

Don't hire a man—

No need to hire a roofer when you buy Peerless Prepared Roofing. To lay a Peerless roof right is easier than to lay it wrong. Simplest job in the world to do. Just lay Peerless on the roof—nail it down—cement the laps and you're all through. We mean that. Once you've laid a Peerless roof you're all through with no expense. There'll be no repair bill—no after cost—for it is guaranteed to stay and satisfy.

Peerless Roofing

We know all about prepared roofing—been selling it for years. That's why Peerless Roofing comes to you with our guarantee as well as the manufacturer's. It wouldn't be there if we were not sure that Peerless is the best prepared roof on the market today.

Don't confuse Peerless with ordinary prepared roofings, and don't wait to investigate. Drop in and talk it over today.

Joseph Booth Silver.

(A Tribute)

Joseph Booth Silver, born at Montgomery Hill, Baldwin county, Alabama, June 13, 1851; died at Grand Rapids, Michigan, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Gilbert, October 15, 1911. Between these two dates lies the life story of the devoted son, loving husband, tender father, affectionate brother and constant friend—a life fraught with good deeds and fragrant with words of loving sympathy, encouragement and hope to his brother man.

In January 1874 Mr. Silver was united by marriage to Miss Fanny Winsor, of Lexington, Missouri. Of this union one daughter, Mary, came to brighten and help the home.

In 1875 Mr. Silver united with the Methodist Episcopal church South, in Lexington, and from 1883 to 1892 was treasurer of the official board; and here he held membership until his removal to Kansas City in 1905. In 1892 he gave up his business in Lexington for a traveling agency in which occupation he continued until forced through ill health to cease labor for about two years previous to his death.

Such in brief is the history of one who to all the responsibilities of life proved true, who as a Christian by his daily walk and conversation adorned the doctrine which he professed and who by his genial manner, sympathetic nature and nobility of manhood won friends whose friendship was enduring. Can he be dead whose spiritual influence is still felt upon those whom he met in the walks of life and with whom he long and intimately associated? It can not be: "His speaking dust" still lives in others' lives, in others' deeds. To such there is no death, rather "All the air is sweeter

For his spirit's sweet release; And his own life is completer

For his conquest and his peace."

It is the removal of the earthly form, the severance of the mortal cord of love, the vacant chair, the sound of "the voice which forever is stilled" that cause grief to those who bury their dead from out their sight; for it is hard for the finite to reach beyond the realm of time and grasp the infinite—hard in the first hours of loss and grief to be comforted by the words of Him who triumphed over death. "Whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die: Because I live ye shall live also," but after a while we shall know and understand how it is that affliction and loss and sorrow can be a part of the "all things" that now with the joy and gladness are working together for our good;

"When the sunset gates unbar And we see our loved ones waiting stand

White against lifes' evening star

To welcome us with beckoning hand," then "we shall see how all God's ways were right" and that "what seemed rebuke was love most true."

May the Comforter whom the Father hath sent grant unto each of the sorrowing ones the consolation that aboundeth by Christ until they too are called to enter in through the gates into the city of God.

FREE SAMPLE OF LAXATIVE CURED HIS CONSTIPATION

When a person has become discouraged through years of failure to find a cure, and finally, perhaps, gives up trying, it is small wonder that he becomes skeptical. And yet, to all who have constipation, we would say, "Try just one thing more."

We wish you would try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a laxative tonic that has been used for a generation. Thousands are using it; surely some of your friends among the number. You can buy it of any druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, but better still, send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell for a free sample bottle. He will send you enough to convince you of its merits, and then if you like it you can buy it of your druggist. Mr. J. J. Petty of Unionville, Mo., Mr. George W. Zimmerman of Harrisburg, Pa., and many others of both sexes and in all parts of the country first used a sample bottle and now have it regularly in the house.

You will learn to do away with salts, waters and cathartics for these are but temporary reliefs while Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is guaranteed to cure permanently. It will train your stomach and bowel muscles so that they will do their work again naturally without outside aid. Cast aside your skepticism and try Syrup Pepsin.

For the free sample address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

vive him.

The funeral services were conducted by the Masons at the home Sunday afternoon. Interment was in the Waverly cemetery.

Gus Kylan Draws Claim.

Gus Kylan has received word that he has drawn Claim No. 1239 in the Indian Reservation land drawing in South Dakota. So far Mr. Kylan is the only Lexingtonian mentioned in the lucky column.

Linwood Lawn Sold.

C. N. Comstock of Albany, Mo., for the past two years owner of Linwood Lawn has sold the property to August Marks. Consideration $140 per acre.

Pinafore.

Do not fail to see the crew of H. M. S. PINAFORE scrub the deck and sing while they work and hear the ship's Bos'n sing "For He Is An Englishman." The jacksies have the nautical way of "hitching up their britches" as they work and dance about the deck and you will make no mistake in coming to see them.

Mrs. C. A. Keith and daughter, Miss Aileen, went to Kansas City Wednesday to spend the day.

Mrs. T. M. Kelley and little daughter spent Sunday in Higginsville.

Miss Elva Clark returned to Independence Sunday night after a visit here with friends.

W. H. Silver returned to St. Louis Sunday evening after a visit here with relatives.
