

ASSEMBLED LAYMEN HEAR MISSION CALL

CONSIDER EARLY EVANGELIZATION OF THE WORLD

Columbia Meeting Starts off Well—Efficiency Stressed as Important Along With Zeal.

Columbia, Feb. 18.—While the chief emphasis of the convention of the Lutheran Laymen's Missionary movement is to be placed on "doing," the "being" and spiritual life of the individual is not to be laid aside, as was brought out in the opening address of the Rev. W. H. Greever, D. D., of Columbia, editor of The Lutheran Church Visitor, in the afternoon session yesterday. "The time has come for an advance in accomplishing our God-given work," said the Rev. J. A. Morehead, D. D., of Salem, Va., president of the United synod, in supplementing Dr. Greever's remarks.

The coming of the new East and the uniting of the East and West through the meridian of America, as God's home for foreigners, were most forcibly presented in the complimentary speeches of Dr. L. B. Wolf of Baltimore and Dr. S. P. Long of Mansfield, Ohio, at the night session.

Call of the Convention.

That it is the duty and responsibility of the congregation, as the undiscovered organization in the life of the church, to obey God's word in sending the gospel to the ends of the earth, was also brought out forcibly, and was laid before the delegates from Lutheran parishes as the call that must be answered. There must be no placing aside of this co-operative mission work and there must be no procrastination, for even though the evangelization of the world may not be accomplished in this generation, at least an honorable record of endeavor must be left to the generation that will follow and continue the work that has accomplished so much in the past 20 years.

The call of the convention to laymen of all denominations is that as members of a congregation, the unit of power and the last court of appeal in the Lutheran church, they must undertake the evangelization of the world, if not personally at least by representative. There was no middle ground permitted, because God ordered that his gospel be preached in all corners of the world.

Programme Intensive.

Dr. Greever in his address, "The Spiritual Life—Its Source," said: "Spirituality is not Christ's likeness, for that is the manifestation of spiritual life, but it is the union with Christ, who wants to abide with us and bring forth fruit in abundance. I make an appeal to all to pray earnestly that all barriers of selfishness and pride be taken away, and that the spirit of God fill our hearts. God will give us inspiration and strength and all that we need."

Dr. Moorehead's Greeting.

Dr. Moorehead delivered "A Greeting to the Laymen of the United Synod, and a Call to Advance," in which he complimented the assembled laymen on the great work that has already been accomplished and which for that very reason permitted no excuse for delay in the future.

Significance of Movement.

George B. Cromer, LL. D., of Newberry then traced the history and "Significance of the Laymen Missionary Movement." Inasmuch as the movement was born in a prayer meeting in New York, Dr. Cromer said that behind it there has been the dynamic force of prayer, and that the movement is spiritual, both in its origin and motive. He brought out that it is a movement of laymen, universally include, and that while many have heard the call few have answered. He urged that everyone do something, for it is a big task, and if it is necessary to fail, fail honestly, and leave for those who come after to reap the benefits.

"I had rather," he said, "have a small movement that is moving than a big, sluggish body." He exhorted the followers of Luther to unearth their heritage and talents which have always been a source of pride, and for all to give to the gospel that had been ordered to be spread throughout the world.

The Layman's Place.

The Rev. F. A. Kahler, D. D., of Buffalo, spoke eloquently on "The Layman's Place and Opportunity in the Advance of the Kingdom." Dr. Kahler stressed the spirit of Jesus' saying, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His Righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you," for, he said, "it was out of the kingdoms of the world that they crucified Christ."

Charles A. Rowland of Athens, Ga., Chairman of the executive committee of the Laymen's Missionary movement of the Southern Presbyterian church, was unavoidably detained on important business and could not attend the convention. Mr. Rowland was to deliver an address on "How a Business Man May Make His Life Count in Solving the Missionary Problem."

In explaining the title of his address the Rev. George J. Gongaware of Charleston said that the "Undiscovered Missionary Organization" was the congregation, as made up of individuals, who have a definite duty to perform in sending the gospel of Christ to all of the world. The dynamic force of missionary work must come from the congregation in its corporate capacity, he explained, for the congregation is the unit of power, and in the Lutheran church is rightly the last court of appeal.

East and West.

The night session was featured by a discussion of the East and West, the latter being America and the former the rest of the world. "The New East" was ably pictured by Dr. L. B. Wolf of Baltimore, general secretary of the board of foreign missions of the general synod of the Lutheran church in America, and an explanation of "The American Problem," by Dr. S. P. Long of Mansfield, Ohio, was most clearly brought to light.

That a new presentation of the brotherhood of man, the melting of the East and West into one great kingdom, that America was preserved by God to serve the purpose of uniting the world, was placed before the assembled militant Lutheran laymen can not be doubted. The laymen were summoned to answer the double call of making the world one by evangelization and Christianizing all the nations of the world, by reason of their being Americans and Christians en-

You apply "GETS-IT" in two seconds—no fussing with plasters that don't stay put, with salves that make corns "pull" and make the toe beefy and raw, with knives, scissors, razors and diggers that make corns grow faster and that may cause blood poison from core-cutting and corn-bleeding. #### KILLED BY AUTO.

Stephen Lindler Loses His Life When Auto Turns Turtle Near Gilbert. Driver Escapes.

Lexington, Feb. 17.—Stephen Lindler, a young man of the Hollow Creek section of this county, was instantly killed when an automobile driven by Ross A. Barre, with whom he was riding, turned turtle in the public highway a mile and a half north of Gilbert between 11 and 12 o'clock last night. Ross A. Barre escaped with a probable fracture of a rib and a few other minor bruises. The car—a four-passenger machine—was completely wrecked. Mr. Barre and young Lindler were en route home from Columbia, where Mr. Barre purchased the machine. The car was going at a high rate of speed, down grade, when without a second's warning it began to skid, according to the statement of the driver, and in an instant it had turned a double somersault, pinning Mr. Lindler beneath the left front wheel and throwing Mr. Barre in the air. Mr. Barre was rendered unconscious by the fall, but when he regained his senses he went to a nearby residence for a light. In company with Zachari Taylor he went back to where the wreck occurred only to find his companion pinned beneath the machine, life extinct. The force of the machine crushed the right chest of young Lindler and he was otherwise injured.

"It was all done so quick that I can't tell how it happened," said Mr. Barre today. "I lost control of the machine when it began to skid, and in an instant the car was wrecked."

W. C. Weed, coroner of Lexington county, held an inquest over the remains of young Lindler this morning, the verdict of the jury being that the deceased came to his death by an automobile accident, the car being driven by R. A. Barre.

Mr. Lindler was about 23 years of age and one of the most popular young men of the Hollow Creek section of the county. He was the son of Prof. S. S. Lindler, one of the best known men in this section of the State. Stephen Lindler was a former student of Clemson college and numbered his friends by the score.

His remains will be buried at Mt. Pleasant Lutheran church, in the upper section of the county, at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

This is the first serious automobile accident in the history of Lexington county, and it has been the subject of much discussion on every side today.

Mr. Barre has been for a number of years a rural mail carrier going out from Gilbert. He has been driving a car for several years, but he had just purchased the touring car which he was driving last night in Columbia yesterday. He has been accustomed to driving a roadster. He is deeply affected by the tragedy.

COD LIVER OIL AND IRON

Two Most World-Famed Tonics Combined in Vinol.

Cod Liver oil and Iron have proved to be the two most successful tonics the world has ever known—iron for the blood and the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil as a strength and tissue builder for body and nerves, and for the successful treatment of throat and lung troubles.

Two eminent French chemists discovered a method of separating the curative medicinal elements of the cods' livers from the oil or grease which is thrown away, but to these medicinal elements tonic iron is now added, thus combining in Vinol the two most world famed tonics.

As a body-builder and strength creator for weak, run-down people, for feeble old people, delicate children, to restore strength after sickness; and for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis or pulmonary troubles we ask you to try Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The board of health of the city, at a meeting on last Tuesday decided that small pox that has been prevailing in this community for some time is now on the decrease and while vaccination is not compulsory, they would advise every one who has not been vaccinated in the last year or two, to do so at once, as it is a sure preventive of this disease. But if any citizen refuses to be vaccinated and should contract this loathsome disease they will have no one to blame but themselves.

And in the Auditor's Office in the Court House Friday, February 20th, after which date a penalty of 50 per cent will be added against all persons, firms or corporations failing to make their returns as required by law. There shall be a capitation tax of fifty cents on all dogs, the proceeds to be expended for school purposes. Dogs not returned for taxation shall not be held as property in any of the courts of this State.

Real Estate is to be assessed this year. Each tract or lot of land must be assessed separately. Also state to assessor whether you have bought or sold any real estate since last return. The law requires that all property, both real and personal, be assessed "at its true value in money," which is construed to mean, "The sum of money for which said property, under ordinary circumstances, would sell for cash."

Please don't ask that your property be taken from the tax duplicate the same as last year. The law requires that all property must be listed on regular tax return blanks and properly signed and sworn to by person making return.
