CHINESE HOTELS THE SAME

Oriental Hospitality Will Never Be Forgotten If It Is Once Paid a Visit. No one who has ever played at one of these caravansaries is likely to forget his experience, says Golden Days. They are all built on the same plan—a large courtyard, around the four sides of which are built rows of small rooms, the restaurant and office being in front. The buildings are built of sun-dried bricks, and are usually in the last stage of dilapidation.

JERUSALEM LIFE ANOMALY.

Many Strange Things Found by Tourists in the Famous Old City. Life in Jerusalem, according to Miss A. Goodrich Freer, the author of "Inner Jerusalem," is one of anomalies and anachronisms. The street arab speaks three or four languages. Apart from the tourists, who are representatives of half of the nations of the world, there are Jews, Mohammedans and Christians. The streets of Jerusalem are unspeakably filthy. One can buy anything he wants in the city. There are even French dressmakers who will follow out the latest Parisian fashion. Water is scarce and mainly derived from cisterns. The rainfall averages only 30 or 40 inches. There is a trade in good water which comes from the village of Ain Karim, some three miles distant from Jerusalem. There is a most unpleasant wind, the sirocco, which is fatal to vegetation, "exhausting to the nerves, irritating to the temper, parching the skin and ruinous to the hair and complexion." The dew is heavy. Jerusalem has its special diseases, but the cure is found in quinine.

HAS A SENSE OF JUSTICE.

President of Mexican Republic by His Actions Illustrates This Characteristic. The following story of the president of the Mexican Republic is told to illustrate his strong sense of justice. A raid was one night made by the Mexican police upon a saloon which formed the meeting place of a gang of gamblers and political plotters. Among the persons arrested was young man—a relative of President Diaz—and in order to prevent the painful scandal which might be caused, the chief of police secretly communicated the facts to the president.

Iron Ring from Human Blood.

"Iron in the blood" expresses, no doubt, a chemical fact as well as a figure of speech, but probably not one in a thousand, even among chemists, ever saw ferrum sanguinis materialized to visible metal. This feat, however, has been performed by M. Barruel, head of the chemical laboratories of Paris. M. Barruel, who has, in his time, practiced much phlebotomy on the human subject, has systematically extracted chemically the ferrum from the other constituents. This he transformed into minute globules or "pearls" of iron. At last the idea occurred to him to have them all welded together, and the result is an iron ring made from human blood, which he wears on his finger.—London Globe.
