ALMOST A BATTLE

SHARP ENGAGEMENT WITH INSURGENTS NEAR SAN FABIAN.

MAJOR JOHN A. LOGAN KILLED HE WAS LEADING HIS BATTALION IN THE ACTION.

American Loss Was Seven Killed and Thirteen Wounded—Eighty-one Insurgents Found Dead—Opposing Forces About Equal in Numbers.

MANILA, Nov. 14.—The Thirty-third infantry, in one of the sharpest two hours' engagements of the war, with an equal force of insurgents, five miles from San Fabian, Saturday, lost one officer and six men killed and one officer and twelve men wounded.

General Wheaton was informed that the enemy was gathering at San Jacinto for the purpose of preventing the Americans from controlling the road from Dagupan north, where the Aguinaldo might retreat.

The Thirty-third, Colonel Howe commanding, and a detachment of the Thirtieth with a Gatling gun, Howland commanding, were sent to disperse them.

The insurgents opened the fight two miles from San Jacinto, while the leading American battalion was passing a clump of houses, in the midst of a cocoanut grove.

The skirmish line, which was a mile long, advanced until the Americans were within twenty feet of the town.

The insurgents are supposed to have retreated to the mountains, and the Americans were exhausted and their supply of ammunition was low.

Miss Maud Bemis, of Scipio, Ind., says:

"Something over three years ago, I became affected with nervousness and neuralgic troubles. This continued until a year ago, after which time I was almost constantly confined to my bed.

The neuralgia gradually grew worse; nervous debility set in, and I was completely run down. My blood was impure, watery, while my complexion was sallow and colorless. I had no strength, and was almost completely helpless.

The doctor finally advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. "Father bought a couple of boxes of the pills and after taking the first box I was much improved.

I think I must have used about a dozen boxes with the result that I was entirely cured, and have since had no symptoms whatever of my old trouble.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People contain a condensed form of all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves.

They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of the grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexion, all forms of weakness, indigestion, and general debility.
