High License Advocates.

A meeting was recently held in this city by a few representative business men for the purpose of instituting a campaign for a higher saloon license in the city of Lexington. As far as can be learned the plan is yet in the embryo, yet enough has leaked out to give a little idea of their purposes, viz: To organize a high license league in each ward and start a campaign soon after New Years for a license of $5000.

George A. Murrell Dead.

Word was received here yesterday morning that George A. Murrell died Thursday at his home in Marshall from paralysis. He was 85 years old. Mr. Murrell had many friends in Lexington who will be grieved to hear of his death. He was a large contributor to the building fund of Central College, the new auditorium being a monument of his generosity and from whom it takes its name.

For Supreme Judge.

Perry S. Rader, who has been the supreme court reporter for a number of years, probably will be a candidate for supreme judge at the next election. His position as reporter has given him the opportunity to become well acquainted with Missouri laws, as well qualified for a seat on the supreme bench as any other man in the state. Outside of his legal attainments, he is blessed with a fair share of good common sense, is thoroughly honest, and is in sympathy with the common people as against the trusts. If he should be elevated to the supreme bench he would be one in whom the people could safely rely that his decisions would not wobble, but would be clear cut and hewn to the line, let the chips fall where they may. Seeing Perry Rader on the supreme bench would be like bringing back the old times when the old school of honesty, integrity, ability and a "square deal" were in the saddle.—Montgomery City Standard.
