Ruthful James.

If a notorious guerrilla should exhibit proudly a pass signed by the Commander-in-Chief of the regular army eight or nine years ago, he wouldn't be any more comic than Senator Jim Reed now is. Having fought Mr. Wilson's Administration for years, having been practically cast out of the Democratic Party by the Missouri Democratic Convention in 1920, he wants to be renominated by both the Wilson Democrats and the anti-Wilson Democrats. What if he has been a political Bedouin of the Black Tents? Behold him in the most spotless of burnouses, a civilized Moor of the city, with testimonials of the Sultan's favor hung in a bag around his neck. The papers are frayed. The date is ancient. Still, he loves to show them.

It is no wonder that Mr. Wilson, who has had to write innumerable letters, should forget the entirely unimportant one sent to Mr. Reed in 1913. The Administration was then only six or seven months old. Mr. Reed hadn't yet displayed, save feebly and fitfully, his incomparable genius for pariah politics. The certificate of 1913, whatever its original value, is barred by the statue of limitations. Mr. Reed's inveterate insurgency has become known to everybody since then. The indiscreet conduct of Mr. Reed's friends in waving the old "recommend" has induced Mr. Wilson to give him a new "character." This is a work of art. Mr. Wilson correctly assumes that Mr. Reed's friends are trying to write a fraudulent endorsement by Mr. Wilson on Mr. Reed's

"Faster, Jimmy, faster! You know mother said there won't be any breakfast till we bring the Kellogg's Corn Flakes!"

Compare flavor and crispness!
KELLOGG'S against any
Corn Flakes you ever ate!

Takes the rough edges off hopping out of the covers these snappy mornings just thinking about that lousy bowl of Kellogg's Corn Flakes waiting down-stairs! Big and brown and crispy-crunchy flakes—a revelation in appetizing flavor, wonderful in wholesome goodness—the most delicious cereal you ever tasted!

Instantly you like Kellogg's, not only because of appealing flavor, but because Kellogg's are not "leathery"! Kellogg's are a delight to eat, as the little folks as well as the big ones will tell you! And Kellogg's ought to be best—they're the original Corn Flakes! You have only to make comparison to quickly realize how perfect they are!

KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes for tomorrow morning's spread! They get the day started right! Insist upon KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes in the RED and GREEN package—the kind that are not leathery!

candidacy. He therefore gives this plain opinion of the Missouri swatter of things and persons in general:

To those who have closely observed Mr. Reed's career in Washington he has shown himself incapable of sustained allegiance to any person or any cause. He has repeatedly forfeited any claim to my confidence that he may ever have been supposed to have, and I shall never willingly consent to any further association with him.

That is the "character" which Mr. Wilson gives to Mr. Reed in April, 1922. If the Missouri Democrats want that kind of servant, that is the kind of servant they want.—New York Times.

For The Children.

Too much care cannot be exercised in selecting a cough medicine for children. It should be pleasant to take, contain no harmful drug and most effectual in curing their coughs and colds. Long experience has shown that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets these conditions. It is a favorite with many mothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Meierer of Kansas City, spent Sunday here with relatives.

Death of Mrs. Mary McCue. Mrs. Mary McCue died Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, death resulting from cancer. The deceased was 65 years of age, and is survived by her husband, one son and three daughters.

NOT THE ONLY ONE

There Are Other Lexington People Similarly Situated.

Nathan Talbot, 1810 Railroad St., Lexington, says: "My kidneys were in very bad condition. Many days after doing hard work my back would ache so I could hardly walk. If I stooped over, sharp pains would shoot up and down my back. I felt weak and lame and often had dull pains in my head when everything would seem to be jumping up and down before me. My kidneys acted irregularly and the secretions were painful in passage and contained sediment. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a few boxes at Marshall's Drug Store. They entirely cured me of all the trouble. Doan's is certainly a fine remedy."

Mrs. Sanford Sellers, Jr., and Miss Elizabeth Young attended a three days' session of the Federation of Music Clubs of Missouri in Mexico, Mo., the first part of the week. Mrs. Sellers appeared on the program.

Dollars and Cents.

Counting it only in dollars and cents, how much did that last cold cost you? A man may not always stop work when he has a cold, but perhaps it would be better if he did. It takes about ten days to get completely rid of a cold under the usual treatment. That time can be much shortened by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and proper care of yourself, in fact, a bottle of this remedy in the house is a mighty good investment during the winter and spring months.

Timothy Howard of Independence, Missouri, arrived Friday evening for a few days' visit with relatives.

"Wise Cracks."

No matter how efficient the elevator operator is, some one is always calling him down.

Two little worms were digging away. They were digging in dead earnest. Poor Ernest!

Aha! a new headache remedy. Push your head through a window and out goes the pane.

"My time has come," muttered the nervous freshman as he went to the mail box and pulled forth a watch.

Wonder if the fellow who said he laughed at short skirts because "beauty is the soul of wit," could appreciate a pair of knickers?

Chivalry compels me to offer a lady my seat in the car, but plauge-take-it, none of these bobbed-haired flappers gets my turn at the barber shop.

It takes twenty-one years for a mother to make a man of her boy U-h-h. And give some other woman five minutes and she'll make a baby out of him again.—The Manual-ite.

His Last Words.

A doctor had been called to see a man who was very ill. He examined him and said to the nurse:

"You must watch the case very closely through the night and tell me all the symptoms when I come back in the morning."

The man became worse in the night and talked a lot of nonsense in his fever. When the doctor returned in the morning he said to the nurse:

"Tell me exactly what happened after I left."

"You were hardly out of the room," she began, "when he said, 'When did that fool say he was coming back again?' Those were the last sensible words the patient spoke."—Ex.

Amateurish Efforts.

"We are going to have some movies tonight," said the warden. "What kind do you prefer—tragedy or comedy?"

"Show me one where a lot of movie dubs try to blow a safe like us yeggs," said the veteran cracksmen. "I never see that kind of film without nearly laughing my head off."—Ex.

Tired

"I was weak and run-down," relates Mrs. Eula Burnett, of Dalton, Ga. "I was thin and just felt tired, all the time. I didn't rest well. I wasn't ever hungry. I knew, by this, I needed a tonic, and as there is none better than—"

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"... I began using Cardui," continues Mrs. Burnett. "After my first bottle, I slept better and ate better. I took four bottles. Now I'm well, feel just fine, eat and sleep, my skin is clear and I have gained and sure feel that Cardui is the best tonic ever made."

Thousands of other women have found Cardui just as Mrs. Burnett did. It should help you.

Chronic Constipation.

There are people who never have a movement of the bowels without it is produced by a cathartic. Most of them have brought that condition on themselves by the use of mineral waters and strong cathartics that take too much water out of the system and aggravate the disease they are meant to relieve. A mild laxative tonic like Chamberlain's Tablets affords a gentle movement of the bowels that you hardly realize has been produced by a medicine, and their use is not so likely to be followed by constipation. Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Golladay announce the birth of a daughter, Mary Lillian, Tuesday, April 25, 1922.

Mrs. Reed McGregor and son, Donald, of Seattle, Washington, and Mrs. Reid Moreland of Cleveland, Ohio, are guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. McFadin.

Periodic Bilious Attacks.

Persons subject to periodic bilious attacks will observe that their appetite fails them just before an attack. That is, they do not really crave food but eat because it is meal time. If they will eat only a light meal and no meat, then take two of Chamberlain's Tablets the attack may be avoided. Adv.
