

OH! FOR STRENGTH!

WEAK NERVES, TIRED, EXHAUSTED BODIES.

THE COMPLAINT OF THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS.

HEALTH AND STRENGTH ARE WITHIN YOUR GRASP.

DR. GREENE'S NERVURA MAKES YOU STRONG AND WELL.

It is the Great Restorative of Brains and Nerves.

Oh, those nerves of ours, how they do bother us! Weak, tired and nervous is the complaint everywhere.

It is the nerves and brain exhaustion which makes the brain tired, and the arm nerveless, the limbs trembling, the muscles weak and the whole body without strength, energy or ambition.

Beware of such symptoms! A well known druggist, Charles W. Eggleston, Esq., 329 Park avenue, Worcester, Mass., suffered from nervous prostration and all its terrible symptoms.

"Some time ago I was taken with the worst nervous prostration I suffered terribly with my nerves and could get no sleep at all. I became fearfully exhausted, my stomach was in a terrible condition from dyspepsia, and I could eat hardly anything.

"I used several medicines but without benefit. Being in the drug business myself, and having had many customers speak in the highest terms of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, I determined to try it. After taking only one-half bottle I began to feel much better.

"I slept soundly at night, and my appetite was splendid. After taking three bottles I ate three square meals a day, and had not the slightest distress. My nerves were perfectly strong, and I felt like a new man, being completely cured of all my troubles.

"Out of the respect I bear the manufacturers of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and my desire to have the sick and suffering made well and strong, I heartily recommend it to people who are sick. I most certainly recommend it to people who are the same as I was—nervous and inclined toward dyspepsia and indigestion, and suffering from not being able to sleep well at night."

As this letter is from a dealer in medicine his word is authority on such matters. Everybody knows that Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is the great leading medicine of the age. Take it and you will be made strong, healthy and vigorous. Doctors recommend it because it is the prescription of a physician, and because they know it cures.

Dr. Greene, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, discovered it. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter, at his office, 35 West Fourteenth street, New York city.

BANQUET AND TOASTS.

Close of the Long-Bell Lumber Company's Annual Meeting.

The fourth annual meeting of the employees and agents of the Long-Bell Lumber Company closed last evening in the most pleasant manner with a banquet served the parties in attendance at the home of the general manager, Mr. R. A. Long, at 2514 Independence avenue.

The banquet was a most successful affair, and nothing was lacking that would have contributed to its success and pleasure. A tempting menu was served and the guests made merry until a late hour. Mr. Clarence J. Mansfield acted as toastmaster.

A programme was prepared with eight toasts and the most successful speaker of the evening was Mr. C. Fontaine. The toasts and the speakers were as follows:

"Our Annual Meeting and the Future of the 'Boys Along the Line.'" W. R. Cowley.

"You Auditors," T. H. Rogers.

"A New Country," W. F. Woods.

"Grades," W. F. Rider.

"The Travelling Man," Hal Stevens.

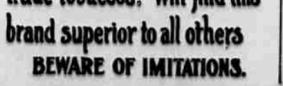

"Employer and Employee," Judge T. P. Anderson.

Wholesale Liquor Dealer Arrested. License Inspector Strickler swore out a warrant yesterday for the arrest of R. S. Brown, a wholesale liquor dealer of 202 Grand avenue, for not taking out a license according to the terms of the recent license ordinance. Brown is not a member of the association of wholesale liquor dealers, and is not included in the agreement between the license inspector and the dealers, to await the result of consultations with their attorneys.

Representatives of several of the national banks of the city advised the license inspector yesterday that they would pay the license of $50 for every $50,000 of capital stock up to $500,000. The national banks have not paid the license for some years. The total amount which can be collected from the nine national banks is but $1,350 per year.

PLANS FOR A WORKHOUSE.

The New Structure to Be of Stone, and Cells for a Large Number of Prisoners Will Be Provided.

Superintendent of Buildings Love and Inspector Hogg yesterday completed the plans for the construction of a new workhouse, as ordered by the council at a recent meeting. The plans call for a two-story stone structure two stories in height, except an extension in the rear for the men's cells. The building is to have a frontage of eighty-eight feet, and a total length of 167 feet. The men's cell room is to be thirty-five feet wide and 117 feet long, to contain thirty double cells, with a capacity of 120 men.

On the first floor of the two-story portion of the building are to be a commodious guard room, 20x23 feet; superintendent's office; a dining room, 20x40 feet; a staff dining room, 14x15 feet; a kitchen, 12x15 feet; and a laundry room, 12x22 1/2 feet.

The feature of the plans is the provision for classification of prisoners. On the second floor will be a boys' room, 20x23 feet with a single cell, where unruly boys will be put, but the other boys will not be locked up. The capacity of the boys' room will be twenty-five, but there are ready over a dozen, and often not over half that number in the workhouse.

On the first floor on the second floor is to be 25x40 feet, and to contain nine double cells, with a capacity of thirty-five. The total capacity of the new workhouse is 150 inmates. There have been as high as 100 inmates in the present workhouse, but the average is about sixty-five or seventy.

A provision has been made whereby the dining room may be used as a chapel. The structure will come within the instructions of the council, as to cost, $15,000.

STILL TAKING TESTIMONY.

Oswald McAllister, One of the Alleged Republican Judges, Gives Evidence in a Contest Case.

More testimony was taken yesterday in the election contest between the Third-McCurdy election contest, William F. Mink, a slender, whose home is at No. 1599 Tracy avenue, served as an alleged Republican judge in the Seventh precinct, Second ward. He was before Commissioner Evans in the Jamison-Tremermann contest, and an attempt was made to learn something from him concerning the manner in which the election was conducted in that precinct. But the attempt was a failure, for his memory was very hazy. He could remember a single fact that would be of service to Mr. Jamison.

Oswald McAllister, who is now employed in the circuit clerk's office, was another witness. Just prior to the election he was living at No. 621 Penn street, but in order to serve as an alleged Republican clerk in the Seventh precinct he moved to No. 507 Walnut street a few days before the election. A day or two after the election he moved back to Penn street. His memory concerning the doings of the judges and clerks in the Seventh precinct was also indistinct.

A dozen witnesses were examined yesterday in the Van Horn-Tarsney contest proceedings. The only evidence of importance was given by J. D. Pennington, who served as an alleged Republican judge in precinct 9 of the Ninth ward. Pennington could not remember that anything irregular was done, but under a strong fire of questions admitted that in a short time after the polls opened he had imbibed so freely that he was not in a condition to know whether crooked work was done or not.

DEAD IN A BOX CAR.

An Unknown Man Who Evidently Perished of Cold—Coroner Will Investigate.

An unknown man was found dead in an empty Santa Fe box car at the Santa Fe freight depot, near Twelfth street, about 8 o'clock yesterday morning. He was frozen and had evidently been dead quite a while. The box car had been standing on a side track for several days. Coroner Bedford thinks the man crept into it in searching for shelter, and was frozen to death.

There was nothing about the man's clothing to indicate his name, and his identity could be established only by the fact that the coroner thinks never contained a drug. The dead man's clothing was made of heavy material, and was found in the box car. The body was removed to Stewart, Carroll & Smith's undertaking place, where it was stated that no marks of violence were found on the body. Coroner Bedford will hold a post mortem examination to ascertain the exact cause of death to-day.

Alumni Society.

The Alumni Society yesterday afternoon entertained a number of guests at the club rooms, corner of Ninth and Locust streets. A musical program was rendered, after which punch and tea were served at tables daintily decorated with ferns and pink roses.

At the tables Mrs. M. K. Well presided as hostess, while Mrs. E. N. Long presided of the punch bowl. The rooms were beautifully decorated, one with ferns and red roses, and the other with ferns and pink roses. Miss Gertrude Concanon played an instrumental solo, "Soiree de Vienne," from Fr. Liszt, and Mrs. J. H. Harris sang a solo, "I Dreamed a Dream," and as an encore, "A Slumber Song." Miss Concanon then played "Fantasie Impromptu," from F. Chopin, and "Rondo," op. 14, from M. Mendelssohn. The following guests were present: Mrs. Laura E. Scammon, Mrs. E. R. Weeks, Mrs. Henry N. Ess, Mrs. Dr. Martha Dibble, Mrs. Dr. Nannie Stevens, Mrs. George L. Brinkman, Mrs. J. J. McCarty, Mrs. Julia Johnson, Mrs. E. N. Long, Mrs. M. K. Well, Mrs. J. H. Harris, Mrs. J. B. Morrison, Mrs. A. W. Calkins, Mrs. C. B. Hubler, Mrs. J. H. Harris, Mrs. Kate Fullerton, Mrs. J. H. Frost, Mrs. Mary Peishans, Mrs. Clara Brandage, Mrs. H. F. Ash, Miss Effie Beachmont, Miss Gertrude Concanon, Mrs. E. N. Long, Mrs. Dr. E. L. Ellison, Mrs. Dr. George C. Mosher, Mrs. Dr. Cathart, Mrs. W. H. Condit, Mrs. J. S. Clark, Mrs. A. D. Johnson, Mrs. Amadore Andrews, Mrs. Frank Hudson.

Held on the Boy's Testimony.

Louis McKee, who was arrested in the raid made by the police on a thieves' rendezvous in the rear of No. 92 1/2 East Twelfth street, was arraigned yesterday afternoon before Justice Whitrow on a charge of burglarizing L. Dantzig's store at No. 529 East Twelfth street. Ten-year-old Henry Carter, who is the boy who heard McKee and other men planning the robbery of Dantzig's store, on the strength of the simple, straightforward manner in which the boy gave his testimony the justice committed McKee to the county jail to await the action of the grand jury.

DRAWN FROM MUSTARD BOX

COUNTY COURT INDULGES IN THE USUAL GRAND JURY LOTTERY.

Judge Stone Objects to Two Names From Washington Township and They Are Left Out—The List Finally Completed.

The drawing of the grand jury for the March term of the criminal court took place at Independence yesterday. The selection by the court was attended by unusual scenes. Names presented by one of the county judges were strenuously objected to for the reason that other members of the court did not consider the selection suitable. Objection was made by Judge Stone to the selection of two names mentioned by Judge Latimer, and that official submitted gracefully and ordered the withdrawal of the names. Latimer retaliated and objected to certain names offered by Judge Stone.

The drawing of the grand jury was conducted with all the red tape prescribed by law. The jurors named are as follows: Kaw township, J. P. Richards, Henry Harper, J. Squares, George W. Lovejoy; Blue township, John Henry Parker; Sola-Bar township, E. C. Hall; Brookings township, Captain Henry Brookings; Prairie, Joseph Martin; Fort Osage, John W. Taylor; Westport, Thompson; Van Buren, Harry Cline; Washington, Morgan Boone.

The judges, with the exception of Judge Latimer, were not familiar with the law, and for this reason proceeded very carefully. The law prescribes that the selection of the grand jurors be made in proportion to the population. The names are placed in a box with a sliding lid, and the county clerk, while blindfolded, draws the names one at a time until the required number is secured. The box used for this purpose was missing and the court made a requisition for another. It was secured in the shape of a box labeled "Celebrated Mustard," and answered the purpose perfectly.

The drawing proceeded quietly until Washington township was reached. Judge Stone then offered objection to the two names suggested by Judge Latimer. "If the judge insists," said Stone, "I will place the names suggested in with the others to be drawn out, but the names named are not qualified to sit on the grand jury if drawn by this court." Judge Latimer stated that he was under the impression that the names suggested were proper, but after some hesitation reluctantly withdrew them. At times the court grew quite merry in selecting jurors who were placed in the box as prescribed by law. The box was turned over several times in order to mix the names, when Judge Stone and Latimer witnessed the juggling act of their colleague with some merriment, suggesting that he shake out a Republican, after the verdict of one or two exceptions, failed to do.

The court allowed several accounts and disapproved of others. One of the bills disapproved was from Circuit Clerk Stonestret. It was the account of Samuel Strode against the county for $25 for work performed in collecting court papers from the offices of lawyers in Kansas City. The court held that Mr. Stonestret had sufficient deputies for this work and passed the bill.

A communication from the advisory board on roads was also filed with the court, an outline of which has already been published in this journal. The court will be in session to-day for the purpose of hearing a road case.

MUST PAY THE POLICIES.

Insurance Companies Lose a Long Fought Case—Line of Defense.

After a long legal fight before a jury in Judge Glover's court, the insurance companies yesterday in the suit of H. J. Rosencranz against the Insurance Company of North America, The verdict was in favor of the plaintiff for the amount of the policy and interest, in all amounting to $2,241.19.

The policy was one assigned to the plaintiff by the defendant, who was assigned to the Kansas City and Southwestern Lumber Company. The policy was one of several on the big lumber mill which was burned at Fortia, Mo., last year. The defendant company contended the policy on the grounds that the mill had shut down or was not working as many men were unemployed, and the plaintiff showed that President Culver had been tendered the premium paid on the policy after the mill was burned and the jury found for the plaintiff.

The controversy engendered no little bitterness between the officers of the lumber company and the officers of the insurance company during the trial. Another similar case will go to trial to-day in the same court growing out of the same fire.

CRIMINAL COURT PROCEEDINGS.

When the case of the state against John A. Bartsch, charged with being accessory after the fact to the murder of Maximine Wright, was called for trial in the criminal court yesterday, Attorney Williams, who represents Bartsch, was absent and, on motion of the state, the case was continued to the next grand jury. Mr. Williams came in shortly after the action was taken and was somewhat indignant about the matter, contending that the defendant was ready to go to trial and that it was unjust to continue the case. Judge Wofford thereupon reconsidered his ruling and set the case for trial on February 7.

Tuesday night, the case of the state against Michael G. Earnest, who is charged with murder in the second degree, for kicking to death Joseph Funk, an old pensioner, was on the docket yesterday. A jury will be sworn to last night and the case will come up for trial this morning.

George Hurley was tried on the charge of grand larceny, but the jury declared him not guilty. George Wilson, charged with felonious wounding, entered a plea of guilty, and Judge Wofford gave him six months in the county jail, where he is now being held on a charge of disturbing the peace and was fined $1 and costs.

COURT NOTES.

General Shelby returned yesterday from a ten days' trip through the counties southeast of the city, where he was subpoenaing jurors for the coming term of the federal court and the trial of the Fraker case. He secured the requisite number of jurors and gave Mr. Keenan hand at the opening of court on February 11.

Ora Warren, charged with having passed or assisted in passing a $10 Confederate bill, was admitted to bail yesterday by Commissioner Peabody, to appear at the county court on the 14th inst. She is 16 years of age and lives at Fifth and Holmes with her parents. The evidence was that her small sister had passed the bill, but two witnesses swore that the prisoner had used the change that was secured in the deal.

Deputy United States Marshal Harry Adams reached the city yesterday morning from Centerville, Ia., with George A. Clark and Charles Golden, two prisoners charged with robbing the postoffice at Greensburg, Mo., a few weeks since. The men were arrested at Centerville on a trivial charge and held until the authorities were notified of some of them. They were arraigned before United States Commissioner Peabody and their preliminary hearing set

SPECIAL GRAND JURY.

It Will Begin Work on the Election Fraud Cases To-day.

The special grand jury which was summoned by order of Judge Wofford to consider the election fraud cases will meet to-day and will proceed to work at once before the jury takes anything else up. A communication from the prosecuting attorney and Special Prosecutor R. E. Hall will collect and present the evidence to the grand jury and the election cases will be disposed of before the jury takes anything else up. Judge Wofford has the naming of the foreman and he will, in all probability, name John W. Moore, who acted in a similar capacity for the last grand jury. The judge's charge, which will be delivered to-day, will undoubtedly be a very strong one, urging the jury to investigate fully every allegation of fraud in connection with the election and fasten the crime on the responsible parties if possible.

TRIED TO BREAK THE RECORD.

Abraham Goldstein, a 12-year-old boy, almost broke the local record for tilting Tuesday night. He stole $25 and a draft for a small amount from the till at the Woman's Exchange, tapped a till at the Eleventh street market for $12 and also stole a bookkeeper's purse at the same place, and then went to Smith's bakery, where he stole $5 from the cash drawer. Goldstein, who is scarcely larger than most boys of 7, was arrested and afterward taken before Justice Whitrow, who committed him to jail for fifteen days for stealing $5 from Smith's bakery. Other warrants will be sworn out and an attempt will be made to have the boy sent to the reform school.
