LOCAL BRIEFS.

The programme of the Lexington Fair, can be seen at this office.

For a barrel of SALT go to WARINNER & CO.

Prof. Tompkins is fixing his fine mare and colt to show at the Lexington Fair, which commences Sept. 13.

Several persons went from this place to Sweet Springs last Sunday, to see the parade of St. Louis police reserves.

Our friend, John Brown, called to see us on Thursday last, and asked us to say to the people that he will burn here every week, and can furnish them with good line on the shortest notice.

Uncle Ben Hagan, brought us in another watermelon this week, and the folks in the office are willing to swear that he is the cleverest man in the county.

There was a very large crowd in town on Monday, to attend the preliminary examination of Dr. Keyes, and great interest was manifested to hear the evidence in the case.

The Hughes store house opposite this office can be made the best in town by fitting it up in modern style.

A protracted meeting is being held at Kincaid's Grove, near Knoxville, by Rev. Mr. Moffett of Millville.

We need a town ordinance to restrain dogs from running at large. Such an ordinance has been introduced.

The work on Mr. Menefee's new building, near the west of this office, was commenced this week.

Our young friend, Jas. W. Garner, was called to Lexington last week, to defend a man charged with some offense by the City Government.

Mr. James Forbes, of this city, and Mr. Ed. Forbes, his brother, of Millville, called to see us on Tuesday last.

Our young friend, Allen Hughes, made a flying trip to Bismark Grove, in Kansas, last week, but so far he has not reported to us the wonders he saw up there.

Messrs. John Milstead, from near Knoxville, and H. C. Miller, from near Polo, called on Monday to make themselves square on the books of the Democrat.

Mr. J. J. Garter, one of the proprietors of the well known "Millville Milk," called to see us on Monday.

Dr. Holt, a disciple of Esculapian, has the thanks of this office for a fine watermelon, may he live a thousand years and his sweet heart never go back on him.

Dr. H. King, wife and daughter, have gone up to the Sulphur Springs, near Millville, where they are camping out. These springs have valuable medicinal qualities.

Messrs. Cora Holt and Fannie Huffaker, two of Richmond's fairest, and sweetest girls, went out to Morton one day last week.

Mr. James Talt, from Tallville, gave this office a pleasant call on Monday. He is the leading spirit of that section and proposes to hand you out dry goods or wrap you up in groceries as cheap as you can get them in Ray county.

Mr. John S. Flournoy, the efficient Assessor of Ray county, gave us a pleasant call yesterday. He has hard work with his duties, making his regular annual assessment. He says he is meeting with no trouble so far, but is getting on nicely.

Mr. R. C. Craven, of the firm of Graham & Craven, at Millville, dropped into this office on Monday last. This firm carries a good stock of goods of all kinds that are usually found in a general store, and keep pace with the times as far as low prices are concerned.

Messrs. R. L. Jacobs, Leo J. Barr and Wm. Marshall, Jr., young men of this place, left on Sunday last, in a wagon, for a few weeks' recreation, driving around over the broad prairies of our sister State, of Kansas. We wish the boys a pleasant trip.

Prof. J. M. Long and lady, both of whom are employed as teachers in our College, arrived on Friday last. The Professor is a pleasant gentleman of the old Kentucky stock, and we feel sure that he will be liked by our people.

Our friend, Mr. Leonidas Daval, from near Millville, called to see us Friday. He is one of the substantial men of Ray, and a firm friend of the Democrat.

Mr. J. W. Bowen, the polite and accommodating deputy postmaster, at this place, was called away from home last week, to the death bed of a brother-in-law in Caldwell county. He is now back at his post of duty.

Mr. Ira Peters and wife, and Misses Bodie Price and Annie Wilson, all of Orrick, have just returned from a visit to Sweet Springs, where they have been spending a short time inhaling the health giving waters of that place.

Miss Bodie Mouton, one of Lexington's fairest, most brilliant and accomplished daughters, spent a few days in our city last week, the guest of Miss Maudie Hubbell. During her sojourn here she made hosts of friends, and completely "smoked up" the heart of a young disciple of Blackzique.

Personal.

Mr. Warren Young, from near Millville, was in the city on Monday.

Mr. G. M. Austin, from the bottom above Camden, gave us a call Tuesday.

Mr. S. L. Day, merchant at Vibbard, gave us a pleasant call yesterday.

Dr. Charles, of Millville, was in town this morning.

Mr. Wm. Casey, a young lawyer from Jainesport, Mo., is in town.

Misses Nellie and Birdie Allen, daughters of Capt. Riban Allen, of Lexington, are in the city, visiting friends.

Col. Kavanagh, from near Millville, dropped in Monday to view our new sanatorium. Call again Colonel.

Mr. J. E. Shotwell and family, of Lafayette county, spent last Sunday in this city, visiting relatives.

Mr. Wm. Artman, Sen., from near Orrick, dropped in Tuesday, and called on the Democrat.

"Squire Evans, from Camden, let the sunlight of his countenance shine on our new sanatorium last Tuesday.

Mr. Geo. P. Long, from the east part of the county, near the Carroll line, called in to see us on Monday last.

Mr. John Ross, druggist from Timney's Grove, dropped in Tuesday last to see our new office.

Sheriff Winfrey, of Carroll county, spent last Monday in the city of Richmond.

Mr. A. B. Elliott, an enterprising farmer, from near Camden, called on Thursday last to leave a substantial token for the Democrat.

Col. J. W. Black and Col. A. J. Barr, went out to Bismark Grove on Wednesday, to take in the Murphy Temperance Camp Meeting.

Rev. W. H. Lewis, the popular preacher of the Methodist Church, at this place, preached in Carrollton last Sunday.

Our young friend, Mr. John T. Hamblin, from the neighborhood of Crab Orchard, was in the city on Tuesday last.

Messrs. Shotwell & Ball, prominent attorneys of this place, went to Lexington yesterday to look after some legal business.

Mrs. Capt. Farris and daughter, and J. L. Farris, Jr., left on Monday morning last for a visit to relations in Woodson county, Kansas.

Mr. John R. Christian, a leading lawyer of Randolph county, was in the city on Sunday last, visiting the family of the editor of the Democrat.

Mr. A. J. Davis, from near Morton, called on Monday to pay for another year. We found him a pleasant gentleman.

Our young friend, Jas. W. Garner, was called to Lexington last week, to defend a man charged with some offense by the City Government.

Mr. James Forbes, of this city, and Mr. Ed. Forbes, his brother, of Millville, called to see us on Tuesday last.

Our young friend, Allen Hughes, made a flying trip to Bismark Grove, in Kansas, last week, but so far he has not reported to us the wonders he saw up there.

Messrs. John Milstead, from near Knoxville, and H. C. Miller, from near Polo, called on Monday to make themselves square on the books of the Democrat.

Mr. J. J. Garter, one of the proprietors of the well known "Millville Milk," called to see us on Monday.

Dr. Holt, a disciple of Esculapian, has the thanks of this office for a fine watermelon, may he live a thousand years and his sweet heart never go back on him.

Dr. H. King, wife and daughter, have gone up to the Sulphur Springs, near Millville, where they are camping out. These springs have valuable medicinal qualities.

Personal Mention.

Dr. J. D. Taylor and Mr. Ralph Esteb, both of this city, left this morning for a visit of a few days to Sweet Springs. We wish them a pleasant sojourn at that famous watering place.

Mr. Thos. Holt, of the firm of Holt & Hughes, left for the east on Monday last, to buy a mammoth stock of goods, which will be opened out in a short time, in the new store room under this office. Don't fail to come in and see their stock when it comes.

Capt. J. B. Jones, a leading farmer from southwest of town, called to see us last week. He is going to move his family to Lexington, with a view of educating his children, but we are glad to learn that he is going to continue his farming business in this county. We can't well afford to lose such men.

Elder G. A. Hoffman, a very able minister of the Christian Church, preached two excellent discourses at this place, last Sunday. He was on his way from Paris, Mo., to Helena, Montana, to take charge of the Christian Church, at that point. He is a brother of Mrs. Gus Siedermeier of this place.

Mr. G. W. Trigg and lady; Col. J. T. Child and lady; Capt. John F. Quisenberry; Capt. John C. Brown and son; Mr. John W. Spurlock, and Mr. James A. Davis, went up to the Bismark camp meeting last Tuesday. They returned Wednesday thoroughly satisfied that it should be called a Temperance meeting.

We received a very pleasant call yesterday, from Maj. J. P. Norvilly, who has lately moved to this vicinity, from Kingsville, Johnson county, Mo. The Major was a candidate for Door Keeper of the House last winter, and was only beaten by Mr. Moore a few votes. He has leased the farm of Mrs. Smith, a few miles northeast of town, and will make Ray county his permanent home. He is quite an intelligent and entertaining gentleman, having many original ideas of his own.

Car Load of Salt just received at WARINNER & CO.

Sale of Stock, &c.—Attention is called to the sale of valuable stock advertised in this issue, belonging to the estate of William Hatfield, deceased, near Tullville. Among the stock is a lot of 16, three years old steers, and some two years old steers, all valuable property. The sale is being made by Mrs. Hatfield as administratrix of her husband's estate, without reserve, and stock men should not lose the opportunity to be present, as they might miss some bargains.

Strayed.—From my place 3 miles east of Richmond, about 6 weeks ago, a light brown horse, heavy mane and tail, about 15 hands high, 12 years old, and string halt—also a bay Mule, over 14 hands high, 12 years old, with saddle marks. A reward of $10 will be paid to any person returning them to me. PHAECIS RYSINGER.

New Wagon Factory. Messrs. R. D. Ashbury and W. P. Strader have completed their new shop, and are ready to do all kinds of Wood Work and Blacksmithing at prices never before offered in Richmond. All work done on short notice, and satisfaction guaranteed. Give them a trial and satisfy yourself.

A fine lot of Fancy Candles of all kinds, just received at WARINNER & CO.

Kansas City Fair. The Kansas City Exposition and Fair commences this year on the 22nd day of September and continues for a week. This Fair is too well known all over the west to need any word of commendation from us, suffice it to say that arrangements are complete to make this the best Fair ever held at that place, and there is not a doubt but that the show of stock will be all that could be desired, and the show of produce the best ever seen in the world, for the lands in the west have no equal on the face of the globe for producing large crops. Mr. D. O. Hall, the Secretary, will please accept our thanks for a complimentary ticket.

PRELIMINARY TRIAL OF DR. KEYES. Committed to Jail, Without Bail, to Await the Action of the Grand Jury.

The preliminary examination of Dr. Keyes, for the shooting of Dr. Roberts, at Millville, a few weeks since, was commenced on Monday last, at this place, before Esquire G. M. Beckley and M. G. Dale; Prosecuting Attorney Jas. W. Garner, and Capt. J. L. Farris appearing for the prosecution; and Messrs C. T. Garner, Sr., C. J. Hughes, Jr., and T. N. Lovelock for the defence.

The first and only witness examined, by Mr. R. C. Craven, of Millville, who in fact was the only witness to the shooting, Mr. Craven's testimony in regard to the shooting, was about as we stated a few weeks since. He also testified as to matters that occurred before the shooting, but as a jury will have to be sworn in Ray county to try the defendant, we will not give a synopsis, even of the testimony, for fear that some at least might thereby be disqualified from serving on the jury.

The examination of Mr. Craven occupied all of two days, but most of the time was taken up in forensic efforts of the attorneys to gain some little points of supposed advantage. The attorneys for the defence evidently went into this examination for the purpose of finding what was in the prosecution, as they could expect to gain no other point by the cross-examination.

The Justice, after hearing the evidence and listening to the able arguments of the counsel on both sides, committed the prisoner to jail to await the action of the Grand Jury—their decision being that it was not a capital case.

SENATORIAL ACCIDENT.—Mr. William McVey, a brother of J. C. McVey, the merchant at Vibbard, was killed, near that place, by a horse on Sunday last, in the bowels, and so seriously hurt that his life is despaired of. We hope that he is not as badly hurt as is supposed.

Master Dick Wariner captured a Blue Heron in the bottom near town, last Monday. Dick broke his wing with a shotgun, and secured quite a pet.

GAMBLING.—In the notice of the Orrick picnic, set for next Thursday, the managers say that no gambling will be allowed on the grounds.

"Shadows."

We owe our young friends that assisted in the entertainment, at the Court House, in this place, week before last, an apology for not making the play, at the Court House, performed by our amateur actors in our last issue.

The matter was overlooked in the hurry of rushing events. We promise now that we will do better in the future. In the play Mr. L. J. Barr acted a prominent part, with much credit, and Mr. J. T. Bandler went at the work like a professional; Mr. F. G. Butcher acted the Bar-Keeper to perfection, setting out his clothes in Irish "Willys" with a simplicity of manner, not often attained without long practice. Messrs E. S. Garner, C. B. Hughes, W. W. Spear, Walter Wainwright and W. T. Buchanan, all did well, in fact Messrs Spear and Garner deserve especial notice. Misses Mattie Hughes and Deb Morehead acted their parts almost to perfection, in fact Miss Deb seemed especially adapted to the part chosen by her in the play.

Misses Liza Barr, Mattie Hughes and Mamie Sayre, all deserve favorable mention. The two professional gentlemen, in our judgment, did not act their parts as well as the amateurs. After saying this much, it would probably be well to remark that the play is a new one, entitled "Shadows" or "The Heirs and Homes of To-Day." It was written for a Temperance play, and while the insurance fever was up, it was supposed that it would take well here, but the receipts did not come up to the general expectation. We would advise our young friends in the future, to present plays that can have a local, patriotic, and religious interest, and probably their receipts will be better as their presentation certainly deserves a liberal patronage.

Judge Dinn holds court at Liberty next week.

MARBLE WORKS.—Mr. E. W. Kemper, the proprietor of the Kemper Marble Works, in this place, left home on Thursday last for Jackson county, where he has a contract for putting up three Monuments, some Tablets and Slabs, with other work. He also has the contract for the erection of the "Devil Monument" in this place, which he will put up next month. Mr. Kemper turns out good, honest work, gotten up in the very best style, and should have the patronage of this section. There is no one sending off to other points for work that can be as well done at home, and it should be the pride of every citizen to build up and cherish home institutions. When you need marble work, give Mr. Kemper a call.

BIG PICNIC AT ORRICK. Glorious Time Anticipated.—You Must Go.—August 28th, '79.

An old fashioned basket picnic will be held in W. A. Wells pasture, one mile west of Orrick, Mo., on Thursday Aug. 28th, 1879. An invitation is extended to all persons in the county to be present with well filled baskets.

This will be one of the most successful picnics of the season. It will be instructive as well as entertaining, from the fact that some of the speakers who have consented to be present are men of fine talent and great oratorical powers. Among those who are expected to address the people are as follows: Hon. G. W. Dunn, Joseph E. Black, Esq., Col. J. T. Child and Capt. Farris, of Richmond; Charles M. Nye, of St. Louis, son of the late Senator Nye, of Nevada, will also be present and address the people during the afternoon exercises. The committee who are entrusted with the arrangements for the occasion, are men of experience, and who will spare no time and means that all may enjoy themselves. The grounds will be supplied with croquet sets, swings, lomatole and confectionery stands.

NO GAMBLING AT ORRICK. Ballroom assemblage by M. L. Guellich, of Orrick. No one should fail to witness this grand ballroom assemblage. A man will accompany it in its aerial voyage, performing upon the trapeze. This ballroom has been constructed with great care and expense, and will excel anything of the kind ever attempted upon similar occasions.

A WAGON ABOUT HIS MUSE. The committee has procured some of the best talent in the county. Mr. J. G. Hearn has kindly consented to the use of his fine Cabinet Organ, and at least 50 or 60 voices will accompany it under the management of M. L. Guellich, Miss Jennie Dolice, of Orrick, presiding at the organ. The choir will render some sweet music during the exercises. It is now under training, and will be a success.

The exercises will commence at 9 o'clock A. M., sharp. Do not fail to come—bringing with you well filled baskets.

R. H. McWHORTER, Chairman. M. L. GUELICH, Secretary. R. A. MILLER, M. H. LITTLE, ROBT. BIRKPATRICK, Com. J. H. HANKINS, G. O. DALE, J. G. HEARN.
