HARD TO FIND MORAL HERE

Warden's Little Act of Dishonesty Saved His Life Through Discovery He Made.

A Warsaw bookkeeper named Schneider was awaiting his trial, being charged with fraud. As his health was bad his family sent him many little delicacies unknown to the prison fare, delicacies which, doubtless, his custodian shared. One day, amongst other things, a huge iced cake appeared. The warden's children were fond of cake, so was his wife. They therefore determined to annex half the cake for their own consumption. Their astonishment was great when, upon applying a knife to the dainty, it stuck below the icing and refused to budge.

"It must be baked to a cinder," said Mrs. Warden.

But her husband, suspecting that something worse than careless baking was responsible for the cake's hardness, cut round the sides, and was rewarded by finding a revolver and seven cartridges buried in the paste.

When arraigned before the authorities Schneider confessed that he had intended to shoot his jailers and escape from limbo before his trial.

"After all," said the warden, pensively, when relating the episode, "honesty is not always the best policy. If my wife had not cut into that cake I should have been a dead man by now, for I sleep hard."

GOOD STARTER

Miss Coed—The girls are to have running races this afternoon.

Mr. Gurl—What does the starter start them with—pistol?

Miss Coed—Oh! no; he simply yells "Mouse!"

DUTY OF PARENTS.

Summarizing the parents' duties, a writer in the Mothers' Magazine says:

"To that child they owe the daily revelation of the best of their natures. The child must see that unfaithfulness to its own, to the stranger, to the state and to God is the real working purpose of life, and that love is the handmaiden of loyalty. Then shall constancy unfold within its heart, open with the undying fragrance of the roses of unyielding faith in all that is true."

SOME HEAT.

"I hev come to tell yez, Mrs. Malone, that yer husband met with an accident."

"An' what is it, now?" wailed Mrs. Malone.

"He is overcome by the heat, mum."

"Overcome by the heat, was he? An' how did it happen?"

"He fell into the furnace at the foundry, mum."—Tit-Bits.

VERY SIMPLE.

"What is your theory about the increased price of living?"

"I think it is because things cost more."

VARIOUS VARIETIES.

"There's a wayfarer at the back door. Shall I unchain the dog?"

"Not too hasty. Is it a tramp, a boy scout or a hiking suffragette?"

INFERENCE.

"The native tribes that missionary went out to were so glad to see him they fairly ate him up."

"Why, were they cannibals?"

PRACTICAL SENTIMENT.

She—Oh, don't you just adore the dear little lambs?

He—Yes, especially with green peas and mint sauce.

ACCOUNTING FOR THE CUT.

Patience—He has fine-cut features, hasn't he?

Patrice—Yes, he shaves himself, I believe.
