A bill to prohibit the use of the red flag or any other emblem of a movement to overthrow the Government of the United States, was introduced in the House Wednesday by Representative Osborne of California, by request. The bill prohibits the "public or private use" of such flags and emblems and provides severe penalties for any person who makes use of such flags. It was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Dr. Chalkley Returns Home.

Dr. A. J. Chalkley arrived Tuesday from Camp Greene, N. C., to resume his practice. His presence in town will be a great relief to his many friends among the "flu" sufferers, and to the overworked members of his profession.

The fire department responded to a call Wednesday morning at the home of Sam Walton, on Main street. The fire was put out by a fire extinguisher before much damage was done.

It Sure Is Tough

—to buy a bill of Lumber for some permanent improvement, —and then make the discovery, after one has begun construction, that by the exercise of a little more pains-taking care—a little further investigation—he could have bought decidedly better material, at no greater cost. —if you would avoid this disheartening experience, come here for your Lumber. —it is ever our aim to give each customer such unqualified satisfaction that there will be not the ghost of dissatisfaction.
