

The Lexington Intelligencer

Resolutions of Respect.

At a regular meeting of Lexington Lodge No. 149, A. F. and A. M. held at its hall in the city of Lexington, county of Lafayette, and state of Missouri, on Monday evening, February 19, 1906, the following preamble and resolutions relating to the death of our worthy, faithful and beloved brother, William Henry Winkler, were unanimously adopted: Brother Winkler was born on the 15th day of July, 1829, in a little village (Knaust-Kieburg) near Leipsig, Saxony, Germany. In Leipsig he learned his trade as a cabinet maker. At the age of 20 years, 1849, Mr. Winkler came to America. For three years he located in New York City, from there to St. Louis, Mo., then to Lexington, Mo., in 1852 or 1853, where he lived the remainder of his life. Soon after his coming to Lexington he was employed as cabinet maker by Captain Henry Emde. In the following year, 1854, he started a cabinet maker shop of his own. Three years after a store room was added and an older brother, Fred J. E. Winkler, deceased, went into partnership with him. The business of the partnership increased from year to year, and in the year 1870 they built a furniture factory. For thirty-one years this business was carried on by the two brothers in our city in and under the firm name of H. and F. Winkler. In the year 1888 said brothers formed a company or co-partnership known up to the present day as the Winkler Furniture Company, Henry W. Winkler being president, Fred J. E. Winkler being secretary, William F. and Julius C., sons of Henry Winkler, and Oswald C. and Albert F., sons of Fred Winkler, being stockholders in said furniture company, making a range of 47 years that the two brothers were engaged as partners in the business herein mentioned in the city of Lexington. After the death of Fred J. E. Winkler which occurred November 12, 1904, his son, Albert, was elected secretary of the company. The year following Henry W. Winkler died, and his widow, Elizabeth Winkler, who is the sole executrix of his estate, was elected president of the company. On the 3rd day of August, 1854, in Lexington, Mo., Henry W. Winkler was married to Elizabeth Marie Winkler. In the year 1904 they celebrated their 50th anniversary of married life. Six children were born of this marriage, namely, Anna F. (Mrs. John Daehler), Elizabeth M. (Mrs. Jos. W. Homer), Wilhelmine K. (Mrs. Henry H. Wesendorf), William F., Julius C. and Laura M. Winkler. The first four named are at present residing in Los Angeles, California. The last two named are living with their widowed mother in Lexington, Mo. Henry W. Winkler died on the 24th day of November, 1905, at the age of 76 years, 3 months and 9 days. His funeral services were held at the German Evangelical church of which he was one of the first members, and where his family still continues to worship. The pastors who officiated were Rev. Dan Buchtmueller, former pastor, and Rev. H. M. Lissack, M. D., present pastor of said church, and the Rev. Edwin Ryland of the Methodist church, at present located at Los Angeles, California, also spoke words of comfort to the family. Brother William Henry Winkler was initiated an entered apprentice Mason in Lexington Lodge No. 149 A. F. and A. M. on July 17, 1871. Passed to the degree of Fellow Craft August 21, 1871, and raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason on September 18, 1871. And from the date of receiving said degrees down to the date of his death he was a worthy and devoted Mason in the lodge and in his daily walk and deportment, therefore be it

Resolved That in the death of Brother Winkler this lodge has lost a true and worthy member, the community an upright, honest and useful citizen and neighbor and his family a kind and indulgent husband and father.

Resolved That we sincerely sympathize with the widow and orphans of our deceased brother in their irreparable loss.

Resolved That we sincerely sympathize with the family of the deceased in the lamentable event which deprived them of a kind, generous and beloved father and husband; and this lodge of an old and esteemed member, that this lodge tender to the family and relatives of the deceased our condolence in this afflicting bereavement.

Resolved That as a token of our respect for the memory of our deceased brother that the members of this lodge wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved That these proceedings and resolutions be spread in full upon the records of this lodge and copy same be presented to the widow of the deceased, all of which is respectfully submitted

Death of Mrs. Winkler.

Died, at her home in this city Friday morning at 6:30 o'clock, Mrs. Henrietta Kriehn Winkler, widow of the late J. E. F. Winkler aged sixty eight years.

Mrs. Winkler was born in Alt Doldstadt, Prussia, April 12, 1838. In 1858 she came to Lexington and made her home with her brother, G. A. Kriehn, for two years. In 1858 she was married to the late J. E. F. Winkler, who died Nov. 12, 1904. Mrs. Winkler was the mother of eight children, six of whom survive: Mrs. Jacob Fegerl, Mrs. A. W. Sandring, Misses Maria and Rosie, and Albert and Oswald—all of this city. The two children who are dead are Mrs. George Ludwigs, who died at Walla Walla, Washington, July 21, 1877, and Miss Augusta Winkler, who died February 21, 1890. One sister, Mrs. C. H. Schafermeyer, and one brother, G. A. Kriehn, both of this city, survive.

Mrs. Winkler has been a member of the German Evangelical church since she was a girl of fourteen years, and of the Lexington congregation of its organization in 1875. The funeral services will be held at the German Evangelical church Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. H. M. Lissack. Interment in Mischeloh cemetery.

New Issue of B. & L. Shares.

The regular annual issue of one hundred shares of stock in the Lexington Building and Loan Association has been over-subscribed by nearly 4 to 1. One hundred shares were offered to the public and three hundred and seventy-four shares were applied for. There were one hundred and nine applicants, none for more than ten shares. This would indicate that most of the applicants are prospective borrowers. The distributions were made by lot. There were twenty successful applicants.

The popularity of this institution and confidence in which it is held is based upon a twenty years record of successful management, during which time hundreds of people have acquired homes through the monthly payment plan of the Association, in many cases the payments being less than rent.

The applicants for shares are requested to see the secretary promptly and receive their stock books, or the deposits made for shares, if unsuccessful.

Six Sermons.

Specially to men of the Episcopal church, to be delivered by the rector, Rev. Crozier Graham Adams, M. A., D. D., one each Sunday afternoon at 4:30 during Lent.

1. March 4th—God's Will and Obedience.
2. March 11th—Truth and Honesty
3. March 18th—War! War!
4. March 25th—Loving Kindness and Judgment.
5. April 1st.—Bitterness and Anger.
6. April 8th—The Lame Beggar.

The rector and vestry want every member and everyone interested in the Episcopal church to be present.

Miss Madge Nicholson went to Kansas City Wednesday evening to visit relatives.

Temple R. Page.

"A loved one from us has gone;
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled
The boon his love had given,
And tho' the body slumbers here
The soul is safe in heaven."

Temple R. Page was born September 4, 1869, was called home February 14, 1906.

Sad was the message that came flashing over the wire saying: "Temple Page is dead."

In the morning he went to his labors in all the vigor of robust young manhood and in a few short hours, yea ere the noonday, what a change.

The Death Angel had visited our midst and with his icy touch had stilled a heart forever. A life light had gone out and a spirit had taken its flight to Him who gave it.

Why! oh why! we ask was this life ended thus; why was this life so full of hopes and ambitions, so full of unrealized aims out down in the twinkling of an eye?

We know not why, but his race or earth was run, his life work complete, and his Heavenly Father who doeth all things well had need for him in that bright and better "home not made with hands eternal in the heavens."

As a husband, father, son, brother and friend, Temple was loving and patient, gentle, kind and true. Of a sunny cheerful disposition, his face was always lighted with a smile. No darkness was so dense but through it he saw the light, no cloud so heavy but he saw the silver lining.

A few short years in this beautiful world where he lived and loved and sang and died—an eternity of years in the golden city of God.

The community has lost a good citizen and a true friend, the family a loving help-meet and guide, but they weep not as they who have no hope, for "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord."

Sprely a noble young man has gone, but "To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die; This we would pass from this world and its tolling Only remembered by what we have done."

In the cemetery at Higginville, near a bank of flowers he loved so well, our dear departed sleeps his long last sleep, calmly, peacefully awaiting the resurrection morning, when he shall rise and be forever with his Lord and the loved ones left behind.

Asleep in Jesus, peaceful rest
Whose waking is supremely blest,
No fear, no woe shall dim the hour
That manifests the Savior's power.

Found Guilty.

The case of James Minor (colored) charged with the murder of Albert Paxton (colored) in a saloon brawl in Higginville last summer, was tried in the Criminal Court Monday and Tuesday. Minor was found guilty of murder in the second degree and punishment was fixed at ten years in the penitentiary.

Wednesday morning motion was made for a new trial and motion was sustained. Defendant's attorney, H. F. Blackwell, offered to enter a plea of guilty of manslaughter in the fourth degree in the cases of both John and James Minor, which was agreed to and judgment was accordingly rendered, the penalty being fixed in both cases at imprisonment in the penitentiary for two years. Court adjourned.

San Toy.

Nothing more pleasing than San Toy, at the opera house Saturday night, has been seen or heard in this city. The scenery and movements, designed for a larger stage, were somewhat crowded, but the singing, both choruses and solos, was of a high order. The entertainment was enjoyed the more because the hearers very rarely have opportunity to see and hear a good comic opera.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McGrew, Sr., and little granddaughters, Estelle McGrew Duval, returned Monday evening from Palm Beach, Florida, where they have been spending the past few weeks.

Central College.

A highly interesting program was given by the School of Music on Monday evening when the following was presented:

1. Prelude and Valse.....Chopin
Miss Jessica Page.
2. Two Songs:
a. "To My First Love".....Loehr
b. "Mighty Lak' A Rose".....Nevin
Miss Nuttie Wall.
3. Romance sans Paroles.....Hoelzel
Miss Vera Gordon.
4. Air de Ballet.....Chaminade
Miss Opal Early.
5. Vocal, "Because I Love You Dear".....Hawley
Miss Vinda Daniel.
6. Menuet.....Paderewski
Miss Virginia Lockhart.
7. Berceuse.....Schytte
Miss Rorie Donaldson.
8. From Flower to Flower.....Kullak
Miss Lulu Dauberry.
9. Vocal, "If I Were King".....Armitage
Mr. Charles Rockwood.
10. Concerto, B. Flat (first movement).....Mozart
with Mertke cadenza
Mr. Ovid Sellers.

Each number was given from memory, a custom which universally prevails upon the occasion of a Central College concert.

Of the Preludes of Chopin the one in C minor is a tone sketch of great poetic beauty. Miss Page played the selection with a most sustained legato touch and a skillful use of the pedal. The Waltz in G Flat was well given and proved a wisely selected contrast to the serious Prelude.

Miss Vinda Daniel possesses a pleasing voice with a highly sonorous quality, and the favorite song by Hawley was very acceptably rendered.

Miss Lockhart, who has been heard several times before, showed in her rendition of the well known Menuet that she has made progress technically and musically.

The Cradle Song by Schytte is one of the choicest compositions in that form, and Miss Donaldson played the number with great delicacy and tenderness.

The Octave Study made a brilliant contrast to the foregoing, and Miss Daugherty exhibited a flexibility of wrist that can only be secured with persistent practice.

A love song given by a robust baritone voice is likely to be irresistible with any audience, and Mr. Rockwood quite captivated his hearers with "If I Were King" by Armitage.

The recital was concluded with the most difficult number on the program. Any concerto represents an immense amount of work; to study which and successfully render is a commendable undertaking. That Mr. Ovid Sellers was notably successful in such a number, every one present on Monday evening was abundantly aware. All the intricate passages were executed with ease, and it was evident that the player fully comprehended the content of the composition, and which he happily communicated to a delighted audience.

Head of a Hotel Company.

The St. Joseph News-Press of February 22 says that Clark Venable, for the past three years clerk to the Hotel Metropole, has formed a company with two other young men connected with that hotel and has leased for a term of years the Truckenmiller cafe and hotel, one of the finest cafes in the West, patronized especially by theatrical people. The property belongs to the Schlitz Brewing Company and will be enlarged and improved for the new management. Mr. Venable has been in the theatrical business as well as the hotel business and is qualified to succeed admirably with the new enterprise. He is president of the company and will take personal charge of the new business.

Council Proceedings.

City Council met Monday night, all members present. Upon motion the City Engineer was instructed to inspect the sidewalk in front of the properties of Mrs. Hays, Jack Bell and Thomas Wedge and to report at the next meeting of the council.

Holden Bros. scenic sensation,

"Nobody's Claim," will be at the New Grand Saturday afternoon and night. The massive scenic equipment for this production requires more men to handle it than any other dramatic venture on the road. The various scenes roll by like a grand panorama of Western America and are all true to nature.

Pupils' Recital.

Friends of Miss White Lockhart and of her music class enjoyed the following programme at the home of Mrs. Robt. Davis, in this city, Friday night, February 23:

1. Norwood March.....Hart
Miss Alta Staffer.
2. Echo Waltz.....Streabbog
Miss Marie Barron.
3. The Falling of the Leaves.....Hinton
Miss Hattie Crews.
4. Chorus—The Woodman.....G. F. Root
Miss Julia Davis.
5. Instrumental Duet—Flower Fairies.....Fearis
Misses Katherine and Margaret Blee.
6. Tana Im Grunen. Heins, Op 135
Miss Julia Davis.

Reception.

Mrs. T. Ward Slusher gave a reception Tuesday evening to her son, Leroy Slusher, and wife, who returned Tuesday night from Kansas City, where they were married last Thursday. The rooms were decorated with roses and ferns. About thirty-five guests were present. A three course luncheon was served.

Six O'clock Dinner.

The following young gentlemen enjoyed a delightful six o'clock dinner given by Hubert Field Monday at the home of his parents, Judge and Mr. Richard Field: William Steele, William Stonestreet, Robert Wilson, Gholeston Russell, Sandford Sellers, Jr., Benjamin Howe, Freeman Alford, John Auli and Wentworth Meyers.

Death of a Child.

Died, of parotiditis, Tuesday night at the home of his parents, Mr and Mrs. Frank Bowers, four miles south of town, their infant son, Frank, Jr., aged 20 months. Funeral services were held at the residence of Tom Holeran, Thursday, afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Miss Louise Mudge, of Jackson, Mo., Illinois, is expected to arrive this evening and will be the guest of Miss Aline Burden.

Parsifal.

A singularly impressive and magnificent spectacle seen, among several others, in the famous production of "Parsifal," at the Willis Wood Kansas City four nights March 4, 5, 6 and 7, is the Temple of the Holy Grail in the last act. It is supposed to be situated on Mount Salvaat in the Pyrethese Mountains of Spain. The Temple is the place of worship of the Knights of the Holy Grail and was originally erected for the safe keeping of the sacred relics, the holy Cup and Spear. As benefitting such an important receptacle the Temple was an edifice of heroic proportions and grandeur. It was built of the choicest and most valuable of marble, which has been quarried out of the mountains upon which it was constructed. Its massive walls and arches were surrounded by a grand dome of majestic proportions and beauty. On the tessellated floor, in the centre, stood the raised dais upon which was placed the Holy Grail. A softly subdued light that came from the stained glass window in the dome, filled the large hall with a strange and mysterious effect. It is into this gorgeous Temple that Parsifal is escorted by the faithful Gurnemanz and accompanied by the reformed and penitent Kundry. The assembled Knights proclaim and crown him King of the Holy Grail. Parsifal ascends the marble throne upon which the Holy Grail is placed. The assembled Knights and all present sink to the floor upon their bended knees as Parsifal, throwing back the Kingly mantle from his shoulders, uncovers and raises the Holy Grail in adoration. As he raises it aloft, it glows with a radiant light that illumines all present with its rays of restored Grace, a beautiful white dove descends from above, hovering over the head of Parsifal, and the curtain slowly falls upon the grand and final tableau of Wagner's glorious masterpiece. Seats ordered by mail will be filled in the order they are received.

Dover Hems.

Dover is suffering this week from a coal and wood famine.

R. P. Harwood and J. M. Winn are in Lexington on the jury.

Lee Startzman had business in Kansas City several days this week.

O. W. Haggard shipped stock to Kansas City one day this week.

Mrs. R. W. Ashworth returned last Wednesday from a two weeks visit to relatives in Odessa.

Mrs. Bettie C. Harwood has been quite sick at her home here with erysipelas. She is reported better today.

The roads in all directions from town have been so bad that it is almost impossible to travel only on horse back.

Mrs. M. V. B. Oliver assisted by Miss Maud Morrison charmingly entertained the Reading Circle Saturday night.

Mrs. J. Ed Campbell came in Tuesday from her home near Corder to attend the bedside of her mother Mrs. B. C. Harwood.

The protracted meeting that was to begin at the Baptist church last Sunday was postponed until the weather is more settled.
