Notice to Colored Teachers.
The Colored Teachers' association of Newberry county will hold their first meeting on Saturday, November 27th, 1915, at 11 o'clock a. m., in the Hoge school building.
At this meeting officers, etc., will be elected. Teachers, please be present. Ulysses S. Gallman, Colored Supervisor.

Teachers' Meeting Saturday.

The monthly meeting of the County Teachers' association was held on Saturday in the High school building. An instructive address was made by Prof. Wardlaw of the University of South Carolina. Prof. Wardlaw selected as his subject, "Higher Standard of Education Attained Through Organization."

The association decided to have county Fair and Field day this year with exhibits eliminated. The executive committee and officers of the association were asked to meet and be able to present to the association at its next regular meeting some suggestive program for county Fair and Field day.

The association will meet again on the third Saturday of December. Lizzie Neel, Secretary.

Amputated Limbs.

The finding of a human foot, a part of a leg and some other minor parts of the human body on a trash and scap pile in Atlanta last week led to the belief that a mysterious and sensational murder had been committed. The city police and detectives got on the job and witnesses were summoned who testified that late on a certain night they heard the passing of a rapidly driven cab and the cries and screams of a woman. The Atlanta papers devoted much space to the facts as brought out by witnesses and indulged in considerable speculation as to the identity of the victim so foully murdered, the motives of the guilty parties and their shrewdness and success in disposing of the body.

Upon further investigation it was found that the foot and other parts found on the dumping grounds were amputated limbs from patients at a local hospital.

In Memory of Mrs. C. F. Adams.

Just about 8 o'clock on Saturday morning, Nov. 13, 1915, the happy home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Adams was saddened by the almost sudden death of Mrs. Adams. Her death was a remarkably sad one, because of the fact that it was so unexpected. She had been sick for only a few days, and was not thought to have been so dangerously ill.

She leaves a devoted husband, mother, Mrs. E. F. Black of Saluda county; brother, Mr. C. E. Black, and two sisters, Misses Cora and Lizzie, to mourn their irreparable loss, but what a consolation to the bereaved ones, to know that their great loss, is her eternal gain.

Mrs. Adams was about twenty-four years old, and was a faithful member of Good Hope Evangelical Lutheran church, Saluda county.

Lillie was loved by all who knew her, and will be sadly missed by all, but oh, in the home her place never can be filled. Her love ones are grieved by her absence, but are sustained by the grace of the comforter, and the hope of renewing the tender ties in Heaven that were formed on earth.

She shall no more be with her loved ones and friends here, but we hope to meet her on the other shore beyond the river of death and may God heal the many broken hearts, and help us to say, "Thy will be done."

In our blindness we can't understand it for God's ways are too gloriously vast for our finite comprehension.

Lillie was an affectionate and sincere friend and will be sadly missed, not only by the family, but by all who knew her. May God comfort the hearts of the bereaved ones, and may they be as true as Lillie has been, and strive to meet her in a fairer land where there will be no parting.

Lillie, Thou wast mild and lovely, Gentle as the summer breeze, Pleasant as the air of evening When it floats among the trees, Peaceful be thy silent slumber, Peaceful in the grave so low, Thou no more our songs shalt know, (Thou no more our songs shalt know.

What happy hours we once enjoyed How sweet her memory still, But she has left an aching void, This world can never fill, So farewell Lillie, You have only gone before, And if we are just as faithful, We shall reach the golden shore. O. L. R. —Ad.

Twenty-four Suffer Death Penalty in India.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Mail adices reaching Washington today from India told of the execution of 24 Hindus and the sentence of 27 others to servitude for life by a governmental commission at Lahore, and described activities against the British government among certain elements in the India population as more extensive than has been officially admitted.

According to the reports the Lahore affair was only one of several others which recently have been brought to an issue in India with similar results, all the prosecutions being based on charges of anarchy, mutiny and insubordination. Activities of the disaffected elements in the population are ascribed in some quarters to German machinations.

The general tendency, however, is to credit the mutinous agitation to the work of a band of conspirators alleged to have been located on the Pacific slope of America for several years. The most disquieting feature of the situation, according to the reports, is the uncertainty of the extent to which the native troops have been tampered with. In the Punjab district between the middle of June and the middle of September, 17 Indian cavalymen were sentenced to death for mutiny, making bombs and cutting telegraph wires and 71 others were convicted of similar offenses.

LAND SALE.

If not sold before at private sale, the following described lot or parcel of land will be offered at public auction before the court house door at Newberry on salesday in December, 1915, to the highest bidder, immediately after the master's sales:

"All that lot, piece or parcel of land situated, lying and being in Newberry county and state aforesaid containing two and one-half acres, more or less, and bounded by lands of Maggie Brown, Tom Shealy and the estate of Jacob Perkins."
Terms of sale cash.

MASTER'S SALE.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, County of Newberry. COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

British and American Mortgage Company, Limited, Plaintiff, against Lewis H. Senn, Henry M. Boozer, The Bank of Cross Hill, J. H. Razor and W. E. Razor, and J. E. Leaman and J. L. Carter, partners trading under the firm name and style of Leaman & Company, Defendants.

By virtue of an order of the court herein, I will sell before the court house door at Newberry, S. C., at public auction, to the highest bidder, within the legal hours of sale, on Monday, salesday, December 6, 1915, the following described tracts of land:

All that tract of land lying and being situate in Newberry county, State of South Carolina, on waters of Mill Creek, containing three hundred and forty (340) acres, more or less, bounded by the tract hereinafter described, lands of M. J. Longshore, Mrs. Mathis, et al. Also, all that other tract lying and being situate in said county and state, known as the Barre place, containing one hundred and seventy-eight (178) acres, more or less, and bounded by the tract above described and by lands of Mrs. S. M. Smith, et al. Both of said tracts are in Number Seven (7) township and are bounded on north by land of J. W. Mathis and public road known as the Newberry road; east by lands of F. J. Longshore, T. J. Davenport and James McIntosh; south by lands of Susan E. Leavell, and west by lands of S. H. Goggans, Isaac Gregory and Mrs. Fannie Connelly.

Terms of Sale: One-third of the purchase money in cash and the balance in one and two equal annual installments, with interest on the credit portion from the day of sale at the rate of eight per cent per annum, interest to be paid annually; said credit portion to be secured by a bond of the purchaser and a mortgage of said premises; said bond and mortgage to provide for ten per cent attorney's fees in case of collection by suit or by an attorney, and also to provide that in case of failure to pay the first installment, both installments will become due and payable at once at the option of the holder thereof, with leave to the purchaser to anticipate the payment of the credit portion in whole or in part.

The purchaser will be required to pay for all papers, revenue stamps and recording and will also be required to deposit with the Master fifty dollars in cash or a certified check as an evidence of good faith in his bid, and if case he fails to so deposit said amount, the Master will resell said lands at once. The said purchaser will be required to comply with the terms of said sale within ten days, and in case he fails to do so the Master will resell said lands upon the following salesday at the risk of the former purchaser.
The above two tracts of land will be first sold separately, and then as a whole, and the way they bring the most the Master will accept that bid.
H. H. RIKARD, Master for Newberry County, November 22, 1915.
