MISSOURI NEWSPAPERDOM

Richmond now has a daily paper, the News. It is published at the office of the Missourian at ten cents per week. James H. Bradley, of Windsor, has taken charge of the editorial and mechanical management of the Lenton Times for S. O. Major & Co., the proprietors. The Rev. J. R. Hedges has sold his Buckner Star to the Rev. J. A. Jared who succeeds him as pastor of the Methodist church at that place. May the Star continue to shine. Higbee News: Now that Roosevelt is president, the army board which General Corbin prevented from giving him a medal has discovered, it is announced, that his conduct as colonel of rough riders was in the highest degree commendable. You don't need to shoot Corbin; he always comes down. The Bosworth Star and the Bosworth Sentinel are to be consolidated under rather romantic conditions. Miss Leonora Clark has been editing the Sentinel and A. M. Child the Star. The woman was getting the best of her contemporary and the Star man concluded that something must be done or his Star would cease to shine. He proposed marriage, was accepted and the consolidation will soon take place. She is to be his Star and he her Sentinel. May the consolidation prosper. Independence Sentinel: The "Continental Assembly" requests the editor of the Sentinel to use his influence in behalf of the McKinley monument fund. The eastern papers say that Mrs. McKinley is worth a half million dollars. There are people here who are hardly able to buy a beef-steak. There is no charity in contributing money to build McKinley a monument, but there are demands on charity here in our own city and country. The Sentinel is first of all for our own people, their comfort and their welfare. Nevada Mail: Democrats should get together and stay together. There is nothing for them to fight each other about. The state is all right, the organization is all right, and the state administration is doing the best it can for the whole people. There is no demand for the reorganization of the party and no danger of such action. If the reorganizers were all together there would not be enough of them to control one senatorial district in the state. The republicans are fighting over the spoils of office. They will continue to fight. Let them do so, but for the good of the party and for the good of the state—and an example to the nation—let democrats stand closely together. Carrollton Democrat: Carroll county has realized that a good court house is needed, and has voted a tax to pay for it. The tax is 25 cents on the one hundred dollars and this will bring in about $25,000 a year. A fine country road, double track, can be made out of brick that will cost $1,200 a mile according to the estimate of the department of agriculture; 25 cents on the $100 would build twenty miles of road a year, and in five years this county could have the principal roads fixed in this way; in ten years there would be two hundred miles of this kind of road. The farmer could haul twice as large loads as he can now when the roads are good, and bad weather will not change the load. The people of the country will stand in their own light if they do not insist on this being done, and the merchants ought to take the matter up and be willing to pay their part of the taxes. The county court ought to try this new

Mrs. Carl Hays and two sisters, Misses Bessie and Jessie Mayer, were called to Pueblo, Col., Monday by a telegram announcing the death of their father, P. Mayer. Mrs. Hays is a resident of Lexington while the Misses Mayer are students at Baptist college. Happiness depends very much on the condition of the liver and kidneys. For sale by Crenshaw & Young. 10-5ml. Editor Bogie, of the Richmond Democrat came over with the football team from his town Saturday and while in Lexington paid the INTELLIGENCER an appreciated visit. Argonia Literary Society. The entertainment given Saturday evening by the Argonia Literary Society of Central college was, as usual, an event of great pleasure to those in attendance. The following programme was carried out: President's Address—Charlotte Donaldson. Devotional Exercises, Chaplain. Piano Solo, Sonata F Minor (First Movement), Beethoven. Margaret Aull. Reading, "A Kindergarten Christmas," Carruth. Frances Brown. Piano Solo, "La Fontaine," Bohm. Pearl Shutt. Essay, "Windows." Elizabeth Andrew. Violin Solo, "Cavalleria Rusticana," Mascagni. Ouida Ramsey. Reading— a. "L'Envoy," Kipling. b. "Good-by, God Bless You," Eugene Field. Leslie Clare Bates. Song, Argonia Society. W. M. A. Won. The W. M. A. foot ball team defeated the A. A.'s of Richmond Saturday, the score having been ten to nothing in favor of Lexington. The weather was most too warm for fast foot ball, but tended to give a line on the team. Cole at half played a fine game. For Richmond Masman and Bogie, both old M. S. U. men, and Randall at end played stiff ball. Altogether the game gives much encouragement to W. M. A.'s team. The next game is with M. V. C. at Marshall Monday. The line-up was as follows: W. M. A. RICHMOND A. A. Doster - - - C. - - Fletcher Love - - - R. G. - - Wilson Craig - - - L. G. - - Tribble Jones - - - L. T. - - Thorpe Lewis - - - R. T. - - Miller Harped - - - R. E. - - Owens Sturgis - - - L. E. - - Randall Ilgenfritz - - Q. - - Bogie Simmons, Capt. L. H. - - Mosman Cole - - - R. H. - - E. Hughes Quigley - - - F. - - J. Hughes

Odessa Ledger: Moses Emanuel, who resides near Greentown, holds the belt for the best corn growing in this section of the county this drouthy year. He brought a half dozen ears to town the other day that are as fine as were ever grown any old year. Mose has a splendid farm and knows how to till the soil in a way that will produce corn most any kind of a season. The Missouri Pacific officials have decided to increase the force working on the J. C. B. & L. extension to Jefferson City and also the one working on the Myrick cutoff, in hope of having the work completed before the cold weather sets in. Large forces of men are daily sent to Boonville and Myrick to supply the increased demand.—Sedalia Capital. Carroll Casner, of Lafayette county, is visiting old friends in this city. Mr. Casner is probably the oldest man now living that was born in Carroll county. He was born in the old Tuil house in the north part of our city in 1829, and for a large number of years was one of our best and foremost citizens. He now lives in Lafayette county and this is the first visit he has paid to his old home for fifteen years. He will keep posted about his old friends hereafter by reading the Democrat.—Carrollton Democrat. BULL FOR SALE. Young bull for sale; good size; good color; good individual; thoroughbred. 6-22st T. B. CAMPBELL.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy took in just $205 at the annual supper on Thursday evening and the dinner they prepared for the public on Friday. Their expenses amounted to about $20, hence they have a net profit of $180 to apply on the home cemetery at Higginsville. The U. D. C. deserve great credit for their work. Mrs. Clarence Vivion went to Higginsville Tuesday morning for a visit of several days with Mrs. Ed. O'Brien and Mrs. Sam Dowling.

A Hazardous Journey. Daring Captain William Andrews and his bride sailed from the end of the Ocean pier at Atlantic City New Jersey, Monday evening at 4:30 on a voyage across the Atlantic ocean in what he claims to be the smallest boat which ever undertook a transatlantic journey. Five thousand people lined the pier as he raised the small sail and scudded seaward in the little Dark Secret. Sympathetic expressions were heard in regard to his wife, the bride of a few weeks. It is her first sea trip, and she does not realize the perils of the high seas she is to encounter at this season, which make playthings of the big transatlantic steamers. The length of the Dark Secret is not over fourteen feet. She was sunk with the weight of her stores and 300 pounds of lead on her keel. She was watched through glasses until distance and the twilight closed her from view. The vessel will be more than six weeks in making the Azore Islands, which is to be the first stopping place. D. Haecker on Monday sold his business house at Tenth and Main streets to Clem Bledsoe. The INTELLIGENCER understands that the consideration was $4,500. WANTED—Several persons of character and good reputation in each state (one in this county required) to represent and advertise old established wealthy business house of solid financial standing. Salary $18.00 weekly with expenses additional, all payable in cash each Wednesday direct from head offices. Horse and carriages furnished, when necessary. References. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. Manager, 316 Caxton Building, Chicago. I am satisfied that Teethina (teething powder) have saved more children than all the doctors put together. I have recommended Teethina when the doctors gave up the child, and it cured at once. LOUIS F. WABEL, Ph. G., Druggist, St. Louis, Mo. 10-512
