George Nasser's Store Robbed.
A burglar got into George Nasser's store Friday night and helped himself to goods amounting to something between $100 and $200. He gained entrance through the east rear window. He first broke out a lower pane and then, finding it inconvenient to pry loose an iron bar, used the bars as a ladder and climbed to the upper half of the window, knocked out another pane and let himself into the inside. He took all the jewelry in sight, a lot of tobacco, some silk hose and handkerchiefs, and several pairs of the best shoes in the house. There is no clue to the identity of the thief.

Cobb of Lexington, Mo., at 8:30 o'clock. The wedding music was played by an orchestra and before the plighting of the troth Miss Pauline Sellers of Lexington, Mo., sang "Sweetheart" and "Because." The bridal couple stood before a floral altar of white and green in the ceremony room. The entire house was beautifully decorated for the occasion. White roses, snifax, ferns and palms being used in profusion. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white chiffon, messaline over white satin, entrain, elaborately trimmed in duchess and rose point lace. She wore a lovely gown of pink crepe de chine over silk and carried pink roses. The little flower girl, Gertrude Alexander, daintily gowned in white, carried a basket of roses. The following eight girls were ribbon-bearers: Miss Hazel Rose, Miss Mildred Geddes, Miss Marie Haddock, Miss Verne Helman, Miss Anna Ford Ryland, Miss Mae Dierks, Miss Helen Fezler and Miss Pauline Sellers of Lexington, Mo. The groom was attended by Mr. William Barrett Cobb of Lexington, Mo., as best man. After the ceremony a large reception followed. STRIKE ENDED
Final Negotiations Concluded Wednesday Night.
The strike is ended. At a late hour Wednesday night the final negotiations between the operators and mine workers were concluded. Concessions were made on both sides; but, it is believed that the miners have won a majority of the essentials for which they were contending. They have won betterments of the working conditions in addition to an advance of 5½ cents per ton on mine run coal.
This ends the longest controversy between these organizations ever known. The miners quit work April 1, and have been idle ever since.
