Annual Coon Supper.

The big coon supper at the home of James Hays, an annual recurrence that is always looked forward to with bright anticipation by those who are fortunate enough to feast at the board, took place Monday evening and to say that it was an event of great enjoyment is putting it mildly. The spread was a magnificent one with baked coon as the dish distingue. High five was an enjoyable feature of the evening's entertainment and some entertaining vocal selections were rendered by the Sunflower quartette, composed of Messrs. John Taubman, Harry St. Clair, Dow Hix and Lawton Gordon.

The supper was distinctively for men, the only ladies present having been those who looked after the table. They were Mrs. James Hays, Miss Lucy Hays and Miss Annie Hooton.

Those in attendance were: Jno. Morrison, Geo. Venable, Dow Hix, Jno. Taubman, Harry St. Clair, Lawton Gordon, Dr. W. R. Eckle, Dr. C. T. Ryland, Prof. C. A. Phillips, Sam Williams, Frank Lauchner, A. J. Lauchner, D. O. Heathman, E. C. Hays, James Hays, E. M. Morseman, the latter of Sedalia.

For all fresh cuts or wounds, either on the human subject or on animals, Ballard's Snow Liniment is excellent; while for corn-buskers' sprained wrists, barbed-wire cuts and sores on working horses, it cannot be too highly commended. Price, 25 and 50 cents. For sale by Crenshaw & Young. 11-2ml
