Newspaper is High and Getting Higher

Washington, Aug. 9.—The crisis in the news print paper situation, which already has cut down newspaper profits enormously, will not be reached until late October, when contracts come up for renewal, according to reports received from many sources by the federal trade commission. The presidential election, together with the European war, is expected to increase an already unparalleled demand for news print which manufacturers tell the trade commission they will hardly be able to meet. This year for the first time they have not been able to lay up a large reserve during the summer.

Passed and ordained by the Town Council assembled this the 3rd day of August 1916.

GOT SOMETHING YOU WANT TO SELL?

Most people have a piece of furniture, a farm implement, or something else which they have discarded and which they no longer want. These things are put in the attic, or stored away in the barn, or left lying about, getting of less and less value each year.

WHY NOT SELL THEM

Somebody wants those very things which have become of no use to you. Why not try to find that somebody by putting a want advertisement in THIS NEWSPAPER?

MONEY: Unlimited amount of money to lend upon improved farm lands at 7 per cent interest. No charges for attorneys fees and commissions other than that included in interest charge of seven per cent.

Financing The Farmer

The farmer's business often needs a little extra financial backing if it is to grow and prosper.

That is one reason why he should have strong and willing bank behind him.

It is an important function of this bank to give temporary assistance to the farmers who seek it of us, and who have demonstrated their ability to repay obligations when due.

The best way to have a credit here is to carry an account with us, and we cordially invite not only the farmer but every one who wants to gain ground financially to do so.

The Bank of Pageland

IT WILL PAY YOU

To ask us for Oxfords, summer underwear and all summer goods. We are going to close them out at some price.
