WENTWORTH 32; HASKELL RESERVES 0.

Braves Smothered by Lighter Opponents Resort to Rough Stuff.

The football game Saturday between the Haskell Reserves and Wentworth resulted in a one-sided score of 32-0 in favor of the cadets. Haskell made pretty gains but lacked a punch when a punch was needed to get results. They gave too much attention to rough stuff to accomplish much in a legitimate way, especially in the second half when they were made to realize that the cadets were their masters at the game.

The game started when Haskell lifted the oval far down the field into Wentworth territory. It was returned nearly to the center of the field before being downed. Haskell was playing off side which aided the cadets very materially in making the first touchdown in about two minutes of play. Chapin kicked goal. The second touchdown was made through the air, Harrison to Byler. The third, in the same half, came about when Simmons intercepted one of Haskell's attempted flights, and ran sixty-five yards before landing. Hall plunged the remaining distance, making the score at the close of the first half, 20 to 0.

Twelve more points were added in the second half, principally through the stellar work of Simmons, Hall, Byler and Zelleken. Haskell made some pretty gains in this half, but were always smothered when they became too dangerous. They repeatedly resorted to rough stuff which gained them nothing but the contempt of those of the spectators who knew "what's what" in football.

Absent Without Leave.

City Marshal Seitz Thursday took into custody two young men clothed in uniforms of the United States Army, who were wandering around the city in quest of something to eat. They first applied to Corporal Morton who is in charge of the recruiting office here. He became suspicious and requested permission to examine their furlough papers. They confessed they had none and were absent without leave. They gave their names as Leo Long, a former resident of this city, and Eddie Sims of Unionville, Mo., and claim to belong to Company "G" 4th Missouri Infantry stationed at Fort Sill.

Officer Seitz wired Fort Sill and was informed that the men were deserters from Headquarters Co., 139th Infantry, stationed at Fort Sill, and were posted as such on October 13, 1917. Marshal Seitz was directed to deliver the men to the Post Adjutant at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

For The Cause of Liberty.

Hon. Henderson Martin made a strong appeal in his address Monday night, to the people in every walk of life, to give their aid to the government in its struggle for universal liberty. He said: "We are not fighting for an indemnity, nor for territory; but for the great principle of human liberty. We may have contributed to the Red Cross, to the Y. M. C. A., and possibly bought a liberty bond. But have we made a sacrifice; a sacrifice comparable to that made by those who have gone into the army—offered their lives that the principle upon which this government was founded, may be extended to all parts of the world, and the world made safe for Democracy."

Gov. Martin impressed those present with the seriousness of the situation and with the responsibility every one must accept in this great conflict.

What the Women Did.

When the women canvassed Lexington Wednesday and sold $11,600 worth of bonds, they did much more than sell the bonds. The city, to the utmost limits was divided into fifteen districts, a captain appointed over each district, with a number of women working under each captain; in this way they were able to make a house to house canvass and in many ways give instruction in regard to war and the reason for the issuance of the bonds. They talked with one woman who did not know a war was going on.

They endeavored to make the canvass educational and helpful in many ways, laying a foundation on which much can be built.
