

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

Young-Kelly.

Georgetown gave up one of her most charming daughters Tuesday when at high noon, Miss Eliza Deweese Kelly became the bride of Mr. Joseph Barnett Young of Missouri. The splendid old Kelly home on Kelly avenue was in gala attire for the happy occasion, yellow and white roses making an artistic setting for the event and adding brightness to the gloom from without. Mrs. Davis Bohon of Harrodsburg, a sister of the bride, in yellow mesaline, played the wedding music, and Miss Helen Van Arsdale of the same city, in white lingerie and carrying yellow roses, sang several appropriate songs.

As a processional, Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played, Miss Helen Kelly, handsomely attired in yellow crepe de chine, with garnitures of pearl and with an armful of rose buds of the same hue, entered alone, and was followed by Judge Jas. Y. Kelly and the bride, lovely in a robe made by Madame Redd of white silk marquisette over a foundation of satin, and trimmed in an elaboration of Duchess lace. Her bouquet was a shower of valley lilies and brides' roses. A tulle veil was held in place by a cap of orange blossoms. Meeting the bridegroom and his best man, Mr. Worth Bates, of Missouri, in the archway between the parlors, the bridal party grouped about the officiating minister, Rev. Henry S. Kendrick of the First Christian church, who impressively performed the ceremony, the ring service being used. After felicitations were extended to the happy couple, a wedding breakfast was served, the bridal table being particularly beautiful with its many roses, its place cards, with the monograms in gold and the yellow lighted tapers adding to the effect. The center decoration upon the wedding cake was used for a similar event thirty-six years ago by an aunt of the bride, Mrs. Pattie Prewitt.

Donning a stylish blue cloth suit with blue hat, trimmed in green breasts, the bride and groom entered a waiting automobile for Lexington from where they left immediately for Lexington, Mo., where several entertainments have been planned for them before the week is over. The groom is the employ of the Western Coal Mining Company. The bride, the daughter of Judge and Mrs. Kelly, combines a number of attributes that endear her to all. She is a girl of culture and talent, and will be quite an addition to the so of her new home. The wedding guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Kelly of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Davis Bohon and son of Harrodsburg, Emma Chenault and Alice Elizabeth of Springfield, Ill., Dr. Paul Prewitt and Miss Nell Prewitt of Lexington, Ky., Miss Van Arsdale of Harrodsburg, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Kendrick, Mrs. George Paxton, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Kelly and son, James Hugh, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Graves and daughter, Warfield.—The Lexington, Kentucky, Herald.

GOOD LIVER REMEDY FREE

When you suffer from any form of indigestion it is always well to take something for the liver, as usually the trouble lies there. If you are bilious, have a bloated feeling after eating, if you belch, if your skin is yellowish you may be sure it is liver trouble.

What you need is something to stir up the liver, to arouse the gastric juices so that they will aid in the digestion of your food. A very good remedy for this, and one highly recommended by those who have used it, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which you can obtain of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. But if you have any doubt about its merits, and would prefer to try it first, send your address to Dr. Caldwell and he will promptly send you a free sample bottle.

Thousands of people first learned of this remarkable cure for stomach liver and bowel troubles through a free sample. Mrs. Frank Lilly of Plainview, Ill., sent for one and it cured her and she is open in saying that she will never take pills or strong cathartics again, as Syrup Pepsin acts so mildly. Mr. W. L. Bryant, the Postmaster at Sardis, Tenn., says he will never be without it again. No sick person can afford to ignore a remedy so highly endorsed as this. It is good for all the family from infancy to old age, because it is mild, free from gripping and yet promptly effective. Furthermore, results are absolutely guaranteed or money will be refunded.

For the free sample address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Col. George P. Venable returned Wednesday from an extended stay in a sanitarium at Lincoln, Nebraska, where he was treated for rheumatism.
