaign committee at 11 o'clock to-light, is significant: Said Mr. Long: "The legislature is close, but I think we . have lost both houses. From semi-official returns from all counties except twelve. and careful estimates from these, we have carried the state by 8,000 plurality for Tay-In the event of a contest it will come before the legislature. This is the case only with the offices of governor and lieutenant governor. The law covering this point provides that a board for determining a contest for governor shall be chosen in the legislature by lot, the senate selecting three and the house eight members. The decision of this boaord is not final nor conclusive; it must report to the general assembly, where further action may be

To-night's developments bring the legisature into prominence because of the probability that it ultimately will have to determine who is to be next governor of Kentucky. In all expressions upon the result of the election coming from Democratic headquarters, the legislature has been claimed as safe for that party. No statement of its makeup has been given but it is probable a number of members claimed by the Democrats are not Goebel men. If the strength of the two great parties is nearly equal these anti-Goebel Democrats probably would hold the balance of power, thus furnishing all the elements for a repetition of the exciting and bitter contest of 1897, which resulted in the defeat of Jo Blackburn for the United States senate. While the returns on the head of the ticket are incomplete, but little attention has been paid to the figures on members of the legislature and until the contest between leaders is cleared un somewhat, it will be hard to get an accurate estimate of the relative strength of the parties in the assembly. FRANKFORT, KY., Nov. 8.-Senator Goebel arrived here at 8 o'clock to-night and was met at the train by a crowd of 1,500 of enthusiastic admirers. From the balcony of the Capital hotel, where his headquarters is located, Mr. Goebel made a speech, in which he said: "I believe I have been elected. In fact, I know I have. I see my friend, General Taylor, says he will assume the office of governor. All I have to say is that if I have been elected, as I believe, I will be inaugurated in spite of the Louisville & Nashville railroad and Bradley bayonets." Ex-Senator Jo Blackburn also spoke claiming Goebel's election by a slender majority and calling on the people to see to it that he is seated. Chairman Blackburn, of the Democratic state campaign committee, gives out the following statement:

"Goebel is elected by 2,000 or 4,000 majority on the face of returns. If contest is made, his majority will be increased. Legislature safely Democratic, both branches, Democratic majority on joint balle of not less than twenty."
