

MORRIS HOTEL HAS BUSY SUNDAY

105 Tourists Were Served Dinner Besides Regular Trade.

Morris Hotel presented a busy scene Sunday noon. Tourists were out in flocks and 105 were registered at this famous hostelry for dinner. Landlord Morris had been notified of the coming of most of them and had prepared an ample spread for the hungry wayfarers.

Among the guests were W. S. Clark, a wholesale grocer of Warrensburg, and his father, H. F. Clark. The elder Clark is 86 years of age. A. W., and G. W. King and their mother, Mrs. Jane Hegerty were also guests. Mrs. Hegerty is 96 years of age and, possibly, is the oldest woman living in Lafayette county.

Favier Discharged.

Theodore Favier who was arrested for desecrating the American flag and cursing all flags in general, and whose trial June 30th resulted in a hung jury, was released Tuesday after a public apology for his actions and a promise of allegiance to the United States flag. After agreeing to pay all of the accrued costs, the charge against him was dismissed.

Athletics 7; All-Pros 6.

The Athletics defeated the strong All-Pros of Kansas City, Sunday afternoon by pounding VanHammer to all corners of the lot and walked away with a 7 to 6 victory. It was the ninth straight win for the home club and eleven out of the last twelve starts.

The All-Pros scored one run in the first inning. The Athletics were not long in overcoming this lead. Mackie singled and pilfered second. Lineback sacrificed and on the play to catch Mackie, Lineback got as far as second. Stevens bunted to short, Mackie scored and Lineback advanced to third and scored on a sacrifice fly by Howe. The home crew made two more in the second, one in the third and one in the eighth. The visitors scored one in the first, two in the sixth, one in the seventh and two in the ninth.

Hale allowed twelve hits but always put on the brake whenever the A-P's got dangerous. The Athletics made ten singles and four doubles. "Shinny," the old reliable at collecting, made two doubles and a single, count 'em.

Summary: two-base hits, Shinn 2, King 1, Wells 1, Mackie 1, Hale 1. Double play: Mavel to Stevens. Base on balls: off Hale 4, off VanHammer 1. Struckout by Hale 7, by VanHammer 4. Earned runs: Athletics 6, All-Pros 3.
