

GEORGE B. GORDON DEAD

An Illness of Over Two Prominent Citizen

MAKES WOMEN SICK

The many and varied symptoms of women's peculiar ailments are set forth in Plain English in the People's Medical Adviser (revised and up-to-date Edition of which, cloth-bound, will be receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing sub. A)

Mr. Sherwood's Second Visit.

William H. Sherwood of Chicago, the eminent pianist and composer, visiting director of the conservatory of music at Lexington, said the college his first visit on Thursday both teach music de-

A Letter From Mr. Musgrove.

Kansas City, Mo., May 3, 1910.

Editor Intelligencer:

In your issue of April 30 you published an article written by Miss Minnie Organ, entitled "Some Newspaper History of Lafayette County." I have no access to the files, and cannot be sure of dates, but there is one error in the article which I wish to correct. The article says: "Henry Davis became the sole proprietor (of the Lexington Express) in the fall of 1866, and changed the name to 'The Caucasian.' He sold it in 1867, to Jacob M. Julian, Ethan Allen and William Musgrove, Jr., practical newspaper men." This is all a mistake. Julian, Allen and Musgrove bought new material in St. Louis and started the Caucasian. If I am not mistaken the first issue was in April 1866. At that time H. K. Davis was publishing the Lexington Express. We tried to buy him out but he asked a very high price and we concluded to use a new name and new material. A few months after the Caucasian was started, Davis packed up his material and moved to Warrensburg.

Mayview Notes.

John Welliver wanted to see how Kansas City looked. So he went last Wednesday to see.

Mrs. Hannah went to Kansas City last Sunday evening for a few days' visit.

Mrs. C. H. Nolte went to Blue Springs last Saturday to visit relatives.

Born to the wife of Laurence Smith a boy, John Leonard, April 30, 1910.

Born recently to the wife of John Jenkins, a girl.

Rev. Talbot and family left for Dearborn, Mo., last Saturday evening where he will take charge of the Baptist church as its next pastor. We wish him success and hope he will have a pleasant field to labor in the Master's cause.

Rev. John Scott moved last Monday into the Baptist parsonage. We will miss him on Hungry row.

Miss Viola Puckett went to Kansas City last Saturday for an extended visit with her brother, Hugh Puckett.

Misses Marguerite Benning and Irene Nelson left for Lexington by the way of Higginsville last Monday to visit friends.

T. R. Brock has the contract for building the A. M. E. church. He has commenced and will push the work to its completion.

S. N. Wilson of Lexington was out last Wednesday to take a look at his orchard as to prospects for fruit.

Judge Butt, Otto Nolte and James Hawkins had business with the county court last Wednesday.

J. H. Porter went to Kansas City last Wednesday on business.

Arnold Moler of Copenhagen, Denmark, and Miss Chastine Estelle McKinney of Kansas City were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Plattenburg at three p. m. April 30th, by Rev. Talbot. The bride and groom left on the 6:25 train for Copenhagen their future home.

Our school board met last Tuesday evening and elected Mrs. Arthur Wiley as principal, Miss Abbie B. Puckett intermediate and Mrs. Chas. Kincheloe primary teacher for the coming term.

Henry Nulle transacted business in Kansas City last Tuesday.

W. A. Drysdale of Odessa was here last Monday.

T. M. Chinn had two houses moved this week. One he will fix up for a dwelling to rent. The other will be arranged for a business house.

Mrs. Bettie Kline of Lexington is visiting this week with Misses Sallie and Minnie Warren.

Uncle Dyer Sherwood is confined to his bed and is very feeble at this time. He is 90 years old.

Concordia First.

The Modern Woodmen of America will give a grand Fourth of July celebration this year in Concordia. An organization has already been formed and committees appointed to perfect the details. Everything that tends to make these gatherings enjoyable will be on the program. The citizens of Concordia have the reputation of never doing anything by halves and in this they will probably surpass anything ever attempted in the way of entertaining.

Mrs. F. M. Hord went to Kansas City yesterday to meet her sister, Miss Elsie Daniel, of Osceola who will accompany her home for a visit.

Candidates Are Required to File.

All candidates are required by law to file their declarations at least sixty days before the date of the primary, and unless the declaration is filed within the time provided by law, the name cannot be printed on the official ballot.

Gordon White of Kansas City came down Tuesday to attend the funeral of his uncle, Geo. B. Gordon.

W. K. Weber spent Tuesday at the Confederate Home on business.

Mrs. Howard Henry returned yesterday from a few days' visit with relatives in Higginsville.

Mrs. Howard Henry went to Higginsville Wednesday for a brief visit.

Miss Maud Wright went to Waterloo Tuesday evening for a brief visit.

W. F. Gordon and wife of Nevada, Missouri, and Ben A. Gordon of St. Joseph, arrived Tuesday to attend the funeral of their brother, Geo. B. Gordon.

Wade Hicklin left Tuesday for his home in Salem, Mo., after spending a few days here on business.

E. W. Flournoy of Sedalia was in Lexington Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Geo. Colburn of Freeman, Mo., arrived Tuesday to visit relatives for a few days.

Dr. Geo. Smith, who has been visiting friends here for the past few days returned to his home in Bartlesville, Oklahoma, Tuesday evening.

CAPT. DAY QUILTS TEACHING

Leaves Wentworth After Ten Years of Active Service.

Captain Fred A. Day, after ten years of active service as a teacher and band director at the academy, retired from his school work Saturday night to take charge of the book store which he recently purchased from E. G. Loomis. Captain Martin of Albion, Michigan, has succeeded him.

Captain Day first came to Lexington some twelve years ago to engage in the drug business; but he soon sold out and entered the employ of Phillip Keller. One of his first acts in Lexington consisted in the organization of an excellent band, which went under the name of the Lexington Marines. In spite of this handicap the band played well and gained some prominence.

In 1900 the Academy was in need of a capable band director as well as a teacher and so Captain Day, who was a graduate of the Warrensburg State Normal, was engaged. His success was wonderful, and ever since his advent Wentworth has boasted of an efficient band. Captain Day has always been popular at Wentworth. Old boys write to him and look him up first when they visit the town. He has, indeed, contributed no small part to the present excellence of Wentworth.

In his new work he will still be in close touch with the Academy and will undoubtedly enjoy a large share of its patronage.

Oswald Winkler went to Marshall Tuesday on business.

Etham-Miller.

Sunday afternoon at the Christian parsonage, Mr. Lyman Etham and Miss Gussie Miller were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. B. Briney. Both of these young people are well known in Lexington and their many friends wish them a happy and prosperous life. They left on the afternoon train for Kansas City where Mr. Etham is employed by the Kansas City Vanishing Co., in the show case department.

Strutman-Spruce.

Walter Strutman and Miss Mamie Spruce were married Sunday afternoon at the home of Geo. Sheets, 1105 S. W. Boulevard. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. H. Bohn of the Episcopal church. The young couple left on the evening train for a brief visit in Kansas City.

Any lady reader of this paper will receive, on request, a clever "No-Drip" Coffee Strainer Coupon privilege, from Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. It is silver-plated, very pretty, and positively prevents all dripping of tea or coffee sends it, with book on "Health George B. G. introduce this

Recital for

Monday night immediate- Lexington College, Sherwood pupils for gradua the sen- bined program. artment. He Miss Minnie W being most Fern Cottrell an Hopkins of the piano department, were teges was in a very enjoyabl he said, The musical e remarkable such composers, had taken Bach, Schumann last fall, I Rheinberger, sunexpectedly Grieg and in an aw and heard was comprehens ege." Each young e Mr. Sher- three times an and balance of ably distributed. Miss Cottrell her composure, excellent techn temperament p front of the pianists this ed this year. Miss Willard worker and a much capacity numbers were ed and were So only a few ing. The pllege had the number was s aring the mag- was perhaps. This program audience. st Mr. Sherwood The expy at the evening curtailed by leather. The noon had demuch capacity numbers were ed and were So only a few ing. The pllege had the number was s aring the mag- was perhaps. This program audience. st Mr. Sherwood The expy

at the evening curtailed by leather. The noon had demuch capacity numbers were ed and were So only a few ing. The pllege had the number was s aring the mag- was perhaps. This program audience. st Mr. Sherwood The expy and it was given with wonderful finish and accuracy.

The program in full was:

- SCHUMANN (1810-1910) Symphonic Etudes, Op. 13
- CHOPIN - Barcarolle, Op. 60
- CHOPIN - Impromptu in A flat, Op. 29
- CHOPIN - Nocturne in C minor, Op. 48
- CHOPIN - Waltz in A flat, Op. 43
- BOLZONI - Menuette from String Quintette (Arranged for piano by Wm. H. Sherwood, Presser Ed.)
- MACDOWELL - Nocturne in D
- ARENSKI - "An der Quelle"
- CHELIUS - Waltz in A flat (dedicated to Mr. Sherwood)
- LISZT - Liebestraum, No. 3 "Waldgerauschen" Grande Polonaise in E

In addition Mr. Sherwood gave as an encores Chopin's Waltz in D flat Op. 64, No. 1 and Nocturne, Op. 27, No. 2.

There was nothing in the entire entertainment that was not worthy of the most serious attention and study. The first number in its completeness was undoubtedly inspiring and Mr. Sherwood's handling of the grand finale provoked wonder and admiration.

Each group was a delight in itself, the Liszt numbers in particular being wonderfully handled.

The arrangement of the program and its presentation made the recital most artistically complete and qualifying.

George A. O'hara Dead.

George A. O'hara died at his home in Clavis, N. M., last Saturday. Mr. O'hara was about 55 years old. He is survived by his wife and two children. Mrs. O'hara is a niece of Mrs. J. O. Lesneur, her maiden name was Elizabeth Trigg Shields. Mr. O'hara's body was brought to Lexington for burial. The funeral services were held Thursday from the Episcopal church.

J. L. Long returned Thursday from a business trip to Kansas City.

I think that H. K. Davis' paper was known as the Lexington Union, and that he changed its name to the Lexington Express to keep Julian, Allen and Musgrove from using the old name for their new paper. When Davis left Lexington, The Caucasian claimed the name "Express" as private property, but the paper was known as the Caucasian until it was consolidated with the Intelligencer in August, 1875.

I have written the above from recollection, but I am very certain that I am not mistaken.

W. G. Musgrove.

Lieutenant Guild Revisits Lexington.

Lieutenant George R. Guild, 8th Infantry, paid this office a pleasant visit last Thursday after an absence of twelve years. Lieutenant Guild was in the class of 1898 at Wentworth and left there to accept an appointment to the United States Military Academy at West Point. He was graduated from that institution in 1903 and has since been in the regular army. The year after his graduation he married a daughter of Major Lowe.

C. P. Barry went to Kansas City yesterday on business.

N. E. Basket went to Kansas City yesterday on business.

Hon. John P. Gordon went to St. Joseph yesterday morning.

Miss Pauline Sellers returned yesterday from a visit in St. Louis.

Jodie Jones returned from Kansas City yesterday morning.

Mrs. William Davis and baby returned Thursday from a visit in Kansas City.

Miss Mary Ridings returned Thursday from a several months' visit in Texas and Oklahoma.

Special Prices on Rugs

While in market two weeks ago our buyer picked up a number of patterns in 9x12 rugs at a very low price. We are going to give our patrons the benefit of the lucky purchase as the prices quoted below will show. This is the month in which you are interested in items for the home, and as a matter of economy you cannot afford to overlook these offerings.

Beginning Friday, May 6th

the sale will continue until the lot is sold. As the number is limited, we suggest an early visit. NOTE—If you are not ready for your rug right now, buy it and we will keep it until you are.

9x12 Taps, four patterns worth $12.50 for.....	$9.50	9x12 Taps, seamless good value at $17.50 for....	$14.75
9x12 Taps, eight patterns seamless, worth $13.98 and $15.00 for.....	$12.25	9x12 Saxony Axminster, ten patterns, worth $22.50 for.....	$19.50
9x12 Taps, three patterns usually sold at $16.50 for.....	$13.25	27x54 Velvet Rugs, worth $1.50 for.....	95c

Rugs in all sizes.

Other Items at Low Prices

Exceptional values will be found in Lace Curtains, Mattings, Carpets, Linoleums and curtain goods.

Curtains	The showing includes from 650 to 700 pairs at prices ranging from 25c to $7.50 per pair in Nottinghams, Cable nets, Clu-neys, Madras, Serims and Swisses.
Mattings	Our stock was never as large and varied as to quality and styles, you may choose from many patterns at 15c, 20c, 25c, 35c, 45c and 50c per yard.

Carpets

As usual we are prepared to supply your wants in Carpets at money saving prices. Price range 25 to 75c per yard.

Linoleums

Ordinarily our stock of linoleums is not as complete at this time of year as in the fall, but the demand for this item has increased to such an extent that we find it necessary to keep at all times a full line. We call your attention to the several patterns we are showing 2 yards wide at $1.00 per yard.

We are also showing linoleums 2 1/4 yards wide. Special price on Inlaid Linoleums.

Wilson Fredendall D. G. Co.
Lexington, Missouri