HOLMES WANTS A NEW TRIAL. Sets Forth a Long List of Reasons Why It Should Be Granted—To Be Argued Next Monday.

Philadelphia, Nov. 12.—H. H. Holmes, the alleged multi-murderer, who was recently convicted of the murder of B. F. Pictel, to-day, through his counsel, filed reasons for a new trial. The grounds laid, which will be argued next Monday, are that the verdict was against the law and evidence; that new matter has been discovered since the trial; that the district attorney in his opening speech made statements which related to other crimes which could not be part of the evidence; that the jury was of such a terrible nature that their effect on the jury was so adverse to the defendant that it was impossible for them to decide purely upon the evidence in this case; that the district attorney in his closing speech mentioned the death of the children and the finding of their dead bodies in the morgue; that the court erred in allowing Mrs. Pictel to testify or state what her husband had told her; in not allowing Mrs. Pictel to testify of her own knowledge, in the doing and troubles of her husband in Terre Haute, Ind.; in allowing the testimony of Mrs. Pictel relating to a bottle of nitro-glycerine; in ruling that the defendant's wife was a competent witness; allowing evidence of the whereabouts of the children and finding their bodies in Toronto; in permitting jurors to enter the box upon their statement they had formed a verdict; in not allowing Mrs. Pictel to testify of her own knowledge; in charging the jury by giving undue prominence to the evidence against the defendant; in not allowing sufficient prominence to the evidence favorable to the prisoner.

A DUEL AT FORT LEE. Two Well Known New York Men Settle a Difference Accused to the "Cotone" — Both Wounded.

New York, Nov. 12.—The Journal this morning says that Warren Rathcliff McVeigh and Paul Tupper Wilson fought a duel with revolvers at short distance at the Palisades at Fort Lee. They were seconded by Robert Rathcliff Owens and Frank Butler. Both men were wounded slightly.

The four men engaged in the affair of honor are well known locally, while three of them enjoy reputations that might be almost called national. McVeigh is a newspaper man, a writer of short stories and a leading member of the Southern Society. Wilson is famous throughout the West as the slayer of George Shepard, one of the leaders of the I. O. O. F. and his second-in-command, a son of the late Colonel George Butler, United States consul to Egypt under President Grant. Owens is a prominent attorney, and Butler is a well known politician.

The Journal says that the wounds received by the two contestants were not serious. The firing of all the cartridges and not the actual killing of either man, was the result of the duel according to arrangements made at the start.

Under his pillow was found an insurance policy for $300 in his own favor and a deed of trust executed in property of John A. Louis. Several letters were found in the trunk from various persons, some addressed to William Kuntz, St. Louis and Port Worth, several others to Mrs. Caroline Kuntz, Louisville and New York.

Over $1,000 in $100 bills was found upon the man's person, two watches and a pair of cuff buttons. The man's name is Kuntz, and it appears that Kuntz had been a stationary engineer in St. Louis, and was in charge of some railroad works in Missouri. He was married and had a family. He was a member of the Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F. and was a member of the Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F. and was a member of the Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F.

TILLOTSON WANTS DAMAGES. Ex-City Attorney of Topeka Sues M. G. Manley, of Lawrence, for $5,000.

Lawrence, Kas., Nov. 12.—(Special.) D. C. Tillotson, formerly city attorney of Topeka, has brought suit in the district court of Douglas county against M. G. Manley, a well known citizen of this city, for damages to the amount of $5,000. He claims he was damaged to this extent by reason of an arrest caused by Manley charging Manley with criminal negligence in the out of a suit tried in Lawrence, in which the city of Topeka was defendant, and in which Mr. Manley acted as a juror. Mr. Tillotson made statements reflecting on and against Manley, and Tillotson arrested him for this arrest that Mr. Tillotson now wants damages.

A MORAL MONSTROSITY. Murderer of Eddie Histon Does Not Realize the enormity of His Crime—Has No Remorse.

Topeka, Kas., Nov. 12.—(Special.) County Attorney Stafford has been to Lansing, where he interviewed David Coulter, who he is being kept in the penitentiary for fear a Topeka crowd would lynch him. Coulter is the man who shot and killed the Histon boy to obtain a team of cheap horses about a month ago.

Mr. Stafford says Coulter is a moral monstrosity, who would shoot a man just to see if a bullet would go through his head. He has no regret for his crime, and does not seem to be able to realize that he has done anything out of the ordinary.

ADDRESS THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR CONVENTION AT WASHINGTON.

PLAN FOR A BANK NOTE BOYCOTT SAYS LABOR IS BETWEEN THE DEVIL AND THE DEEP SEA.

Conflict Between Working People and Holders of Idle Wealth Inevitable—General Foreman Hurling Spears in the Same Strain—Work of the Convention Yesterday.

Washington, Nov. 12.—The matters of chief public interest in the meeting of the Knights of Labor to-day were the address of General Foreman, Secretary of the organization, and the report of the committee on the proposed bank note boycott.

The address of General Foreman was a stirring appeal to the workers to stand by their principles and to resist the advances of the employers.

The report of the committee on the proposed bank note boycott was a detailed statement of the plan and the reasons for it.

The plan is to refuse to accept or use any bank notes issued by the government, and to demand that the government should issue its own currency.

The committee claims that this plan will force the government to issue its own currency, and will thus give the workers a voice in the government.

The committee also claims that this plan will force the government to issue its own currency, and will thus give the workers a voice in the government.

WANTS THEM ALL HANGED.

A Boston Clergyman Urges Governor Merrill to Execute the Three Who Were Hanged Before Judge Ripley, Yesterday, with a View to Having Him Retained.

Topsham, Kas., Nov. 12.—(Special.) Since the publication of the report made by Judge Vanhook and the citizens of Leavenworth county of the hanging of Mayor Blaney, his partner, and another man, before Judge Ripley, yesterday, with a view to having him retained, a Boston clergyman, who writes as follows:

No. 23 Bowdoin Street, Boston, Mass., November 2, 1895.

Dear Governor—Many times and pray very often and with a heavy heart, I have thought of the three men who were hanged before Judge Ripley, yesterday, with a view to having him retained.

It is a sad and a terrible thing that three men should be hanged before a judge who is so well known for his fairness and impartiality.

It is a sad and a terrible thing that three men should be hanged before a judge who is so well known for his fairness and impartiality.

A Great Shoe Sale Begins here to-morrow, when 200 pairs of Misses', Children's and Infants' Shoes

Will be offered at a discount of 25, 33 and 50 per cent from regular prices.

For instance: Misses' regular $2.50 shoes will be sold for $1.48; child's regular $1.50 shoes will be sold for 98c, and regular $1.25 kinds for 89c; infants' regular $1 shoes will go at 65c.

These shoes just landed in our house a few days ago and are absolutely new.

There is a regular assortment of sizes, so you may have no fear of being unable to get the correct size for your child.

A certain manufacturer of the East had these shoes thrown back on his hands by merchants unable to pay cash for them.

Rather than take time selling them by sample, he closed the entire lot out to us at 25 per cent below his regular prices.

These shoes go on sale to-morrow morning bright and early—and if your child needs a new pair of shoes there'll not be a better time to get them than when this exceptional sale is in progress.

Misses', Children's and Infants' Shoes At 25 per cent, 33 per cent and 50 per cent off.

NEW MORMON COLLEGE. The Latter Day Saints' Land, the Cornerstone of Their Kingdom, is Instituted to-day.

Lamoni, Ia., Nov. 12.—The Latter Day Saints held the cornerstone of their college to-day. Bishop E. L. Kelley was master of ceremonies. Elder Joseph Smith made a comprehensive address setting forth the object of the institution, and declaring it to be for general educational purposes, and not a sectarian institution in character. He was followed by J. H. Campbell, of the Iowa legislature, and other prominent speakers. The college is a beautiful structure, located on a slightly elevated site.

He is a Populist, Even Though John W. Breckinridge Doesn't Know Him.

Topeka, Kas., Nov. 12.—(Special.) Last Friday when Governor Merrill appointed William J. Dugan, former of Wellington, as master of ceremonies, and after a review of the Hutchinson reformatory, the Populists at the state house, including chairman D. E. Crotwell and Secretary Temple of the state central committee, set up a great clamor about the appointment, claiming that they had never heard of him, did not believe he was a Populist, and that he was not a member of both houses of the Kansas legislature.
