

PURELY PERSONAL

The Movements of Many People, Newberrians, and Those Who Visit Newberry.

Mr. Paul Halfacre visited in Laurens last Saturday night.

Mr. Oscar Peterson returned last week from a trip to Laurens.

Mr. Lewie Asbill, student of pharmacy at the Baltimore University, is home for vacation.

Miss Lila Summer has returned from Elizabeth college, Charlotte, after spending a week in Atlanta.

Messrs. H. H. Blease, L. W. Jones, J. B. Hunter and B. V. Chapman attended the supreme court this week.

Mr. Frank Shealy, candidate for railroad commissioner, was in Newberry on Wednesday.

Miss Fannie Leavell is visiting her brother, Mr. Jno. R. Leavell, in Greenwood.

Miss Blanche Davidson was bridesmaid at the Zobel-Yonce marriage Tuesday night at Helena.

Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Connor's many friends are sorry to hear that they will shortly leave Newberry. They will be missed.

Mr. Chas. P. Barre, who graduated this week from the law department of the University of South Carolina, was in the city a few days ago.

Misses Myrtle Epting and Cleone Hayes are two Newberry young lady graduates of Lander college this week.

Miss Nellie Shealy, of Little Mountain, is spending several weeks in Pickens with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Ballentine.—Pickens Sentinel, 4th.

Miss Rosa Blake, of Sheffield, Ala., is visiting Miss Lillian Kibler, her schoolmate from Randolph-Macon college.

Among the large list of Clemson graduates this year is Benson McHardy Jones, mechanical and electrical engineering.

Messrs. J. C. Goggans, Sr., and R. Y. Leavell attended the commencement at Furman this week. Mr. Leavell is a member of the board of trustees.

Misses Rose Nichols, Anna Harms and Eselle Bowers, of Newberry, Eunice Long, of Prosperity, and Gertrude Boland, of Little Mountain, are among the graduates—normal course with degree of A. B.—just from the W. H. Rousemeyer college.

Mrs. Bessie Dove, of Lynchburg, Va., is visiting her friend, Miss Anne O. Ruff. Mrs. Dove is pleasantly remembered as formerly the popular milliner at Minnigh's. She is at present enjoying a vacation from her millinery duties at Winston-Salem.

Dr. Cromer delivered the annual address before the closing exercises of the Saluda high school last Friday night. (The Standard says it was "perhaps one of the best ever heard here of its kind.")

We are sorry to note that Hon. Geo. S. Mower went down last week to the Presbyterian hospital in Columbia. We trust he may be speedily restored to his wonted health. He is a useful, public spirited man.—A. R. Presbyterian, 3rd.

Dr. Bowers preached the baccalaureate sermon this week at the commencement exercises of Summerland college. The Batesburg Herald says "Dr. Bowers spoke with ease, elegance and simplicity that charmed and instructed the large congregation present."

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Autry, of Hampton Ga., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. O. Dunston. At about the time of Gen. Lee's surrender, Mr. Autry on his way home, walking, passed through Newberry. The Episcopal church is the only building he recollects.

Mrs. J. H. Summer, Miss Lila Summer and Mr. Roy Summer attended the marriage in Atlanta this week of Mr. J. E. Summer, of Jacksonville, formerly of Newberry. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Summer and is a fine young man whose sterling qualities make him popular wherever he is known. He will bring his bride to Newberry later. The Herald and News hastens to congratulate him and to wish him and his fair bride all the happiness they could hope for.

After these exercises a delightful social half hour was enjoyed by all present.

THE CITY SCHOOLS HAVE JUST CLOSED

ONE OF MOST SUCCESSFUL IN HISTORY OF SCHOOLS.

Twenty Graduates—Programme of Exercises—Award of Prizes and Medals.

The Newberry city schools held this week exercises closing a very successful year.

The exercises at the high school auditorium on Monday night, June 1, consisted of a recitation contest by girls of the Waverley literary society and a debate by boys of the Athanæan society. Miss Ruth Digby won the W. S. Langford medal for excellence in elocution. Miss Fannie Eleazer honorable mention.

The debaters were Messrs. Ralph Higgins, Neely Cromer, William Thornton, John Higgins, Forrest Dickert and John Floyd. Mr. Ralph Higgins won the John M. Kinard medal for the best debate, and Mr. John Higgins was awarded honorable mention.

The question for debate was: Resolved, That the city of Newberry ought to vote an additional tax of three mills for school purposes. The affirmative side won. Some of the points advanced by the affirmative were that the trustees after running the schools most economically and with insufficient teaching force find themselves at the end of the year $1,500 in debt, that at Hoge school one teacher has enrolled this year 168 pupils and another 188, that the outlook is for an increase of 20 in the high school enrollment and the need of another high school teacher, that Speers street school needs very badly an additional teacher, that West End school ought to have two more teachers, that the schools ought to have an up-to-date manual training equipment, that more men are needed in the teaching force, that the Speers Street school needs additional repairs and painting, that the high school building ought to have a $7,000 annex so as to provide an additional classroom, a library, scientific laboratory and a larger auditorium, that several States in the union pay five times as much per capita of population for schools as South Carolina pays, and that several cities of the State pay twice as many mills for schools as Newberry pays.

On Tuesday morning at the high school auditorium a delightful elementary school exercise was held. The following pupils were competitors in an oratorical contest: Lillie Woodward, Garvis Taylor, Azile Parr, Nancy Fox, Herndon Sample, Garland Taylor, Margaret Kinard, Edwin Setzler, Edward Epting and Abbie Gaillard. Medals were awarded to Abbie Gaillard and Herndon Sample. Music was furnished by Sophia Nell Crowell, Harriet Adams and Selma Crowell.

Miller-Summer.

Atlanta, Conn. situation, 3rd. The wedding of Miss Linda McLendon Miller and Mr. Joan Ernest Summer, of Jacksonville, Fla., was an interesting event of last evening, taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Royall James Miller, on Peachtree place.

The ceremony at 9 o'clock was witnessed by relatives and friends. The bridesmaids were Miss Martha Rogers, Miss Florence B. Smith, Miss Helen Brown, of Chattanooga, Miss Annie W. Bishop Bates, Miss Margaret Williams, of Macon; Miss Lila Summer, of Newberry, S. C.

Mr. Gray Alexander, of Jacksonville, was Mr. Summer's best man, and little Miss Martha Burt Miller was flower girl.

The wedding music was played by Miss Clarence Jackson, of Tusculumbia, Ala., and Dr. Gaines, of Agnes Scott college, was the officiating minister. The bride entered the drawing room with her father and was a picture of girlish loveliness in her wedding gown of ivory white satin with draperies of point d'Alencon lace. Her veil of tulle fell from a becoming cap of lace, in which were caught orange blossoms, and she carried valises. The maid of honor and the bridesmaids wore gowns of white crepe meteor and carried white sweet peas. The little flower girl wore a dainty white lingerie gown and carried a basket of white sweet peas.

Throughout the house there was an artistic decoration of palms and ferns, which were massed luxuriantly, and a profusion of white sweet peas and daisies.

In the dining room the bride's table was covered with a cloth of Venetian lace and in the centre was placed a large gold basket filled with white sweet peas and maidenhair fern. Encircling the basket were smaller baskets of silver filled with white sweet peas. Silver candelabra had green shades and silver dishes held green and white mints.

At one side of the table was the wedding cake containing the usual emblems and decorated with little Cupids. About the cake was a wreath of white sweet peas caught with artistic bows of white tulle. The bride's mother wore a handsome gown of white satin with draperies of black chantilly lace. The groom's mother, Mrs. Summer, of Newberry, S. C., wore black satin. Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. W. J. Loving, Mrs. Bun Wylie, Mrs. F. L. Woodruff and Miss Annie McIntosh, of Thomasville.

Miss Z. Hie McArthur and Miss Mary Pittard served punch. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Summer and Messrs. Roy and Hugh Summer, of Newberry, S. C.; Mr. Edwin H. Smith, of Gainesville, and a group of Agnes Scott friends, who were Miss Ethel McConnell, of Commerce; Miss Louise McNulty, of of Education and the governor which certifies that they have done full 14 Carnegie units and have completed the 14th grade.

Dr. Geo. B. Cromer delivered a very strong and forceful address to the graduates.

The Otto Klettner medal for highest honor in the graduating class was presented in a pleasing manner by C. L. W. H. Hun to Miss Teresa Maybin.

The history medal offered by Mr. L. R. Hunt was presented very effectively by Dr. E. R. Jones to Miss Teresa Maybin.

The Marcus L. Spearman mathematics prize of $5.00 in gold was awarded by P. O. Holloway to Miss Berna Gauman.

The W. C. T. U. $5.00 for the best essay on the subject, "The Harm of a Glass of Beer" was awarded to Miss Ruth Digby.

The O'Neill Holloway medal for ready writing was awarded by him to Miss Teresa Maybin.

The $10.00 of the A. A. Thomas Piano company, of August, Ga., was awarded to Miss Sarah Williamson for excellence in piano.

The O. and F. E. Salter prize, a set of pictures, for second highest honors among the graduates was awarded to Mr. Neely Cromer.

The John B. Mayer $35 watch offered for excellence in the grammar schools for the best scholarship examination was awarded to Miss Emily Hoof.

The J. Marion Davis scholarship medal in Speers street school was won by Miss Emily Hoof.

The Z. F. Wright medal for excellence in scholarship at the West End school was won by Erica Jones, honorable mention Jutu Davis.

The J. L. Keitt $5.00 prize for excellence in scholarship at Boundary street school was won by Miss Azile Parr, honorable mention Miss Roberta Mann.

19 TO GRADUATE AT NEWBERRY COLLEGE

DR. GONGAWARE TO PREACH BACCALAUREATE SERMON.

Exercises Concluded Wednesday Morning With Awarding of Diplomas—The Programme.

Commencement at Newberry college begins next Sunday morning with the baccalaureate sermon before the graduating class by the Rev. Geo. J. Gongaware, of Charleston.

The past session of the college has been a very successful one. The graduating class numbers only 19, but they have done good work and represent the patronage of the college from several States.

It is expected that there will be a very large attendance of visitors upon the commencement exercises. There are in Newberry and vicinity some 250 or 300 alumni and ex-students, who some time ago organized as a Newberry college club with Col. W. H. Hun as president. The club has met twice, and at the last meeting it was decided unanimously that the club membership would make special efforts in assisting the college authorities in the entertainment of the visitors for commencement.

Banquet Tuesday Night.

Newberry has always been noted for the hospitality of its people. With this organized body giving special attention to the entertainment of commencement visitors, it will probably go down in history one of the best and most enjoyable ever held. Tuesday night, after the literary address the Newberry club will give a banquet, which will be one of the features of the commencement. The Hon. A. F. Lever, who was selected to deliver the literary address to the literary societies Tuesday night, will be detained in Washington by his duties in congress, and another speaker will be substituted, his name to be announced later. The following is the programme in full:

Commencement Programme.
