Claude and Harry W. Dominick. The attorney general and his mother and the assistant attorney general returned to Columbia by automobile Monday.

Mr. Ivy Z. Abrams returned last week from Columbia with the happy assurance that his remaining eye was safe. Our readers remember that Mr. Abrams lost an eye recently and was in danger of losing the other one. His friends while sympathizing with him in the loss of one eye will rejoice with him that the left eye—or the eye left—has been saved.

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

In his automobile Dr. Whaley, of Columbia, was in the city Saturday among others. Likewise Mr. Robert Moorman, of Columbia.

According to Walter Melton, Harry W. Dominick thinks water rises and falls most remarkably rapid after rains in streams between Newberry and Columbia.

Parties autoing between Columbia and Newberry since the late rains complain of bad roads and the absence of bridges at some of the waterways. These things ought to be looked into.

Members of the railroad commission returned yesterday, after making an inspection Thursday of the Columbia Newberry & Laurens railroad.—The State, 9th.

People drink too much ice water in the opinion of a New York physician. And too little buttermilk in our opinion.—Greenville Piedmont. Your opinion is correct, Piedmont.

There were seven or eight automobiles in Newberry Sunday from the low country on their way to the mountains. And a big car from Charleston was in the city Saturday.

Mr. J. J. Darlington got Mr. A. C. Sligh to go to Washington to cook for a big barbecue. Mr. Darlington says Mr. Sligh is the finest barbecue chef in the United States and that his fame extends from Virginia to the coast.

There will be a social meeting at Central Methodist church on Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock. All the young people of the church, Epworth league members particularly, are requested to be present.

If you are not able to take a vacation trip to the mountains this summer, use Stomp Springs as a substitute.—Clinton Chronicle. Mr. Sam Duncan is trying to "demonstrate" what it is.

They are busy at the Summer garage. Since selling that Ford roadster to Werts and Johnston they last week sold a Ford touring car to T. J. Weathers, of Laurens, and one to J. Y. Bryson, at Ora, of Laurens county.

Saturday there was shown an open cotton boll pulled by Mr. W. W. Hornsby that morning. Mr. Raymond Fellers, who told the reporter about the boll, says the crop is very fine and well fruited, and that Mr. Hornsby will pick a ball there this week—provided the weather is fair.

The second open boll cotton of the season was handed to a representative of The Herald and News early Monday morning by a young man on his way to town from Helena, who said he got it out of a field cultivated at Helena by a colored woman, "Aunt Martha" somebody; he didn't know who.

The protracted services at the Pysbeterian church here closed last Thursday night. The preaching was done by Rev. T. C. Croker, of Newberry county. Considerable interest was manifested and it is believed that lasting good was accomplished.—Coronaca cor., Greenwood Journal, 6th. This was intended for Thursday's issue, but it is still good to read.

A Card of Thanks.

To the many friends of this city who showed their deep sympathy and so much loving kindness during the death of Mrs. Jennie Mae Chappell Thompson, we the husband, father, mother, brother and sister, offer our sincere thanks.

Dr. W. C. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. M. Q. Chappell, Y. Frank Chappell, Estelle Chappell.

NEGRO KILLED AT CHAPPELLS.

All Seemed to be Drinking—No Motive Appears From Testimony—Spearman in Jail.

Tack Crump was killed last week by Bill Spearman. The killing took place on Mr. Dominick's place near Chappells. The inquest was held by Magistrate W. R. Reid. Spearman was arrested on Saturday by Sheriff Blease and is now in the county jail awaiting trial in the sessions court on the charge of murder. No facts in connection with the killing had been secured more than the testimony taken at the inquest, which is published in full.

Testimony.

Van Maranny being duly sworn says I live with Mr. Lamar Dominick in Newberry county. I was at Lewis Tribbles house, standing at end window when I heard a gun fire. I saw Dought Tribble and Tack lying on the bed playing. They both went in other room and while in there, I heard Dought say shoot him. The gun fired at once. I walked around to corner of house and saw Tack leaning against house only for a few seconds. I saw Bill after gun fired near the house with gun in his hands. I did not see the shooting, nor could I swear that Bill killed Tack. I saw Tack and Dought stop and curse each other with such words as S—of—b. I smelt whiskey and their actions showed that all were drinking.

Fannie Spearman being duly sworn says, I live with Mr. H. C. Dominick, in Newberry county. I saw Tack and Dought playing, but not fighting. I am Tack's wife. They, Tack and Dought went around in other room and Dought said shoot him Bill. I saw Bill when he took gun around in other room, with him. Did not hear any cursing or fussing. Did not see Tack shot, but was leaning against house and blood flowing from wound in neck. Saw Bill walking around the house with gun in his hand. Did not see any whiskey, but saw sign of it. Shooting was at Lewis Tribbles house.

Rachel or Dought Tribble being duly sworn says, I live with Mr. H. C. Dominick, in Newberry county.

I was coming from my mother's with Bill about 3 o'clock and met Tack. Bill and Tack began fussing. I came on home and after getting in house heard a pistol fire out toward road. Soon after Bill and Tack came on to house. Bill said to me that Tack tried to kill me. Bill walked across room and got gun from behind door and walked in room where Tack was. A tried to stop Bill but he right on by. I then pushed Tack out of back door. Did not see any pistol. Shortly I heard the gun fire. I walked to back door and saw Tack leaning against house with blood gushing from his throat. Bill coming in front door with gun in his hand.

Anna Spearman being duly sworn says, I live in Newberry county with Mr. H. C. Dominick. I was at Lewis Tribbles house when I heard a gun fire. Did not see any one shot. Bill Spearman was the only one I saw with gun. Did not see him shoot. I saw Bill come in room where I was and get gun. My sister was in room with me when the gun fired.

Q. Where was Tack?

He was out on ground when I saw him. I saw the hole in Tack's neck, where he was shot.

her
Anna X Spearman,

Death of An Old Lady.

Mrs. Elijah Martin, of the Longshore neighborhood, died at her home Friday afternoon at one o'clock, at the age of 72 years, and was buried Saturday afternoon at three o'clock at the Cleland burying ground, service by the Rev. Mr. Bowen. Her death was rather sudden, as she was ill for only a day, due to feebleness. She was a widow and is survived by six sons and two daughters, as follows: Messrs. Richard, Elijah, George and Noah Martin, all of the same neighborhood; Mrs. Maggie Grizzard, of Atlanta, and Mrs. Lillian Walton, of Columbia.

Ab Sligh's Hash.

Washington, August 9.—Officers, directors and employees of the federal national bank of this city were the guests of J. J. Darlington today at a barbecue at his country home at Herndon, Va.

One beef, three sheep, three hogs and two goats were slaughtered and roasted whole and from a gastronomic standpoint, it was one of the biggest occasions the Virginia town ever saw. Mr. Darlington is a director of the bank and also its attorney and he invited the officers and employees to bring their friends and families with them.

"I have brought the finest barbecue chef in the United States here from South Carolina," said Mr. Darlington. "His name is A. C. Sligh of Newberry and his fame extends from Virginia to the coast."

Mr. Darlington is one of the most popular of the South Carolina contingent at the national capital and his guests today numbered many former Carolinians.

The fellow who begins to explain his mistakes won't have much time left to make any more.
