DR. B. TEMPLE PAYNE

The boys in the country will not forget that farm products of all kinds reached their highest market value under a Democratic administration.

Governor Hadley has seen fit to assail the insurance department under Democratic management. He charged an increase of $30,000 in the pay roll under the Democrats. As a matter of fact, the only increase made in the pay roll of that department was recommended by Mr. Blake, Gov. Hadley's appointee. The only thing accomplished by the insurance department under Mr. Hadley was the creation of a soft berth for the Governor's father-in-law, Mr. Lee.

WOMEN GIVE OUT

Housework is hard enough when healthy. Every Lexington woman who is having backache, blue and nervous spells, headaches and kidney or bladder troubles, should be glad to heed this Lexington woman's experience:

Mrs. C. A. Bledsoe 621 Franklin St., Lexington, says: "A short time ago I had trouble with the irregular action of my kidneys. My kidneys were sluggish in action and my feet and ankles swelled until they were sore and sensitive. In my sides just over my hips I became awfully sore and lame and when I bent, sharp knifelike pains shot through my body. Doan's Kidney Pills entirely removed the trouble."

HUGHES SURRENDERS TO THE "OLD GUARD"

Makes Peace with Boss Hendricks and They Have Love Feast.

CAMPAIGN IN CONTROL OF REACTIONARY CROWD

Bainbridge Colby, Progressive, Points to the Candidate's Party Managers.

Bainbridge Colby, distinguished lawyer and leader of the Progressive movement in New York, has issued a statement calling attention to the fact that the chief political significance of Candidate Hughes's recent sojourn in the East was his complete surrender to the stand-pat politicians who constitute the "Old Guard" of the G. O. P.

His statement in part is as follows:

"Charles Evans Hughes has made it clear since his return to New York that he has cast his lot for better or worse with the reactionary elements of the Republican party, utterly regardless of the opinions or sensibilities of Progressive and Independents. Anti-machine Republicans have learned with amazement that Mr. Hughes's first political act upon his return to his home state was to effect a public reconciliation with Francis Hendricks at Syracuse, the venerable Old Guard Boss of the interior of the state.

"The long time feud existing between Mr. Hughes and Boss Hendricks was not only ended but its termination was conspicuously celebrated by a public love feast which has been heralded wide and far by the stand-pat Republicans as indicative of their complete and firm control of the Hughes Presidential campaign.

A Stand-Pat Love Feast.

"The New York Tribune, which is supporting Mr. Hughes, features this incident as the most important event of Candidate Hughes's present New York trip. The Tribune article is headed: 'Hughes Closes Long Time Feud With Hendricks, Veteran Leader of Onondaga Sits at Love Feast with Nominee.'

"If candidate Hughes 'spilled the beans' in California by his studied slight to Governor Johnson and the latter's Progressive followers he may be regarded as having 'upset the apple cart' in New York by his public and cordial recognition of Boss Hendricks. It is suggested that Mr. Hughes has not yet visited Albany where Boss Barnes reigns, or other sections of the state dominated by the Old Guard bosses; but that when he does so similar reconciliations and love feasts will be the order.

"As to the future conduct of the Republican Presidential campaign an illuminating light is shed by the announcement from Republican Headquarters the other day that Mr. Hughes, enjoying a day of respite from the stump, was holding a war council in New York City with such astute and guiding spirits of the G. O. P. as Reed Smoot of Utah, Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire and Murray Crane of Massachusetts."—The Bulletin.

HELP IS RUSHED TO POLICEMAN

John F. Darnell Traffic Officer, Tells of Tanlac's Aid.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 13—The words of an officer of the law John F. Darnell, traffic policeman at Twelfth and Main streets, have added to the mass of evidence regarding the merit of Tanlac the new medicine. Traffic officer Darnell recently said:

"For a long time I have suffered from stomach trouble. My digestion was very poor. I had no appetite. What food I did eat seemed to do me no good. After meals I'd be bothered with gas in my stomach that would cause bloating. I'd usually feel uncomfortable for several hours.

"Before I had taken my first bottle of Tanlac I noticed benefits. My appetite improved daily. I can eat anything I care for now and there are no bad after effects such as bloating or gas in my stomach."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism nervousness, loss of appetite and the like and is a fine blood purifier and general system cleanser.

Tanlac is now being specially introduced in Lexington at the Crenshaw & Young Drug Store.

BLANKETS

We are showing the largest stock of Blankets that we have ever shown and as the indications point to a cold winter we advise early purchasing. They run in prices beginning at 50c, 75c, 85c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00, $2.25 and up to Ten dollars. Every one is cheap and good, and well worth the money. We bought them before the advance in other goods at about last year's prices and we are selling them without a cent of profit on account of the "Big Advance," which has been laid on all cotton goods. Our stock is full and overflowing in all other respects. Come and test us.
