ATHLETICS AND BUICKS BATTLE 11 INNINGS

Mason Saved the Game in the Ninth Inning by a Sensational Catch.

In one of the best games played on the local diamond this season, the Athletics and Buick Motor Car team of Kansas City, battled eleven innings Sunday afternoon, the Athletics winning by the close score of 2 to 1.

The home boys put one over in the second, and the Buicks tied 'er up in the fourth. From then on, the game was nip and tuck. In the eleventh inning the Athletics decided that the game had gone far enough and hammered out a run. Shehan doubled, advanced to third on Wells' teaser to second, and then came home on a fly by Merkel.

Mason, in right field, saved the game in the ninth inning when he made a very sensational catch with two down and two on. "Wolf" Mackie, who has been out of the game for several weeks, was on third and drove in the first run by a double the first time up.

"Lefty" Shahan did mound duty for the Athletics and Ray Hale for the visitors. The former allowed five hits and fanned an even dozen. Hale permitted only three hits and fanned a

Wentworth 6; Normals 14.

In the first football of the season Saturday, the Wentworth team was defeated by the Warrensburg Normal team by the score of 14 to 6. The cadets led in the first half by scoring a touchdown. In the second half, Allen's proteges used a long forward pass and got away with it to the extent of two touchdowns. The cadets lost two of their best men right at the start of this half, which made possible the visitors' scores.

The teams were pretty evenly matched; both are green, but showed promise of future development.

Recent Dealings in Real Estate.

L. H. S. Wins First Game.

Friday afternoon on Wentworth field Lexington High defeated Oak Grove High in a hotly contested game of football, by a score of 18 to 6. L. H. S. gained four times as many yards as Oak Grove, although having the lighter team. Both teams confined their efforts to straight football. In Welsh and Curry, Lexington has two as nifty half backs as any high school could want. Their off tackle smashes and end runs gained from five to fifteen yards, while Lundberg and Amos smashed thru the line for consistent gains.

Lexington has but three of last year's letter men on the team, but a deserved victory was won by hard playing. In the line Letchworth, Farrell, Souter, and Howe played excellent games. All the new men showed up well.

L. H. S. will play Odessa High next Friday at Odessa.

Officials in yesterday's game: Referee, Wikoff; Umpire, Bates; Lineman, Day.

Mrs. Neet Sells Ice Business.

Mrs. F. R. Neet has disposed of her ice business to Ralph Miller, of Jefferson City, and will give possession October 1st. The business was established by Mrs. Neet's husband about thirty-five years ago. After his death Mrs. Neet managed the business with marked success, and now owing to failing health found it necessary to dispose of it.

Mr. Miller says that he will endeavor to give the public the same service as that given by Mrs. Neet. Mr. Miller was formerly in the internal revenue service and is already known by many in this city. He will move his family here next week.

Maj. E. A. Hickman a Visitor.

Major E. A. Hickman, United States Army, spent Saturday in Lexington calling on friends. Maj. Hickman has been assigned to the 86th Division of the National army which is being organized and trained at Rockford, Ill. He spent the summer in command of an Officers training camp at Fort Logan H. Roots near Little Rock, Ark.

Hays-Hays.

Richard E. Hays of this city received a letter Saturday announcing the marriage of his son, Richard L., to Miss Mabelle G. Hays, at Loveland, Colorado, Thursday, September 27, 1917. Mrs. Hays is the daughter of a large ranch owner at Lander, Wyo.

Notice.

I have concluded to have no Fall sale of hogs; but will sell at private sale my Spring pigs, a few sows and one extra 2-year old boar.

A. P. YOUNG.

The ice dealers of the city will conduct their business on a cash basis after October 1st. This will be an advantage to both dealer and customer; the dealer will eliminate bad accounts and the customer can eliminate "guess" weights.

Mr. and Mrs. Evert Logsdon, of Blackburn, Mo., announce the birth of a son, Sunday, September 30, 1917. Mrs. Logsdon was formerly Miss Florence Barron, of this city.

The small home can frequently be heated by one stove. Get Cole's High Range and both cook and heat.

Visiting Sailor Boys.

Monroe Butler and Pierre Marvel, who enlisted in the United States Navy in April, arrived Sunday evening from Portsmouth, N. H., where their ship, the Montana, is undergoing repairs. Both boys have made marked advancement in the short time they have been in the service; Monroe is a Third class yeoman and a petty officer in the pay department, while Pierre is an artisan—painter. Their ship has made one trip of nineteen days, as convoy to transports going to France.

The boys have a ten days' furlough.
