

WINKLER
FURNITURE COMPANY
MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN FURNITURE.
ARE PREPARED TO DO
ALL KINDS OF
Turning, Planing, Scroll Sawing, Etc.
We also keep constantly on hand
Stair Banisters, Newel Posts,
Walnut Coffins, &c.
Metallic and Wooden Burial Cases
Always on hand.
They respectfully ask the attention of all to be articles of their manufacture, pledging themselves to sell as cheap as such articles can be bought.
Winkler Furniture Co.

PERIPATITIC PEOPLE.
Webb W. Cole and wife, of Dover, spent Tuesday in the city shopping.
Miss Florence Schmelzer, of Higginsville, spent Monday in this city.
Miss Margie Adams, of Kansas, spent Sunday here, the guest of Miss Rosa Doran.
Miss Birdie Utt left Sunday morning for a weeks' visit to Kansas City and St. Joseph.
Miss Josie Ward, of Kansas City, spent Sunday here the guest of Frank Carter and family.
Mrs. Pat Connors, of Tipton, arrived Monday evening for a visit to Mrs. Martin Murphy.
Miss Florence Hall returned Friday evening from a few days' visit to friends in Higginsville.
M. B. McClelland came in from Sedalia Saturday evening to spend Sunday with his mother.
Mrs. E. C. Hays returned Friday evening from a few days visit to her husband at Sweet Springs.
Mrs. G. W. Fleming returned to her home in Jefferson City, after a few days' visit to relatives here.
James M. McClelland and wife, of Kansas City, came down Saturday night for a visit to his mother.
Albert G. Young, wife and baby arrived home Sunday night from an extended trip through Colorado.
Mrs. Ed. J. Earl, of Kansas City, came in Friday night for a visit to her mother, Mrs. M. E. Marshall.
Mrs. Gustav Haerle left for St. Louis Tuesday morning to purchase a stock of fall and winter dry goods.
Miss Sue Welborn, of Aullville, arrived Monday evening for a visit to her brother, John Welborn and wife.
Miss Elizabeth Barton returned to her home in Kansas City Tuesday, after a visit to friends and relatives here.
Fred Farris came down from Kansas City Sunday to spend the day with his wife, who is visiting her parents here.
Misses Frances Grimes and Daisy Thornton left for Higginsville Tuesday morning for a few days' visit and to attend the fair.
Mr. Ernest C. Hays has returned to this city to reside. He will still continue as express agent. Ernest we welcome your return.
Mrs. Fred Dallmeyer returned to her home in Jefferson City Saturday morning, after an extended visit to friends and relatives here.
Mesdames George and Killian Long left for Norborne Tuesday to visit Mrs. George Long's sister there, who has been sick for some time past.
Rev. Paul Buchmueller returned to his home at Summerfield, Ill., Saturday morning, after a few days' visit to his brother, Rev. D. Buchmueller.

Miss Bettie Hays left Tuesday morning for a visit to friends in Higginsville.
Mrs. Ed. Moorman left for Corder Tuesday morning for a visit to Miss Edna Carthrae.
Mrs. Robt. E. Smith arrived from St. Louis Monday morning for a visit to her mother.
Miss Nora Jarman of Kansas City, arrived Saturday for a visit to Mrs. Sarah F. Chinn.
J. D. Shewalter, of Colorado Springs, Col., arrived Friday night on a business trip.
Miss Laura Hedge left Friday evening for St. Louis, where she will in the future reside.
Dr. W. B. Weedon returned Friday night from a ten days' trip to various points in Colorado.
Earl Allen, of Kansas City, spent Sunday with his grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Fletcher.
J. S. Thornton, of Kansas City, spent Monday here, the guest of Sanford Thornton.
Mrs. Bettie Spurr and Miss Addie Curtis left Tuesday morning for a visit to Higginsville.
C. B. Schmidt, of Kansas City, spent Monday here with his brother-in-law, Thos. Turman.
Born, at Los Angeles, Cal., Friday, August 30, to the wife of Charles C. Parker, nee Neale, a boy.
Geo. W. Clark and wife and little daughter returned from a trip to Kansas City Friday night.
Miss Annie Weis returned Sunday night from a week's visit to relatives and friends in Kansas City.
Miss May Wright returned Saturday night from a visit to relatives and friends at Kansas City.
Yateman Saunders, wife and son, of Kansas City, spent Sunday with Mrs. John Stewart, at Winton.
Wm. Ransdall, of Kansas City, arrived Sunday night for a visit to his brother-in-law, C. T. Miller.
Mrs. M. K. Hollis returned Monday night from a two months' visit to Salida and Colorado Springs, Col.
Dr. W. T. Dameron returned home Saturday evening from a two months' visit to his sons at La Junta, Col.
Miss Florence Arnold arrived home Saturday night from a visit to friends and relatives at Fort Worth, Texas.
Sam McDowell, 14th Cavalry, U. S. A., stationed at Fort Leavenworth, spent Sunday here with his parents.
Misses Genevieve Russell and Susie Alford returned Friday evening from a ten days' visit to McAlester Springs.
Miss Laura Taubman arrived home Saturday night from a week's visit to friends and relatives in Kansas City.
Miss Josie Doran returned to her home in Kansas City Sunday evening, after a two weeks' visit to friends and relatives.
Mrs. E. B. Farley and three children left Tuesday morning for De Witt for a visit to the family of Edward Estell.
Wm. H. Stonestreet and wife left for Kansas City Monday morning to make preparations to move there the last of the week.
Mrs. James Barton, of Kansas City, returned to her home, after spending a few days here as the guest of Walter B. Waddell.
Mrs. E. J. Frick returned to her home in Kansas City Saturday morning, after a few days visit to her sister, Mrs. Emma Reeder.
J. P. Tracy and wife and sons, Scott and James, and Harry Thomas, of Waverly, arrived Friday evening for a visit to Sheriff Thomas.
Mrs. Elvira Carter and her little granddaughter, Oudie Ridge, returned to Higginsville Saturday night, after a few days' visit here.
Allie Utt returned from Clyde, Kas., Friday night, where he has been performing at the street fair. He reports the fair a success and large crowds.
F. C. Sawyer left for St. Paul, Minn., Saturday morning to attend the Minnesota state fair, he being one of the judges of Hereford cattle. There is $4,000 in prizes offered for the Hereford breed of cattle.

Miss Hattie Keller left Sunday morning for Chicago, where she will attend the High school the coming term.
A marriage license was issued to Rev. John A. Hoefler, of Concordia, and Miss Hilda L. Holke, of Blackburn Monday.
Mrs. R. Miller returned to her home in Kansas City Sunday evening, after a pleasant visit to the family of John Morrison.
Morris Gordon, who has been spending the summer with his grandfather, Major George Gordon, near Corder, returned home Monday evening to enter school.
Wm. F. Kerdolff, Jr., came in Sunday morning for a visit to his family. Mr. Kerdolff has a lucrative position with the Laning-Harris Coal and Grain Co., of Kansas City.
The labor day picnic at Howard Park was well attended. Speeches were made by Hons. Joseph Shelby and Clarence Vivion. The picnic was a success in every respect.
Misses Lucy May Payne, Myrtle Shelby, Irene McFadin, May Barnes and Martha Harrelson left Monday morning for Fulton, where they will attend the William Woods college.
Allie Utt left Monday morning for Gallatin, where he will be joined by his partner, E. T. Linson. They have an engagement to do acrobatic work at the street fair there this week.
Mr. Ben John has been appointed yardmaster at Myrick, the position made vacant by the resignation of Chris Walk. Ben is a first-class railroad man, having worked for the company a number of years and deserves promotion.

To Close Our Stock of Summer Woolens
we will give choice of 25
Suits formerly sold not less than $30.00
now at the uniform price of $20.00
made and trimmed equally as well as if you were paying full price. All Pants
formerly made to order from $6.00 to $7.50
now at the uniform price of $5.00
All pants that formerly sold from $8 to $12 now only $7.50
Philip Keller
Merchant Tailor

Clarence Kinney and wife and children left for Kansas City Friday evening for a visit to Mr. Kinney's mother.
Miss Anna Worthington came down from Kansas City Saturday morning, where she spent several days visiting friends.
Byron Austin returned to his home in Kansas City Sunday, after a few days' visit to his old friend, John Morrison.
S. S. Gunlack, of Kansas City, spent Sunday here the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Summers.
Mrs. Tom Crenshaw left for her home, Kansas City, Saturday morning, after a visit to friends and relatives here.
Mrs. George Harris and her sister, Miss Zula Williams, left this morning for a visit to their parents at Swanwick.
Mrs. Geo. Fackler returned to her home in Buckner Monday evening, after a visit to the family of John G. Worthington.
Rev. H. Hohenwald returned Tuesday from Iona, Kas., where he has been attending the German Methodist conference.
Miss Sphe Tunstall returned home Saturday night from a two weeks' visit to her sister, Mrs. E. K. Wolfe, at Harrisonville.
Mrs. Lena Sostmann returned to her home in St. Louis Saturday morning, after a pleasant visit to her brother, Mr. Dan Ruebel.
Miss Lulu Morgan, Barton Morgan, John Wingate and Wm. Duke, of Kansas City, spent Sunday here the guests of Walter Waddell.
Mrs. Gus Weber and her two children returned to their home in Council Bluffs, Iowa, Tuesday morning, after a visit to the family of Charles Weber.
Miss Elizabeth Henley, of Independence, who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Leslie Bates, for some time past, returned to her home Monday evening.
Marguerite and Mart Russell, of Englewood, returned to their home Sunday evening, after a two weeks' visit to their grandmother, Mrs. Emma Taubman.
Misses Jessie and Mabel Kendricks, of Kansas City, Kas., who have been visiting the family of August Marcks for some time past, returned to their home Saturday evening.
James Hays and family, who have been living on a farm near Corder for the past year, are moving back to their residence in this city, where they will in the future reside.
George A. Venable, who for the past year has been weighmaster at the McGrew mines west of town, has been transferred to the city office of the McGrew Mill and Mining Co.
Miss Lucille Buck, of Waverly, spent a few hours with her cousins Saturday evening. She left for St. Louis Saturday night, where she will attend school at Florissant college.
Miss Maud Hagood, who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Emma Hix, for some time past, returned to her home in Higginsville Tuesday morning. Miss Hix accompanied her home for a visit.
Miss Anna Worthington left Monday evening for Galena, Kas., where she will open up her private school. Miss Daisy Powell will leave the last of the week for Galena to teach in the school.
R. H. Womack brought his family down from Independence Tuesday morning and he and his family will make this city their home. Mr. Womack is connected with the INTELLIGENCER.

Mrs. J. H. Martin (nee Ophella Douthitt) and Mrs. J. E. Jones, (nee Maggie Douthitt) of Kansas City, who have been visiting the families of John Morrison and John Erskine, returned to their homes Friday evening.
Len G. Ryland left for St. Louis Saturday morning and from there he goes to Little Rock, Ark., where he has accepted a position as assistant claim agent for the Iron Mountain railroad. Len is a bright young attorney and will make the company a valuable employee.

A Rat
in the coffee bin—not a pleasant thought, yet when coffees are kept open in bulk who knows what different "things" come climbing and floating in?
Lion Coffee
put up in sealed packages insures cleanliness, uniform quality, freshness and delicious flavor.

Mrs. H. Hanser, of St. Louis, who has been visiting Gustav Haerle and wife for several weeks past, returned to her home in St. Louis Saturday morning.
Mrs. Nancy Robinson, of Lebanon, Ind., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. John Hedge, for some time past, returned to her home Friday night.
Misses Emma, Nora and Mable Buchanan and Mr. B. C. Buchanan, of Washington township, arrived Monday for a couple of days' visit to the family of James M. Crowder.
George P. Venable, treasurer of the school board, left Monday night for Jefferson City to have $22,000 in school bonds registered with the state treasurer. There are $10,000 building bonds and $12,000 in refunding bonds.
The J. D. Her Brewing company, of Kansas City, will begin next week the erection of an immense ice house in this city and will put up natural ice if it is to be had here; if not natural ice will be shipped here. It will run wagons and deliver ice in all parts of the city at all seasons of the year.
Dr. Geo. I. Smith has returned from Des Moines, where he attended the Iowa state fair. He took with him his fancy saddle horse and succeeded in capturing four ribbons—three first prizes and one second. This was a splendid record in the face of the fact that the doctor only entered his horse in four rings. The animal was sold by the doctor while at Des Moines for a fancy price.

Mrs. W. B. Barton entertained most charmingly, Monday afternoon at the suburban home of Mr. Walter B. Waddell—a social function of great enjoyment. Mrs. Barton was assisted by Misses Lockie Arnold, Mary Henry, Georgia Gilkeson, Mary Silver and Annie Ireland. There was a most inviting and entertaining musical programme rendered by Misses Alice Kriebn, Arline Burden and Elizabeth Barton and Ovid Sellers. Miss Todhunter favored the guests with a recitation. Punch and light refreshments were served.
A pretty smoothe horse thief got in his work here Saturday. He went to the stable of John C. Young, Sr., and wanted a team, saying he wanted to go to the country to look at some land to buy. He was given a bay team and buggy and left Saturday morning at about 7 a. m. He was seen in Mayview about 9 a. m. that morning still looking for land. He has not been heard of since and is now probably looking for some one to whom he can sell the outfit, or somewhere to spend the money he got for them.

Bought a Livery Stable.
T. E. Vaughn has purchased of Warren Ray the livery stable and stock at Dover and will take possession on the tenth of this month. Mr. Vaughn has a number of friends, including the INTELLIGENCER, who wish him well in his new venture.
Chattel mortgages for sale at this office 5 cents each.

CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH PENNYROYAL PILLS
Beware of Counterfeits. Refuse all Substitutes.
Safe. Always reliable. Ladies, ask Druggist for CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Beware dangerous substitutions and imitations. Buy of your Druggist, or send 4c. in stamps for Particulars, Testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Sold by all Druggists.
CHICHESTER CHEMICAL CO. 2100 Madison Square, PHILA., PA. Mention this paper.