

TIME TABLE NO. 10.

Now in Effect.

ROUND EAST.

No. 35, Passenger, leaves 6:30 a. m.

No. 34, Passenger, arrives 7:25 p. m.

No. 35, Passenger, leaves 7:25 a. m.

No. 34, Passenger, arrives 8:10 p. m.

Close connection is made at Lexington between all trains to and from St. Louis and Kansas City.

J. A. Dwyer, Agent.

Our Agent.

Mr. A. C. Kluedel has agreed to act as our agent for the Democrat, at Mill-ville, and in that vicinity. Any person desiring to get the paper will be accommodated by seeing him.

You always find Lemons and Oranges at WARINER & CO.

Catswold Bucks at Auction.

I will offer to the highest bidder on Saturday, October 19th, 1879, in front of McCullin & Quirk's Livery Stable, in Richmond, 25 likely young Catswold Bucks, lambs and yearling all bred by an Imported Buck.

7-41-29. THOS. H. REID.

Our Band.

"Didn't we tell you so?" When the St. Joseph Gazette was bragging about the fine bands at that place, and said something about the Richmond Band being made up of amateurs, we told that paper, that the Richmond band was just made of the kind of amateurs that could knock the socks off any band in St. Joseph, and sure enough, last week the Richmond boys, went up the St. Joseph Exposition and raked in the prize money offered for the best band, beating the St. Joseph boys neatly. Hurrah!

for the Richmond Band.

There is nothing more harrowing to the sympathetic mind than to hear a crying baby. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup will give instant relief to the little sufferer. For sale at all drug stores.

CATTLE SALE.—

Major Williams, of this vicinity, sold on Monday last to Mr. W.

H. Watkins, of the Junction, 45 head of steers for feeding, at 3 cents per pound.

They averaged a little over 1,000 pounds.

The St. Joseph Gazette says a pocket book containing $500 and some valuable papers, was found on the Exposition grounds last Saturday, that on investigation, was found to belong to a gentleman from Richmond, and that the gentleman was hunted up and the money and papers restored to him. This was truly a lucky turn of affairs for the Richmond gentleman. We learn that the name of the gentleman referred to is Jos. E. Black, Jr.

For the best Bargains in Groceries, go to FARRIS & SON'S Store. 13-14

At Cost.—Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. L. Megede in this issue. He has a large stock of Jewelry on which he wishes to sell at cost for sixty days. Now is your chance to get

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Whoo? Hurrah!! The Circus is coming.

Capt. John P. Quisenberry is improving his residence on main street.

The noblest wash stand sets can be found at WARINER & CO.

The committee of 21 were in session on Monday last, but were not officially notified of their proceedings.

If you want a nice wedding card printed, give us a chance to let you see what we can do.

Coal business must be a great deal better at this place, from the number of coal cars we see passing west loaded.

Prunes and Dried Currants at WAR-

INER & CO.

Wariner had some of the finest apples the first of the week we have seen this year.

For Number One Flour go to

FARRIS & SON.

Mr. B. Wriginton is building an addition to the rear of his house, in the east part of town.

Big stock of Queensware and Glassware—Just received at WARINER &

CO.

We don't get Irish potatoes for 25 cents a bushel anymore. The crop is not turning out as well as was expected, and they are getting higher.

Dry Boneless Cod Fish at WARIN-

ER & CO.

Don't you forget it, that Gus. Nid-emeyer keeps the best cigars and tobacco in town. Give his tobacco a trial.

Farris & Son have something new for you to read in this issue. They are bound to sell groceries at low prices will sell them.

The very best Coffee and Sugar at

WARINER & CO.

Our friend, "Squire G. M. Buckley and son, are now running the City Delivery and Express business in Richmond, and will attempt promptly to fill orders in their line.

Our hand boys speak in the highest terms of praise of the treatment that they received from the St. Joe people during their recent sojourn in this city.

Mr. Geo. N. McGee, the popular merchant of this city, tried serving as Mail Agent, on the branch road, a couple of days last week, but resigned the first opportunity. It is too much like work for him.

Every eastern bound train on the St.

Louis, K. C. & N. R. R., this week so far, has carried from 8 to 12 car loads of people to the St. Louis Fair. It is estimated that 2000 strangers have visited St. Louis this week.

Conductor Sanderson took down over the branch road from St. Joseph, about 150 passengers for the St. Louis fair, on Monday night, and about 40 on Tuesday night. On Monday night standing room was at a premium in the coaches.

At WARINER & CO., can be found the best Old Virginia in the city.

The long winter evenings are approaching, and our people should or-

Personal.

Mr. James Watkins, of Dalton, has lately been visiting in Richmond.

Gen. A. W. Doniphan is in Kentucky visiting his only sister.

Mr. T. R. Gani, was in to see us during our absence, on Tuesday last.

Esquire T. H. Groves, of Hardin, gave us a substantial call last Friday.

Mr. Jas. H. Morgan dropped in on Saturday and made himself solid with the Democrat.

Mr. C. M. Nye, the Secretary of the Temperance Alliance of Missouri, spent last Sunday in the city.

Messrs. John Mosby and Lewis

Mogele are taking in the fair in St.

Louis this week.

Mr. J. C. McIver, of the firm of Bay

& McIver, at Vibbard, dropped in to see us yesterday. He says trade is fair with them, and gradually looking up.

Miss Carrie Davis, has returned from her visit to Miss Fannie Hayles, of Lexington, looking a perfect picture of health and good humor.

Dr. S. B. Limerick, of Kansas City, spent last Sunday, visiting his father's family.

Mr. G. H. Stewart, agent for Deak's tree protector, has returned from an extended trip, and is now with his family.

Elder W. C. Garrett, dropped in yesterday to read proof of the minutes we are printing for the New Garden Baptist Association.

Miss Sallie Creed has gone down to Salisbury on a visit to relations. She also proposes to visit the Keytesville fair this week.

Moberly Monitor: Mrs. T. D. Bogie, of Richmond, Mo., has been in the city for several days attending the fair and visiting old friends in Randolph county.

Judge Dunn got home from Platte

City on Sunday, after holding court three weeks there, and is taking a rest this week.

Mr. J. Z. Leabo, from near Knoxville, dropped in yesterday. He brought a load of very fine apples to town. He says his winter apples will be about a half crop.

Mr. Thos. H. Reid, from the vicinity of Hardin, dropped in to see us last Saturday. He has some pure Blood Catswold Sheep for sale. You will find them advertised in this issue.

Mr. David Glenn, the active and able merchant of Polo, Caldwell county, was in town Saturday. He has lots of new goods this fall, and is keeping them lively about him.

Mr. Matthew Scadron, a personal friend of ours, from Randolph county, has secured a job with Mr. E. W.

Keuper, of this place, in his marble works.

Mr. Warren W. Ewing, of the firm of Fowler & Ewing, left last Sunday night for St. Louis to take in the fair and buy some new goods for the increasing trade of this fair.

Mr. E. S. Gosney, a promising young attorney of this city, left for St. Louis on Monday night last to attend law

Sells Bro's Great Railroad Amusement

Exposition.

The immense, popular and sensational conducted Great European Elephant Railroad Menagerie and Circus is widely announced to give afternoon and evening exhibitions at Richmond, on Thursday, October 16.

Its extraordinary attractions are so well known in the advertisement, that we need not detail them locally, but as a further confirmation of the entire truthfulness of the advertisements, and the high status of the Menagerie, we will state that the Menagerie, with the patronage of all classes, we call attention to the following exhibitions, given by the Menagerie in various sections, among hundreds of other equally complimentary and convincing, and such as no other similar exhibition can produce:

The shortest race ever run, for ten miles a big show—Bloomington (Ind.) Courier.

They do all and much more than they advertise: preserve perfect order, keep their entertainment free from every thing offensive to the public, and aim to instruct as well as to amuse.

Their present venture exceeds in both size, novelty and expense anything of the kind heretofore attempted, and includes among other noticeable features: 7 elephants, the largest number ever exhibited by any one menagerie.—Cincinnati Daily Inquirer.

The performance in the arena could not be better.—East Saginaw (Mich.) Daily Republic.

The menagerie presents every rare and valuable exhibition.—Cleveland (O.) Daily Herald.

The menagerie contains the greatest double-horned Rhinoceros that attempted a duel with the locomotive at Pittsburgh.—Cleveland (O.)

Daily Leader.

The exhibitions under the pavilion were held above the usual standard, and in perfect keeping with the great street parade.—Frankfort (Ky.) Ironsfounder.

The great display was really one of the best that ever appeared in America, and carried out in every particular what the bills promised.—Des Moines (Iowa) Daily Republic.

The menagerie has introduced in the ring with their elephants, are a decided novelty, and their entering specially for more popular excitement.—Fittsburgh Daily Post.

Nature, as though to evidence her satisfaction with the efforts of the Menagerie, sets to present the most wonderful living space wholly new, a baby Monkey, and a litter of babies, which, in connection with the menagerie, form a most interesting and valuable exhibition.—Frankfort (Ky.) Irons-founder.

The genuine Worcestershire Sauce and French Mustard for family use at

WARINER & CO.

WANTED.—250,000 bushels of wheat, and 250,000 bushels of