

Rice & Sons

Groceries and Hardware. Keep constantly on hand a large and well-selected stock of these goods and they can offer bargains in that line that cannot be obtained anywhere in Ray county.

GLOBE RESTAURANT.

FRESH OYSTERS. FRESH BREAD. First-Class in all its Departments. Good Meals on the Shortest Notice.

John P. Quesenberry,

Hardware Groceries. Sugars and Coffees. This is a new man, with a complete New Stock, bought at the lowest prices for cash, and will not be undersold.

John P. Quesenberry,

An East Camden Firm OFFERS GREAT INDUCEMENTS! J.R. Akers & Son to the Front!

A New Grocery Store

C. W. KEEL, Family Grocer. COME ONE, COME ALL. This is a new man, with a complete New Stock, bought at the lowest prices for cash, and will not be undersold.

C. W. KEEL, Family Grocer,

COME ONE, COME ALL. This is a new man, with a complete New Stock, bought at the lowest prices for cash, and will not be undersold.

A New Grocery Store

C. W. KEEL, Family Grocer. COME ONE, COME ALL. This is a new man, with a complete New Stock, bought at the lowest prices for cash, and will not be undersold.

HAMACHER'S Roller Mills

Headquarters for Fine Flour. Manufacture and Keep a Superior Article of FLOUR and MEAL.

FLOUR and MEAL

CASH OR EXCHANGE. For Wheat or Corn. They have added the Celebrated New Roller Process of making Flour to their Mill, and can do better work than ever before.

MISCELLANEOUS CARDS

DR. R. B. KICE, RESIDENT DENTIST. RICHMOND, MO. Office first door north of Darnall's Store.

C. T. GARNER & SONS, ATTORNEYS AT LAW. RICHMOND, MISSOURI.

LAYLOCK & LAYLOCK, ATTORNEYS AT LAW AND NOTARY PUBLIC.

E. F. ESTER, Attorney at Law. RICHMOND, MO.

J. ED BALL, ATTORNEY AT LAW. RICHMOND, MO.

J. W. SHOTWELL, ATTORNEY AT LAW. RICHMOND, MO.

J. R. HAMILTON, ATTORNEY AT LAW. RICHMOND, MO.

J. O. K. GANT, Physician and Surgeon. RICHMOND, MO.

S. T. BASSETT, Physician and Surgeon. RICHMOND, MO.

C. W. JACOBS, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON. RICHMOND, MO.

J. M. PAINTER, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON. RICHMOND, MO.

DR. W. HOLT, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON. RICHMOND, MO.

J. S. HUGHES & COMPANY, BANKING. RICHMOND, MO.

RAY COUNTY SAVINGS BANK. RICHMOND, MO.

JACKSON AND PATTON RICHMOND, MISSOURI.

The Leading Dealers in all Kinds of PINE LUMBER IN RAY COUNTY.

Would respectfully call attention to the fact that they have on hand a very large and a very complete stock of Pine Lumber of every character.

Celebrated Shaker Paints.

The Best Mixed Paints made. All of which they propose to sell at BOTTOM PRICES.

THE OLD RELIABLE BAIN WAGON

The Best Wagon on Wheels, as time and the severest tests have proven. Also SPRING WAGONS, BUGGIES, AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS, Etc.

Jno. A. Hughes

Will make you as good prices on Staple and Fancy Groceries as can be obtained in Richmond, and if by selling a superior quality, always keeping the very best.

GROCERIES,

A. J. BOTTS, DEALER IN

STOVES

Shelf Hardware, Copper and Tinware. RICHMOND, MISSOURI.

Tin Roofing and Guttering a Specialty.

IF YOU WANT TO BUY Fall and Winter Goods

WOODSON'S!

Our Stock is now complete in All its Departments.

Dry Goods, Clothing, Notions, Hats and Caps, Shoes, Ladies Underwear, Cloaks, Dolmans Trunks

Valises, Gents' Furnishing Goods, GROCERIES, &c.

And in Fact everything to be Found in a FIRST-CLASS GENERAL STORE.

ALL GOODS SOLD GUARANTEED

H. P. Woodson.

Mr. J. Q. Barrett, for years a book-keeper for Ballens, Moore & Son of Kansas City, died on Friday last.

Thos. Tipton, who killed John T. Woodson, of Platte City, has been admitted to bail.

Mr. J. A. Funkhouser has ten head of high grade Hereford calves, whose average weight is 711 pounds.

On Thursday last, five men were arrested in Lexington, for dragging Kerney Donkers in a violent manner to the calaboose.

The Register complains that since the adoption of the hog law the citizens of Lexington have turned their hogs out to run on the streets, and it appears that there are now more hogs running at large than before.

Mr. Branch, editor of the Post at Concordia, Lafayette county, and Jeff Debing, a prominent German citizen, had a quarrel, which resulted in both parties applying arms and court-plaster.

On Saturday last, the governor commuted the sentence of Richard Gale from eight years in the penitentiary to two years from February, 1882.

Frank Green, editor of the Dawn Clipper, committed suicide at his home in Darsen, Livingston county, Mo., last night, by taking laudanum.

Frank Baird, a well known architect, was killed last Thursday by falling from the rafters of a fine barn he was building for a farmer in the vicinity of Ripon.

The superintendent of the Kansas City, St. Joe and Council Bluffs road has issued an order instructing the heads of departments, to immediately discharge any men in the company's service in his department, who are heard to use profane language.

The bill providing for a postal telegraph, that was last week introduced by Senator Edmunds in the senate is one which we hope to see go through both houses and become an established law.

Rev. James Wrightman, a prominent and wealthy citizen of Harper, Kansas, was drowned yesterday in the Ozark river, near Springfield, Mo.

Rev. John Owen Bache, was brutally beaten and robbed in New York last week. The thieves took from him a fine gold watch valued at $250, a diamond pin worth $350, $250 in bills and two diamond scarf pins valued at $300.

The Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railroad is besieging congress for the right of way through the Indian Territory, and makes the novel proposition that congress shall establish the tariff of fares and freights; that the road shall pay $50 per mile to the Indians, and when 100 miles of road are completed, $1,000 annually to the secretary of the interior.

An example of the impartiality of the administration of justice was manifested in the criminal court in Kansas City, last Friday. Judge White ordered a recess at noon of half an hour.

At first a terrific rumbling noise was heard, and immediately afterwards a jarring of the earth was felt, the vibrations lasting for forty seconds and proceeding from a north-westerly to a southeasterly direction.

An earthquake in Arkansas is a new feature, but such an occurrence took place in the vicinity of Ravenden Springs on the morning of the 5th inst.

At first a terrific rumbling noise was heard, and immediately afterwards a jarring of the earth was felt, the vibrations lasting for forty seconds and proceeding from a north-westerly to a southeasterly direction.

The shock in Ravenden was sufficient to shatter glassware in the stores. On the Kansas City, Springfield and Memphis railway near there, large trucks in cuts were loosened and fell.

Mr. J. A. Funkhouser has ten head of high grade Hereford calves, whose average weight is 711 pounds.

On Thursday last, five men were arrested in Lexington, for dragging Kerney Donkers in a violent manner to the calaboose.

The Register complains that since the adoption of the hog law the citizens of Lexington have turned their hogs out to run on the streets, and it appears that there are now more hogs running at large than before.

Mr. Cornelius Sullivan and Miss Minnie, the attractive daughter of our esteemed friend Patrick Courtney, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Catholic church on last Thursday morning, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Jas. A. Funkhouser has ten head of high grade Hereford calves, whose average weight is 711 pounds.

On Thursday last, five men were arrested in Lexington, for dragging Kerney Donkers in a violent manner to the calaboose.

The Register complains that since the adoption of the hog law the citizens of Lexington have turned their hogs out to run on the streets, and it appears that there are now more hogs running at large than before.

Mr. Branch, editor of the Post at Concordia, Lafayette county, and Jeff Debing, a prominent German citizen, had a quarrel, which resulted in both parties applying arms and court-plaster.

On Saturday last, the governor commuted the sentence of Richard Gale from eight years in the penitentiary to two years from February, 1882.

Frank Green, editor of the Dawn Clipper, committed suicide at his home in Darsen, Livingston county, Mo., last night, by taking laudanum.

Frank Baird, a well known architect, was killed last Thursday by falling from the rafters of a fine barn he was building for a farmer in the vicinity of Ripon.

The superintendent of the Kansas City, St. Joe and Council Bluffs road has issued an order instructing the heads of departments, to immediately discharge any men in the company's service in his department, who are heard to use profane language.

The bill providing for a postal telegraph, that was last week introduced by Senator Edmunds in the senate is one which we hope to see go through both houses and become an established law.

Rev. James Wrightman, a prominent and wealthy citizen of Harper, Kansas, was drowned yesterday in the Ozark river, near Springfield, Mo.

Rev. John Owen Bache, was brutally beaten and robbed in New York last week. The thieves took from him a fine gold watch valued at $250, a diamond pin worth $350, $250 in bills and two diamond scarf pins valued at $300.

The Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railroad is besieging congress for the right of way through the Indian Territory, and makes the novel proposition that congress shall establish the tariff of fares and freights; that the road shall pay $50 per mile to the Indians, and when 100 miles of road are completed, $1,000 annually to the secretary of the interior.

An example of the impartiality of the administration of justice was manifested in the criminal court in Kansas City, last Friday. Judge White ordered a recess at noon of half an hour.

At first a terrific rumbling noise was heard, and immediately afterwards a jarring of the earth was felt, the vibrations lasting for forty seconds and proceeding from a north-westerly to a southeasterly direction.

An earthquake in Arkansas is a new feature, but such an occurrence took place in the vicinity of Ravenden Springs on the morning of the 5th inst.

At first a terrific rumbling noise was heard, and immediately afterwards a jarring of the earth was felt, the vibrations lasting for forty seconds and proceeding from a north-westerly to a southeasterly direction.

The shock in Ravenden was sufficient to shatter glassware in the stores. On the Kansas City, Springfield and Memphis railway near there, large trucks in cuts were loosened and fell.

Mr. J. A. Funkhouser has ten head of high grade Hereford calves, whose average weight is 711 pounds.

On Thursday last, five men were arrested in Lexington, for dragging Kerney Donkers in a violent manner to the calaboose.

The Register complains that since the adoption of the hog law the citizens of Lexington have turned their hogs out to run on the streets, and it appears that there are now more hogs running at large than before.

Mr. Cornelius Sullivan and Miss Minnie, the attractive daughter of our esteemed friend Patrick Courtney, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Catholic church on last Thursday morning, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Cornelius Sullivan and Miss Minnie, the attractive daughter of our esteemed friend Patrick Courtney, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Catholic church on last Thursday morning, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Jas. A. Funkhouser has ten head of high grade Hereford calves, whose average weight is 711 pounds.

On Thursday last, five men were arrested in Lexington, for dragging Kerney Donkers in a violent manner to the calaboose.

The Register complains that since the adoption of the hog law the citizens of Lexington have turned their hogs out to run on the streets, and it appears that there are now more hogs running at large than before.

Mr. Branch, editor of the Post at Concordia, Lafayette county, and Jeff Debing, a prominent German citizen, had a quarrel, which resulted in both parties applying arms and court-plaster.

On Saturday last, the governor commuted the sentence of Richard Gale from eight years in the penitentiary to two years from February, 1882.

Frank Green, editor of the Dawn Clipper, committed suicide at his home in Darsen, Livingston county, Mo., last night, by taking laudanum.

Frank Baird, a well known architect, was killed last Thursday by falling from the rafters of a fine barn he was building for a farmer in the vicinity of Ripon.

The superintendent of the Kansas City, St. Joe and Council Bluffs road has issued an order instructing the heads of departments, to immediately discharge any men in the company's service in his department, who are heard to use profane language.

The bill providing for a postal telegraph, that was last week introduced by Senator Edmunds in the senate is one which we hope to see go through both houses and become an established law.

Rev. James Wrightman, a prominent and wealthy citizen of Harper, Kansas, was drowned yesterday in the Ozark river, near Springfield, Mo.

Rev. John Owen Bache, was brutally beaten and robbed in New York last week. The thieves took from him a fine gold watch valued at $250, a diamond pin worth $350, $250 in bills and two diamond scarf pins valued at $300.

The Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railroad is besieging congress for the right of way through the Indian Territory, and makes the novel proposition that congress shall establish the tariff of fares and freights; that the road shall pay $50 per mile to the Indians, and when 100 miles of road are completed, $1,000 annually to the secretary of the interior.

An example of the impartiality of the administration of justice was manifested in the criminal court in Kansas City, last Friday. Judge White ordered a recess at noon of half an hour.

At first a terrific rumbling noise was heard, and immediately afterwards a jarring of the earth was felt, the vibrations lasting for forty seconds and proceeding from a north-westerly to a southeasterly direction.

An earthquake in Arkansas is a new feature, but such an occurrence took place in the vicinity of Ravenden Springs on the morning of the 5th inst.

At first a terrific rumbling noise was heard, and immediately afterwards a jarring of the earth was felt, the vibrations lasting for forty seconds and proceeding from a north-westerly to a southeasterly direction.

The shock in Ravenden was sufficient to shatter glassware in the stores. On the Kansas City, Springfield and Memphis railway near there, large trucks in cuts were loosened and fell.

Mr. J. A. Funkhouser has ten head of high grade Hereford calves, whose average weight is 711 pounds.

On Thursday last, five men were arrested in Lexington, for dragging Kerney Donkers in a violent manner to the calaboose.

The Register complains that since the adoption of the hog law the citizens of Lexington have turned their hogs out to run on the streets, and it appears that there are now more hogs running at large than before.

Mr. Cornelius Sullivan and Miss Minnie, the attractive daughter of our esteemed friend Patrick Courtney, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Catholic church on last Thursday morning, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Cornelius Sullivan and Miss Minnie, the attractive daughter of our esteemed friend Patrick Courtney, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Catholic church on last Thursday morning, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Jas. A. Funkhouser has ten head of high grade Hereford calves, whose average weight is 711 pounds.

On Thursday last, five men were arrested in Lexington, for dragging Kerney Donkers in a violent manner to the calaboose.

The Register complains that since the adoption of the hog law the citizens of Lexington have turned their hogs out to run on the streets, and it appears that there are now more hogs running at large than before.

Mr. Branch, editor of the Post at Concordia, Lafayette county, and Jeff Debing, a prominent German citizen, had a quarrel, which resulted in both parties applying arms and court-plaster.

On Saturday last, the governor commuted the sentence of Richard Gale from eight years in the penitentiary to two years from February, 1882.

Frank Green, editor of the Dawn Clipper, committed suicide at his home in Darsen, Livingston county, Mo., last night, by taking laudanum.

Frank Baird, a well known architect, was killed last Thursday by falling from the rafters of a fine barn he was building for a farmer in the vicinity of Ripon.

The superintendent of the Kansas City, St. Joe and Council Bluffs road has issued an order instructing the heads of departments, to immediately discharge any men in the company's service in his department, who are heard to use profane language.

The bill providing for a postal telegraph, that was last week introduced by Senator Edmunds in the senate is one which we hope to see go through both houses and become an established law.

Rev. James Wrightman, a prominent and wealthy citizen of Harper, Kansas, was drowned yesterday in the Ozark river, near Springfield, Mo.

Rev. John Owen Bache, was brutally beaten and robbed in New York last week. The thieves took from him a fine gold watch valued at $250, a diamond pin worth $350, $250 in bills and two diamond scarf pins valued at $300.

The Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railroad is besieging congress for the right of way through the Indian Territory, and makes the novel proposition that congress shall establish the tariff of fares and freights; that the road shall pay $50 per mile to the Indians, and when 100 miles of road are completed, $1,000 annually to the secretary of the interior.

An example of the impartiality of the administration of justice was manifested in the criminal court in Kansas City, last Friday. Judge White ordered a recess at noon of half an hour.

At first a terrific rumbling noise was heard, and immediately afterwards a jarring of the earth was felt, the vibrations lasting for forty seconds and proceeding from a north-westerly to a southeasterly direction.

An earthquake in Arkansas is a new feature, but such an occurrence took place in the vicinity of Ravenden Springs on the morning of the 5th inst.

At first a terrific rumbling noise was heard, and immediately afterwards a jarring of the earth was felt, the vibrations lasting for forty seconds and proceeding from a north-westerly to a southeasterly direction.

The shock in Ravenden was sufficient to shatter glassware in the stores. On the Kansas City, Springfield and Memphis railway near there, large trucks in cuts were loosened and fell.

Mr. J. A. Funkhouser has ten head of high grade Hereford calves, whose average weight is 711 pounds.

On Thursday last, five men were arrested in Lexington, for dragging Kerney Donkers in a violent manner to the calaboose.

The Register complains that since the adoption of the hog law the citizens of Lexington have turned their hogs out to run on the streets, and it appears that there are now more hogs running at large than before.

Mr. Cornelius Sullivan and Miss Minnie, the attractive daughter of our esteemed friend Patrick Courtney, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Catholic church on last Thursday morning, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Cornelius Sullivan and Miss Minnie, the attractive daughter of our esteemed friend Patrick Courtney, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Catholic church on last Thursday morning, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Jas. A. Funkhouser has ten head of high grade Hereford calves, whose average weight is 711 pounds.

On Thursday last, five men were arrested in Lexington, for dragging Kerney Donkers in a violent manner to the calaboose.

The Register complains that since the adoption of the hog law the citizens of Lexington have turned their hogs out to run on the streets, and it appears that there are now more hogs running at large than before.

Mr. Branch, editor of the Post at Concordia, Lafayette county, and Jeff Debing, a prominent German citizen, had a quarrel, which resulted in both parties applying arms and court-plaster.

On Saturday last, the governor commuted the sentence of Richard Gale from eight years in the penitentiary to two years from February, 1882.

Frank Green, editor of the Dawn Clipper, committed suicide at his home in Darsen, Livingston county, Mo., last night, by taking laudanum.

Frank Baird, a well known architect, was killed last Thursday by falling from the rafters of a fine barn he was building for a farmer in the vicinity of Ripon.

The superintendent of the Kansas City, St. Joe and Council Bluffs road has issued an order instructing the heads of departments, to immediately discharge any men in the company's service in his department, who are heard to use profane language.

The bill providing for a postal telegraph, that was last week introduced by Senator Edmunds in the senate is one which we hope to see go through both houses and become an established law.

Rev. James Wrightman, a prominent and wealthy citizen of Harper, Kansas, was drowned yesterday in the Ozark river, near Springfield, Mo.

Rev. John Owen Bache, was brutally beaten and robbed in New York last week. The thieves took from him a fine gold watch valued at $250, a diamond pin worth $350, $250 in bills and two diamond scarf pins valued at $300.

The Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railroad is besieging congress for the right of way through the Indian Territory, and makes the novel proposition that congress shall establish the tariff of fares and freights; that the road shall pay $50 per mile to the Indians, and when 100 miles of road are completed, $1,000 annually to the secretary of the interior.

An example of the impartiality of the administration of justice was manifested in the criminal court in Kansas City, last Friday. Judge White ordered a recess at noon of half an hour.

At first a terrific rumbling noise was heard, and immediately afterwards a jarring of the earth was felt, the vibrations lasting for forty seconds and proceeding from a north-westerly to a southeasterly direction.

An earthquake in Arkansas is a new feature, but such an occurrence took place in the vicinity of Ravenden Springs on the morning of the 5th inst.

At first a terrific rumbling noise was heard, and immediately afterwards a jarring of the earth was felt, the vibrations lasting for forty seconds and proceeding from a north-westerly to a southeasterly direction.

The shock in Ravenden was sufficient to shatter glassware in the stores. On the Kansas City, Springfield and Memphis railway near there, large trucks in cuts were loosened and fell.

Mr. J. A. Funkhouser has ten head of high grade Hereford calves, whose average weight is 711 pounds.

On Thursday last, five men were arrested in Lexington, for dragging Kerney Donkers in a violent manner to the calaboose.

The Register complains that since the adoption of the hog law the citizens of Lexington have turned their hogs out to run on the streets, and it appears that there are now more hogs running at large than before.

Mr. Cornelius Sullivan and Miss Minnie, the attractive daughter of our esteemed friend Patrick Courtney, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Catholic church on last Thursday morning, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Cornelius Sullivan and Miss Minnie, the attractive daughter of our esteemed friend Patrick Courtney, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Catholic church on last Thursday morning, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Jas. A. Funkhouser has ten head of high grade Hereford calves, whose average weight is 711 pounds.

On Thursday last, five men were arrested in Lexington, for dragging Kerney Donkers in a violent manner to the calaboose.

The Register complains that since the adoption of the hog law the citizens of Lexington have turned their hogs out to run on the streets, and it appears that there are now more hogs running at large than before.

Mr. Branch, editor of the Post at Concordia, Lafayette county, and Jeff Debing, a prominent German citizen, had a quarrel, which resulted in both parties applying arms and court-plaster.

On Saturday last, the governor commuted the sentence of Richard Gale from eight years in the penitentiary to two years from February, 1882.

Frank Green, editor of the Dawn Clipper, committed suicide at his home in Darsen, Livingston county, Mo., last night, by taking laudanum.

Frank Baird, a well known architect, was killed last Thursday by falling from the rafters of a fine barn he was building for a farmer in the vicinity of Ripon.

The superintendent of the Kansas City, St. Joe and Council Bluffs road has issued an order instructing the heads of departments, to immediately discharge any men in the company's service in his department, who are heard to use