MULES and HORSES

that's ever been pulled over the Seaboard road. They will sell like HOT CAKES greased with cotton seed oil, you had better hurry.

Our Motto is

"Not How Cheap We Can Buy Mules But How Good."

The country is now full of cheap plug stock. We have them for trade or sale and easy terms to right parties.

Our sales for the past week have doubled up and the only reason we can account for it is because we give

More Goods for Same Money or Same Goods for Less Money

Listen! We will give away on Christmas Eve a beautiful SILK PLUSH FOLDING LOUNGE absolutely free and without respect of persons. Every dollar's worth you trade with me until then you will receive a check, more dollars you spend the more chances you have at the lounge. This lounge is on exhibition now in our store. Come in and see it and find out about our free proposition and don't forget to get your check.

Be somebody and buy a MOLINE COTTON STALK CHOPPER, one that will do the work and save your mules. Ask Mr. H. E. Garrick about them. Buggies and wagons still moving, get in the push and let's keep pushing. Last car of first patent flour about gone and another one on the rail. We have annexed to our already immense territory the PINE HILL SECTION, composed of some of the best people in Orangeburg County, and we are expecting much business from these people.

One of them remarked in our store the other day,

"I am surprised at the large and well assorted stock of goods that you are carrying in Norway and I find that I can save money by buying from you, look out for me and my folks after this.

Come and bring your folks along with you and tell your friends about that beautiful lounge proposition and don't forget to get your checks. Here's hoping that you will get the lounge.

MY HOUSE BESIDE THE ROAD.

Homer's Ideal—"He was a friend to man, and lived in a house by the side of the road."
 "There are hermit souls that live withdrawn
 In the place of their selfish content;
 There are souls like stars, that dwell apart
 In a fellowless firmament;
 There are pioneer souls that blaze their paths
 Where highways never ran;
 But let me live by the side of the road,
 And be a friend to man.

"Let me live in my house by the side of the road,
 Where the race of men go by;
 The men that are good and the men that are bad,
 As good and as bad as I.
 I would not sit in the scorners' seat,
 Or hurl the cynic's ban;
 Let me live in a house by the side of the road,
 And be a friend to man.

"I see from my house by the side of the road,
 By the side of the highway of life,
 The men who press with the ardor of hope,
 The men who faint with the strife,
 But I turn not away from their smiles or their tears,
 Both parts of an infinite plan;
 Let me live in my house by the side of the road,
 And be a friend to man.

"I know there are brook-gladdened meadows ahead,
 And mountains of wearisome height,
 And the road passes through the long afternoon,
 And stretches away to the night,
 But still I rejoice when the travelers rejoice,
 And weep with the strangers that moan,
 Nor live in my house by the side of the road,
 Like a man who dwells alone.

"Let me live in my house by the side of the road,
 Where the race of men go by;
 They are good; they are bad; they are weak; they are strong;
 Wise, foolish, and so am I.
 Then why should I sit in the scorners' seat,
 Or hurl the cynic's ban?
 Let me live in my house by the side of the road,
 And be a friend to man."
