Mr. Hamlin says that his record in an open book. He should have said, "blank book," and then no one could have denied the truthfulness of his statement. After ten years of opportunity and association with the many great men in congress, Mr. Hamlin is still an inoffensive nonentity.

When the Green county Democratic committee endorsed C. W. Hamlin for congress, the committee was the most intelligent, honorable and patriotic body of men on earth. When this same committee endorses Harry D. Durst for Congress, they commit the biggest and dirtiest deal on record. The Hamlin cohorts are now crying fraud! fraud! fraud! But in answer to this, the committee at a recent meeting endorsed all that had been done at a previous meeting, so that the voters might know that Mr. Durst is the committee's choice for the nomination.

Miss Virginia Windle went to Kansas City Tuesday evening for a visit.

Howard Wilson, Corder Steele and W. R. Humphrey returned Tuesday evening from a ten days' outing at Spirit Lake, Iowa. They made the trip in Mr. Wilson's car.

Sheriff W. H. Waddell went to Corder Wednesday to attend the picnic.

Otto Stalling of Sweet Springs spent Wednesday here.

Mrs. Wm. Seamp returned to her home in Danville, Kentucky, Wednesday after a visit here with Miss Kate Weedon.

To the Democrats of the Seventh Congressional District:

When I consented to run for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district I did so with the firm determination to make a clean, manly fight for it. I have done so, and expect to continue to the last, believing in clearness in politics as in private life. I realized, of course, that every man who had a grievance, however petty, against me would show his vindictiveness. However, I did not expect assaults on my veracity or my democracy from men like C. W. Hamlin, my opponent who have accepted my support and vouched for my truthfulness for these many years. Mr. Hamlin accepted my support as a Democrat for the past twelve years and it seems late in the day for him to question my democracy. Does it not?

In reply to the charge that I am not a loyal Democrat, I desire to say that the man who says I have ever bolted a Democratic ticket is guilty of a deliberate falsehood. I did support a man who has been my chum from boyhood two years ago when he ran for Circuit Judge, a non-political office. Mr. Hamlin, as well as his brother, O. T. Hamlin, must admit their support of Judge J. T. Neville, Republican for Circuit Judge, against T. J. Murray, J. T. White, and Hunter Wear, Democrats. I have never supported a Republican running for a political office. Ask Mr. Hamlin about his support of that great man, Wm. J. Bryan in 1896. Don't you think in fairness to me that my record as a Democrat is better than my friend Hamlin's? If supporting a Republican, who is your personal friend for a non-political office is political treason, then many of us are guilty. Kindly give this your consideration.

I do not believe that the good people of this district are going to be misled and deceived this time by deliberate falsehoods published and circulated on me at the eleventh hour. Again it is said over the signature of C. W. Hamlin that I am the candidate of certain disappointed office seekers. I can say truthfully and honestly that I am the candidate of no man or set of men, but if nominated and elected will honestly and fearlessly endeavor to represent the best I can the interest of all the people all the time.

Mr. Hamlin has also represented to the people that the action of the Greene County Committee in endorsing me was a trick. Regarding this I say without fear of successful contradiction that it was an honest, straight expression of the Committee and done in the same way the committee endorsed Mr. Hamlin for the past several years.

The Democrats of this district are not going to continue Mr. Hamlin in office for the balance of his natural life in direct contradiction of the Democratic principle of rotation in office, and in the face of his deliberate attacks at this late day upon me, then I say it is up to them and their conscience in the matter.

Sincerely,
HARRY D. DURST.
