BLUES 7; ATHLETICS 0.

Home Boys Made a Very Creditable showing in Fast Company.

The game Thursday between the Kansas City team of the American Association and the Lexington Athletics was thoroughly enjoyed by a large crowd. Without going into details, it will be sufficient to state that the "Blues" had the class and of course won; but the game was interesting nevertheless. The home boys played a very creditable game. They made a few errors and in a few instances were not awake to the possibilities of their positions. McCabe, of the St. Louis Browns, was in the box for the locals and delivered the goods in fine shape. Capt. Wykoff handled cleanly everything he put over. McCabe, in fielding his position used more speed than the home boys were accustomed to and this, in a few instances, resulted in the runner being safe instead of out. He, however, soon adjusted himself to conditions, burned them over to the batters and a very interesting contest was the result.

Smith, for the Blues, had too much smoke for the home boys. Capt. Gates made a double and Stevens a single—that was all.

Batteries—Smith and Hargrave; Athletics, McCabe and Wykoff.

Engagement Announced.

A very beautifully appointed five course luncheon party was given Thursday by Mrs. C. T. Ryland at her home on East Main street. Covers were laid for twelve guests, and Miss Annie Wood Eggleston was given the seat of honor. The luncheon was to announce her approaching marriage to Mr. Layton Barnett.

The happiness of the occasion was given special emphasis in the manner of the announcement, typified in the bluebird perched on the edge of water goblets. Each carried a tiny note with the names of Mr. Barnett and Miss Eggleston and the date of Nov., 15th, 1916.

The social prominence of both young people make the wedding one of unusual interest to both town and county friends.

Two Young Boys Apprehended.

Arthur and Luther Jackson, ages 13 and 15 years, were taken from a train Sunday at Myrick and turned over to Sheriff Waddell. The two boys left their home in Damascus, Ohio, about two weeks ago with 64 cents between them and arrived here with 4 cents. The boys say that their parents have separated and that their father is foreman of a steel works in Damascus, and that their mother is living somewhere in California with two small sisters. The father is a Saturday night drunkard and when in this condition beats up everyone in sight. At one of these orgies he was so brutal to the two boys that they decided to make their way to their mother. Sheriff Waddell is trying to locate the mother. In the meantime he has taken them into his home, given them clean clothing, and will give them home comforts until their relatives can be located. The boys are exceedingly bright little fellows, well mannered and appreciative of every attention. If the mother can be located, we would suggest that enough money be raised in the community to send the little fellows on their way in comfort.

Thos. Walton and J. W. Warder, Jr., have leased the Orpheum building on Franklin St., renamed it "The Princess," and will give the first show some time this week. The date will be announced later.

Athletics 13; All-Pros 3.

The baseball game Sunday between the Athletics and the All-Pros (Butter Fingers) resulted in a very close contest as far as the pitching went. "Heinie" Huber was in the box for B. F.'s and allowed only four hits. But, the ball was too elusive for his fielders, and the score went against him to the tune of 13 to 3. The game was well patronized which was the all important thing as the proceeds were divided between the players. For this the players are very thankful.

W. M. A. 16; Buckner 6.

The Bucknerites were taken into camp Friday by the Wentworth football team by a score of 16 to 6. Buckner scored by intercepting a forward pass. One of Wentworth's scores was made easy through a blocked kick.

In Memory of George Joseph Small.

On Tuesday, evening, October 3rd, 1916, George, the 6 year old son of Robt. Small and wife, slipped away to him who said: "Suffer little children to come unto me." All unspotted from this world in which he tarried such a little while—such a little while! Only just long enough for the parent's heart strings to entwine about the little life so near their own, and to make them feel the loss through all the years to come. For each day brings a new sense of loss; the loss of what the child would be then. As only those of us who have seen the little white caskets carried from our homes know.

In the cold moist earth we laid him,

When the forest cast the leaf,

And we wept that one so lovingly,

Should have a life so brief.

And yet not we meet it, was that, this fair child of ours.

So gentle and so beautiful, should perish with the flowers.
