

Injured in Runaway.

Sunday afternoon Miss Caltha Campbell with two of Mr. and Mrs. Bird Campbell's children was returning from Dover, when descending the Groves hill the harness broke. The team driven by Sam Redd soon became unmanageable and as they crossed the bridge in the ravine on this side, the tongue snapped and all except one horse and the children went into the ravine, a fall of at least twenty feet. C. L. Wilson of this city soon came along in his car meeting the one horse headed toward Dover. He crossed the bridge and seeing no signs of a wreck came on toward home, but a little further discovered a piece of the tongue and at the same time heard some one calling from the ravine. On returning he discovered Miss Caltha and Mr. Redd with the wagon and one horse in the bottom of the ravine. They were soon extricated, and Mr. Wilson took them to Dover for medical treatment. Miss Caltha was painfully bruised and scratched, but otherwise uninjured. The children jumped early in the fray and were safe. Mr. Redd was injured as was both of the horses. The wagon was pretty badly damaged. Mr. Wilson says it is simply a miracle that they escaped fatal injury.

Mr. Gratz and Party Return.

Ike Gratz and his party including Herman Schmidt, Axel Samuelson and his chauffeur, Arnold Simmons, returned Sunday night from their motor car trip through the east. Their itinerary east took them through St. Louis, Shawnetown, Ill., Nashville, Tenn., Evansville and French Lick Springs, Ind., Louisville and Lexington, Ky., Cincinnati, Columbus and Cleveland, Ohio; Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Rochester, Utica, Albany, New York City. On the return trip they came by the way of Elmira, N. Y., Erie, Pa., Indianapolis and Terre Haute, Ind. In all they covered over 5,000 miles. The trip was made in Mr. Gratz's Dorris car and when they came in Sunday night her engine was running as smoothly as a sewing machine.

Road Commissioners Here.

Lee Benning, E. N. Hopkins and Nate Gordon, Road Commissioners of Lafayette county held a meeting here Friday. A delegation was here from Odessa to lay claim to the Warrensburg road. Lee Shipper was not present. Further than listening to a lot of hot air, nothing was accomplished. The Commissioners met in Concordia Monday to hear what the Concordians had to say.

Rogers N. Strickland of Coffeyville, Kansas, arrived Monday evening for a visit here with friends.

Theodore Bates left Saturday evening for Webb City, Mo., on business.

Death of Mrs. James Connors.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. James Connors Tuesday evening at four o'clock at her home in Waureka, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Connors was the daughter of the late Thomas Hare. She was born in Lexington May 3, 1869, and was married to James Connors May 5, 1897. Besides her husband she is survived by three children—James, Julia and Thomas. She is also survived by two two sisters and two brothers—Mrs. Thomas Holleron and Mrs. Frank Bowers of this city, and Thomas and James Hare of Independence.

The body was brought to Lexington Wednesday night and taken to the home of Thomas Holleron. The funeral was held yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from the Catholic church.

Death of James Canning.

James Canning died Tuesday evening very suddenly at his home three miles south of Lexington. His death was due to pneumonia complicated with heart trouble.

Mr. Canning was about fifty years old. He is survived by one son—William, who lives in Chicago, two brothers and one sister.

Mr. Canning was an honest and honorable citizen, whose untimely death will be regretted by all who knew him.

The funeral was held from the home yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Crowd Was With Us.

If there was anyone who was not at the O. V. B. opening Thursday we will pardon you this time because the Model Hardware was full and overflowing, and souvenirs ran low early in the day. For such a fine turnout and the interest taken in the O. V. B. line we want to thank all from the kids up. Red Letter Day July 25. There's a reason. Phone 185. 10th and Main streets.

THE MODEL HARDWARE.

Cutting Scrape.

Saturday night John Jordan and his son, Albert, entered McIntyre and Mitchell's saloon and proceeded to give Geo. Hursman a beating. Hursman was attending to his own business and resented this attack by drawing a knife and giving Jordan and son some pretty slashes across the face and back. What prompted the attack cannot be learned.

Domestic Science Teacher Elected.

The Lexington Board of Education Tuesday elected Miss Katie Van Noyes of Tribune, Kansas, as teacher of domestic science in the Lexington public schools for the coming school year. Miss Van Noyes is a niece of Dr. Z. M. Williams, president of Central College.

H. G. Gelzer Sells Feed Store.

H. G. Gelzer Wednesday sold his feed store to Jos. L. Long. Mr. Long will take possession this morning and continue at the same stand until Mr. Gelzer completes his building on Franklin street, when he will move to that location. Mr. Long is well known to the people of Lexington and vicinity, and no doubt will enjoy a liberal patronage in his new undertaking. Mr. Gelzer has not fully determined what business he will engage in. He will not, however, leave Lexington.

Fleeing Towards Canada.

Dr. G. W. Fredendall, J. G. Crenshaw and Col. John Chamberlain left yesterday morning for a month's sojourn on Rainy Lake, Ontario, Canada. The party will include Dr. J. Q. Chambers of Kansas City, Joe Wilkins of Mexico, and Luther Crenshaw of St. Louis. Fred T. Wilson, commissary of the party, and a connoisseur of ice cream and lemonade, left on July 4th to prepare for the coming of the main party.

Run Down by a Pop-pop.

Wednesday evening Henry Powen, colored, while attempting to cross Main street near Mitchell's corner, was run down and considerably bruised by a motor cycle ridden by Henry Fox. It has been considered quite a miracle that some one has not been injured or killed long before this by some reckless driver of which Lexington has a plenty.

Arm Broken.

Miss Ethel Morris fell and sustained a broken arm at the carnival Wednesday night, caused by the tipping of one of the plank seats in the animal show. It is painful as well as unfortunate accident, and it will be some time before Miss Morris can use the injured member, her left arm.

Miss Margaret O'Connor, who accompanied the body of her grandfather, Patrick O'Malley, left Monday for her home in St. Louis.

Miss Anna Dankers spent Sunday in Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler Williamson went to Kansas City Monday morning to spend the day.

John Samuelson went to Excelsior Springs Wednesday for a few days' stay.

Miss Amanda Kelly returned Wednesday to her home in Kansas City after a few days' visit with the family of Rev. T. M. Cobb.

Mr. Keithly reports that the official heat Tuesday was only 99 degrees. That's not so bad when you stop to think how much higher the thermometer could go.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graddy announce the birth of a son, Tuesday, July 15, 1913.
